Covering The Cardinals

Game Day

Credential Requests

Members of the news media who have not been issued season credentials should request single-game credentials in writing on appropriate letterhead at least seven days in advance of the desired game. Mail or FAX requests to Paul Jensen, Director of Public Relations, P.O. Box 888, Phoenix, AZ 85001–0888. All credentials are issued to individuals. Credentials are not transferable!

(Public Relations FAX: 602/379–1821)

Credential Delivery

Credentials will be delivered in the most expeditious manner. They are mailed if time allows. Otherwise, they may be claimed at the Cardinals' public relations office at the team's training facility in south Tempe, Arizona during normal working hours, or with proper identification at the "will call" window located in the ticket office in the south end of Sun Devil Stadium (Fifth Street) on game days. "Will call" opens three hours prior to kickoff.

Sun Devil Stadium Media Entrance

The media entrance to Sun Devil Stadium is located at the southwest corner above the television parking pad for media already holding credentials. Media members who must claim credentials at "will call" may enter the stadium in the vicinity of the ticket office located at the south end of Sun Devil Stadium off Fifth Street.

Photographers

Sideline photography in the National Football League is limited to working media on specific assignment for a recognized sports publication or news service. No freelance photographers are accommodated. Only network television and authorized game personnel are admitted to the field without a camera. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and behind the broken lines that surround the entire perimeter of the playing field. All credentialed grips and messengers must remain on the perimeter of the playing field.

Telephones

The Cardinals provide numerous telephone extensions from the Arizona State University telephone system throughout the press box at Sun Devil Stadium. Media outlets desiring dedicated lines should place orders by contacting Qwest Communications (602/630–6314) for lines, and AT&T (1–800/555–8111) for instruments.

Locker Room Access/Post-Game Interviews

Members of the media wishing to conduct post-game interviews in the home and visiting locker rooms will be given access to players and coaches after the suggested "cooling-off" period following the conclusion of the game. Access is available only to individuals holding working credentials and a locker room pass which is distributed in the press box during the fourth quarter. Head Coach Dave McGinnis and selected players will hold their post-game press conferences in an interview room located directly across the hall from the Cardinals' locker room. Due to space limitations, an interview tent is erected outside the back door of the visiting locker room for the visitors' post-game interviews.

Locker Room Locations

NFL locker rooms are located in a separate building outside the north end of Sun Devil Stadium. The Arizona locker room is the first room on the right; the visitors' locker room is at the end of the hallway.

Press Box/Locker Room Routing

To reach the locker rooms from the press box, media must take the elevator to the main concourse level. There is no suitable path to walk to ground level from the press box. Emerging from the elevator at ground level, proceed north (left) along the stadium concourse. Walk to field level through the stands. Members of the media are permitted to view the conclusion of the game from inside the field fence at the northwest corner of the field. They will be allowed to proceed to the dressing rooms after game participants exit the playing field. Media members are asked not to attempt to interview game participants—players and coaches—as they exit the field.

Parking

Press parking at Sun Devil Stadium is located in two places. Some media members are accommodated with parking immediately southwest of the stadium along the railroad tracks. Other media parking is offered in the A.S.U. parking garage south of the stadium across Fifth Street.

FAX Service

Media requiring FAX service should contact a member of the Cardinal public relations staff prior to the game to fill out a simple form outlining their needs. A $10 fee is charged for long-distance FAXing.

During The Week

General Protocol

For the Cardinals' public relations office to better serve media needs, all members of the print and electronic press are asked to report to the public relations office upon arrival at the training facility. All photographers must notify the public relations office of their presence prior to gaining access to the practice field. No tripods are allowed.

Player Interviews

During the regular-season work week, Cardinal players typically are available to the media in the locker room during their lunch period. There is no media access to players on Tuesdays, their off day. Additional interview access also is available outside the locker room after the daily workouts and during prearranged appointments made through the public relations department.

Head Coach Dave McGinnis Interviews

Cardinal Head Coach Dave McGinnis is available to the media as he leaves the practice field following each day's workout. On Mondays following games and Tuesdays, the players' off day. McGinnis conducts an interview session in the public relations department. Contact the Cardinals' public relations staff to verify times.

Assistant Coaches/Staff Interviews

Interviews with Cardinal assistant coaches and other members of the organization should be arranged through the public relations department.

Opponent Coach/Player Interviews

The head coach and a player from the Cardinals' upcoming opponent are interviewed via mid-week conference call , usually Wednesday. Contact the Cardinals' public relations office each week to verify times.

William V. Bidwill

President

William V. Bidwill's association with the Cardinals began as a child ball boy on Chicago's South Side and continues today as owner and president.

The 70-year-old Chicago native presides over the oldest continuously-operated professional football franchise that dates to 1898. The Cardinals and the Chicago Bears are the two charter members of the National Football League (1920).

The Cardinals have remained in the Bidwill family since William's father, Charles, a prominent Chicago sports figure and member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, purchased the team in 1932. Charles ran the club until his death in the Cardinals' NFL championship year of 1947.

His wife, Violet, guided the franchise's fortunes for the next 15 years, followed jointly by sons William and Charles, Jr. (Stormy). William became sole owner in 1972.

Named a Cardinal vice president during his undergraduate days at Georgetown University, William Bidwill returned to Chicago from the Navy in 1956 to begin assisting family interests that included football. When the Cardinals moved to St. Louis in 1960, Bidwill returned to the organization on a full-time basis.

Bidwill remains involved in all areas of the Cardinals' day-to-day operation. He operates the organization in south Tempe, Arizona from its award-winning training facility that the team has called home since construction was completed in September, 1990.

He has been credited with his leading role in bringing Super Bowl XXX to Arizona on January 28, 1996. He also was a pivotal voice in Arizona's original award of Super Bowl XXVII.

An active supporter of various civic and charitable organizations and endeavors, Bidwill directed the formation of Cardinals Charities, the team's organization dedicated to supporting worthy Arizona causes, shortly after the Cardinals arrived in the state.

Bidwill currently is seated on the NFL Broadcasting Committee and co-chairs the NFL Retirement Board Trustees (Bert Bell/Pete Rozelle Plans).

Bidwill and his wife, Nancy, are the parents of five children and have seven grandchildren.

Michael J. Bidwill

Vice President and General Counsel

Michael Bidwill has assumed a challenging variety of responsibilities since joining the organization in November of 1996.

Bidwill's most visible role is his leadership in overseeing the team's interests in the design and construction of the new Cardinals' stadium in Tempe, Arizona that will serve as the team's new home beginning in 2004. Groundbreaking is scheduled concurrent to the start of the 2001 season.

The pursuit of a new stadium has been Bidwill's primary focus in his first four years with the team. During that time, he has been a driving force in community and political arenas as a vision for the eventual public-private partnership went from concept to reality.

The efforts of Bidwill and other community leaders will bring the state of Arizona a new stadium home for the Cardinals, Fiesta Bowl, and future Super Bowls, while also will creating revenue streams to buoy the Cactus League (Arizona spring training baseball), fund community youth recreation, and doubling the state's tourism promotion budget in Maricopa County.

In other team administrative capacities, Bidwill continues to help mold the team's future.

He spearheaded the restructuring of the Cardinals' marketing and sales department in 2000 and oversaw the restructuring of the team's community relations efforts in 2001.

Bidwill's impact on the Cardinals' organization has been noticed. He is a past nominee for Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal's "40 Under 40" celebrating the achievements of 40 of the top young executives in sports, and in October of 1999 he was named to The (Phoenix) Business Journal's "Valley 100-Plus Influential," the commerce publication's annual listing of prominent and influential business leaders in greater Phoenix.

From 1990–96, he was a federal prosecutor in Phoenix where he specialized in homicide and domestic abuse cases. He also directed three task forces, including the FBI's gang task force on the Navajo Indian Reservation in northeast Arizona.

He received seven letters of commendation in his role with the U.S. Department of Justice from various law enforcement agencies.

Bidwill is active in the community, serving on numerous committees and boards for a variety of Phoenix-area charitable organizations.

Bidwill holds a 1987 bachelor of science degree in finance from St. Louis University and a 1990 law degree from Catholic University in Washington, D.C.

Bidwill was born December 6, 1964 in St. Louis, Missouri. He resides in Tempe, Arizona.■

Larry Wilson

Vice President

Larry Wilson, one of the greatest defensive backs in NFL history, has enjoyed a career that spans 42 years as a player and front-office executive.

A 1978 inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Wilson received another milestone honor in 1994 when he was named to the NFL's all-time team announced to commemorate the league's 75th anniversary.

A legendary defensive back for the Cardinals during their first 13 seasons in St. Louis and one of only four players in franchise history to have his jersey retired, Wilson's NFL career began with 13 seasons (1960–72) as a player and has continued with a variety of administrative posts.

Wilson started his climb up the team's organizational ladder as director of professional scouting (1973–76) and director of professional personnel (1977–88). He also guided the team as interim head coach for the final three games of the 1979 season, earning credit for victories over the San Francisco 49ers and New York Giants.

His current duties include responsibility for Cardinal Charities, special events, team travel, and training camp at Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff, Arizona.

During the Cardinals' inaugural season in Phoenix in 1988, Wilson was appointed vice president and general manager to guide the franchise's football fortunes as it entered a new era in Arizona, a position he held through the 1993 season. During that span, Wilson hired a new head coach (Joe Bugel) and director of college scouting (Bob Ackles), played an active part in planning the Cardinals' state-of-the-art training facility, took a prominent role in the team's draft decision making, and implemented an aggressive approach to free agency.

As a player, Wilson reached legendary status as a hard-hitting six-time all-pro and eight-time Pro Bowl free safety, appearing in 169 NFL games—all as a Cardinal—from 1960–72. His name is referenced throughout the Cardinal record book.

He still owns club records for career interceptions (52), career interception yardage (800), and single-game interception return yardage (115).

Wilson's 96-yard interception return for a touchdown against Cleveland on December 19, 1965 remains the longest in Cardinal history, and his 91-yard interception for a touchdown the following year against Philadelphia remains third on the same list. He led the Cardinals in interceptions six times and intercepted three passes in a single game twice.

He also held or shared the franchise record for career interception returns for touchdowns (five) until 1997 when cornerback Aeneas Williams tallied his sixth.

In 1966, Wilson enjoyed one of his finest seasons with an NFL-leading 10 interceptions, including three in one game against the Chicago Bears on October 31, while tying a league record by intercepting a pass in seven consecutive games.

Wilson also held the Cardinal record for longest fumble return, an 88-yard jaunt for a touchdown at Green Bay on December 21, 1969, until 2000 when Williams broke it with an NFL record-tying 105-yard return. Wilson's 88-yarder was one of two career fumbles he returned for touchdowns and one of 12 career fumbles he recovered, the latter ranking fifth in Card annals.

Born in Rigby, Idaho, Wilson was a running back at the University of Utah.

Wilson was selected by the Cardinals in the seventh round of the 1960 NFL Draft. After converting to the defensive backfield due to injuries, Wilson and coach Chuck Drulis innovated one of today's most potent and exciting aspects of defensive football—the safety blitz.

Wilson and his wife, Nancy, reside in Scottsdale, Arizona.■

Bob Ferguson

General Manager

Bob Ferguson became the Cardinals' senior football official on May 1, 1999 when President Bill Bidwill promoted him to the newly-created position of general manager.

Later in 1999, he was appointed to the NFL's prestigious Competition Committee that oversees competitive aspects of the game on the field and recommends rules and policy changes to the clubs.

He currently serves on the committee with Minnesota Vikings Head Coach Dennis Green (co-chairman), Tampa Bay Buccaneers General Manager Rich McKay (co-chairman), Tennessee Titans Head Coach Jeff Fisher, Baltimore Ravens' Vice President-Player Personnel Ozzie Newsome, Indianapolis Colts President Bill Polian, and Carolina Panthers President Mark Richardson.

Ferguson's Cardinal responsibilities include authority over football philosophy, player personnel, the coaching staff, pro and college scouting, the annual NFL Draft, and free agency.

Ferguson also is consulted by Bidwill on salary cap and player contract matters, along with Assistant to the President Rod Graves, who remains the team's primary contract negotiator, Vice President Bill Bidwill, Jr., who continues providing strategic financial planning on salary cap issues, and Player Personnel Administrator Jay Nienkark, who is the club's daily salary-cap administrator and support negotiator.

Ferguson, 50, is a 27-year veteran of various NFL positions. He has formed his philosophies from an impressive list of NFL head coaches with whom he has worked—Chuck Knox, Tom Landry, Marv Levy, Jack Patera, Wade Phillips, Mike Shanahan, and Bill Walsh.

Ferguson joined the Cardinals in February of 1996 following 11 seasons with two rising franchises, the Buffalo Bills and Denver Broncos.

He served as the Broncos' director of player personnel for three seasons prior to joining the Cardinals following eight seasons with the Bills in various personnel positions, including assistant general manager/director of pro personnel in 1989.

The Federal Way, Washington native began his NFL career with the Seattle Seahawks as director of sales and special events from 1975–79 before moving into a scouting combine serving Buffalo, Dallas, San Francisco, and Seattle as an area scout from 1981–83.

He joined the Cowboys from 1984–85 to handle performance testing before moving to Buffalo.

Ferguson lettered three times at linebacker at the University of Washington, garnering second team all-Pac-8 Conference accolades as a junior and senior.

He earned a 1973 bachelor's degree in radio/television communications from the Seattle school before free-agent tryouts with the San Diego Chargers (1973), Los Angeles Rams (1974), and Portland Storm of the World Football League (1974).

Ferguson and his wife, Colleen, have three daughters—Vanessa, Nathalie, and Allison. The family resides in Gilbert, Arizona.

Rod Graves

Assistant to the President

Rod Graves begins his fifth season with the Cardinals as assistant to the president after 13 years in various personnel capacities with the Chicago Bears.

Graves joined the Cards in June of 1997 and was appointed to assume responsibility for the administration of the team's scouting department in May of 1998.

In his current capacity, Graves, 42, also serves as the team's primary contract negotiator in addition to overseeing college and professional scouting efforts, assisting salary-cap management, and consulting on other business aspects of the football operation.

A native of Houston, Texas, Graves began his career in professional football personnel work in 1982 as a regional scout for the Philadelphia Stars of the United States Football League. It was then he first crossed paths with former Cardinals' Head Coach Vince Tobin, the Stars' defensive coordinator. In 1983, Graves was promoted to assistant director of player personnel.

He joined the National Football League in 1984 as a regional scout for the Chicago Bears, a position he held until promoted to director of college scouting in 1993, then director of player personnel in 1994.

During his tenure with the Bears, he worked for Bill Tobin, the team's director of player personnel and older brother of Vince Tobin, along with new Cardinal Head Coach Dave McGinnis and running backs coach Johnny Roland.

Graves, who holds a bachelor's degree in economics from Texas Tech, is the son of the late Jackie Graves, the former assistant director of player personnel for the Philadelphia Eagles.

Graves is a past member of the NFL College Advisory Committee and the NFL World League Committee.

He resides in Phoenix.■

Jay Nienkark

Player Personnel Administrator

Arizona Cardinals' "capologist" Jay Nienkark begins his 10th season with the team and his fifth in his current capacity as player personnel administrator after a five-year tenure as a staff assistant in the football personnel department.

He also serves as the Cards' training camp coordinator.

Nienkark is one of six members of NFL Management Council's Technology Group, which has developed new systems for player contract reporting, salary cap management, and information management.

The 37-year-old Nienkark utilizes his management, accounting, and computer background to serve as a foundation for negotiating player contracts, salary cap projections, implementing analysis methods for salary and player information for the Cardinals and around the NFL, analyzing league rookie pool and free agency trends, and compliance with the NFL collective bargaining agreement and player personnel rules.

Nienkark also assisted in the design and implementation of the Cardinals' computerized professional scouting system.

Born and raised in Lost Nation, Iowa, population 500, Nienkark was forced to concentrate on baseball and basketball at Lost Nation H.S., a school too small to field a football team.

Nienkark later served in the U.S. Air Force from 1986–90. Prior to joining the Cardinals in 1992, Nienkark held positions with Lamson (Ariz.) Junior College, Valley National Bank, and the Circle K Corporation.

Nienkark holds an associate's degree in applied science in microcomputer operations from Lamson.

He lives in Chandler, Arizona with his wife, Julie, and their daughter, Brooke. ■

Rodd Newhouse

Pro Personnel Assistant

Rodd Newhouse begins his third season with the Cardinals as the club's pro personnel assistant, responsible for overseeing the team's evaluation of professional players, providing input into the club's personnel evaluation and decision-making process, handling matters involving the waiver procedure and free agent signings, and advance scouting of future opponents.

Following his collegiate football career as a running back at Rice University where he earned degrees in economics, managerial studies, and sports management, Newhouse signed briefly as a free agent with the Baltimore Ravens in 1998.

In the spring and fall of 1998, he worked for the Dallas Cowboys as an assistant to his father, Robert Newhouse, the Cowboys' player programs director, who played for Dallas from 1972–83 and was a member of three Super Bowl teams. The younger Newhouse facilitated various player community programs and monitored career development opportunities.

In the fall of 1998, Newhouse worked with the National Football League Management Council, NFL Properties (the league's marketing arm), and NFL Security.

As a member of the Management Council staff, Newhouse worked in the area of player programs and labor relations where he helped develop programs in continuing education and financial and career advancement for NFL players, spouses, and their families. He also helped monitor the league's salary cap reconciliation through analysis of contract negotiations and legalities as it pertained to the collective bargaining agreement, and was responsible for preparation of the data base for players obtained by the new Cleveland Browns' franchise via the expansion draft.

As a collegian at Rice, Newhouse gained 484 yards rushing and scored two touchdowns on 95 carries in 44 games (14 starts). He also caught five passes for 135 yards, including a career-long 62-yarder against Ohio State as a junior, and returned seven kickoffs for 114 yards.

Born May 21, 1975 in Dallas, Newhouse, who was selected to the under-16 U.S. National regional soccer team as a teenager, attended Lake Highlands High School in Dallas

He resides in Gilbert, Arizona.■

Jim Stanley

Pro Personnel Assistant

Jim Stanley, the former head coach of the Michigan Panthers (USFL) and Oklahoma State University (O.S.U.), begins his sixth season in scouting after coaching the Cardinals' defensive line in 1994.

Stanley, a 13-year NFL coaching veteran, joined the Cardinals in 1995 following six seasons with the Houston Oilers, including 1993 when the Oilers set a club record with 52 quarterback sacks and ranked first in the NFL in both rushing defense (79.6 yards per game) and interceptions (26). Houston logged 50 sacks in 1992.

Before joining the Oilers, Stanley served as defensive coordinator for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1986.

From 1983–84, he compiled a 22–14 record as head coach of the Panthers, a span that included a 12–6 mark, the USFL championship, and league coach-of-the-year honors in 1983.

He was defensive backs coach in 1979 for the New York Giants and from 1980–82 with the Atlanta Falcons.

As the six-year (1973–78) head coach at O.S.U., the Cowboys posted a 35–33–2 composite record and earned bowl victories in 1974 (Fiesta) and '76 (Tangerine). The latter 9–3 squad was Big Eight Conference co-champion. During his Stillwater stay, he also was selected to coach in the East-West Shrine Game (1973), the Hula Bowl (1977), and the Japan Bowl (1977).

Prior to his promotion to the Oklahoma State head-coaching position, Stanley was the Cowboys' defensive coordinator/assistant head coach for the 1972 season in his second stint at O.S.U.

Earlier, he was defensive coordinator for the Canadian Football League's Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1971–72), the U.S. Naval Academy (1969–70), and O.S.U. (1963–68).

His first two college coaching positions were as an assistant at Southern Methodist (1961) and Texas-El Paso (1962).

Stanley began his coaching career in the Amarillo, Texas high school system from 1959–60.

As a player, Stanley was a three-year starter at Texas A&M under legendary Head Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. He played offense (guard) and defense (tackle) for the Aggies who went undefeated in 1956.

Born June 22, 1934 in Lynch, Kentucky, Stanley and his wife, Sylvia, have four grown children—daughters Rhonda and Starlyn, and sons Mark and Matthew.■

Jerry Hardway

National Scouting Coordinator

Jerry Hardaway, who returned to the Cardinals' organization in 1996 after a one-year hiatus (1995) as an area scout for the expansion Carolina Panthers, was promoted to the newly-created position of national scouting coordinator in May, 1999.

In his current capacity, Hardaway has expanded his scouting expertise to the entire nation, cross-checking evaluations of the rest of the Cardinals' scouting staff and offering additional study of top collegiate players.

Hardaway, 49, who has coached extensively at the collegiate and high school levels, begins his 13th season with the Cardinals.

He coached running backs and the defensive secondary during a three-year tenure at the University of California (1984–86) where he was utilized in national recruiting efforts.

Prior to joining the Cal staff, Hardaway spent six seasons (1978–83) under legendary Head Coach Eddie Robinson as running backs and special-teams coach at Grambling State. During Hardaway's stay, the Tigers registered a 49–14–4 composite record and four conference championships.

Hardaway began his collegiate coaching career at Memphis State where he tutored tight ends, offensive tackles, and special teams from 1975–77.

He also coached on the high school level, serving as head coach of Bolton H.S. in Memphis-Arlington, Tennessee in 1974 and head coach and athletic director at his alma mater, Salesian Prep, in Richmond, California prior to joining the Cardinals the first time.

As a player, Hardaway lettered as a fullback and tight end at Southern Illinois University (S.I.U.) where he was named co-captain in 1973.

Hardaway, born in Memphis, Tennessee but reared in Richmond, California, graduated from S.I.U. with a bachelor's degree in speech education in 1974. He also earned a master's degree in sports administration from Grambling State in 1979.

He and his wife, Lisa, have a son, Jason and a daughter, Jheri. They reside in Cary, N.C.■

Jim Carmody

Scout

Jim Carmody, the former head coach at Southern Mississippi and a veteran of more than 30 years of coaching at various colleges and the NFL, enters his seventh season as a regional scout for the Cardinals.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Carmody, 62, completed a three-year (1992–94) stay as assistant head coach and defensive line coach at Mississippi in 1994, his second stint at Ole Miss.

Before rejoining the Rebel staff, Carmody was assistant head coach and secondary coach at Mississippi College for the 1991 season.

A graduate of Copiah-Lincoln Junior College and Tulane University, Carmody launched his collegiate coaching career as an offensive and defensive line coach at Tulane from 1961–62. He served as freshmen coach at Kentucky in 1963, followed by a three-year tenure as defensive line coach at Mississippi State from 1964–66.

He coached inside linebackers and the defensive line at North Carolina from 1967–73, and the defensive line at Ole Miss from 1974–77 before the Rebels promoted him to defensive coordinator (1975–77). He later spent 1978–80 at Southern Mississippi as defensive coordinator and assistant head coach.

Following the 1981 campaign as defensive line coach for the Buffalo Bills, Carmody was named head coach at Southern Mississippi in 1982. In six seasons at the Hattiesburg, Mississippi school, Carmody's teams posted a 37–29 composite record, five winning seasons, and a 6–3 slate against in-state rivals Mississippi and Mississippi State.

He returned to the Mississippi State staff in December, 1988, serving two seasons (1989–90) as defensive coordinator and defensive line coach before going to Mississippi College.

In October, 1993, he was inducted into the Copiah-Lincoln Junior College Hall of Fame.

Born in Shreveport, La. and reared in New Orleans, Carmody is married to the former Earlyn "Noonie" Regouffre, also of New Orleans. They are the parents of four sons—Steve, Brian, Keith, and Chris.■

Bill Dekraker

Scout

Bill Dekraker, 29, begins his second season as a member of the Cardinals' scouting staff, primarily assigned to the Northeast area.

He joined the Cards in 2000 following three seasons as a scouting assistant for the Carolina Panthers.

While with Carolina, Dekraker worked on draft preparation, attended workouts, and updated a new pro personnel computer program for the Panthers.

Prior to his time in Carolina, Dekraker spent one and one-half years at Indiana University as a recruiting assistant, where he took part in organizing recruiting visits, and worked with professional scouts visiting the school.

Dekraker also served as a scouting intern for the Washington Redskins from December 1995-January, 1997. His responsibilities in Washington included reviewing videos of draft prospects, charting plays during games, assisting with film breakdown, and coordinating training camp.

Before his time with the Redskins, Dekraker, a 1995 graduate of Old Dominion with a bachelor's degree in sports management, served in a variety of capacities with the Hampton Roads Sharks minor league football team and the National Hockey League's Washington Capitals.

He resides in Manassas, Virginia.■

Steve Keim

Scout

Steve Keim enters his third season with the Cardinals after joining the club in May, 1999 as a regional scout.

His area of responsibility is the Eastern region previously handled by Jerry Hardaway, who was named the Cardinals' national scouting coordinator in May, 1999.

Keim attended Red Land High School in Lewisberry, Pennsylvania and earned a bachelor's degree in communications from North Carolina State.

A two-time all-Atlantic Coast Conference selection as a guard at N.C. State, Keim had a brief stint in pro football as a free agent with the Miami Dolphins (1996) and Edmonton Eskimos (1997) of the Canadian Football League.

He served as assistant strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater for two years, assisted the recruiting coordinator with evaluations, and served as liaison to NFL personnel wishing to scout Wolfpack football players.

Keim resides in Raleigh, North Carolina.■

Bob Mazie

Scout

Bob Mazie, with 37 years of experience in football, primarily on the college level, begins his eighth year as a regional scout for the Cardinals.

Mazie started his coaching career on the high school level in Pittsburgh, Pa. from 1958–63 where he developed future NFL players Francis Peay and Larry Brown.

Mazie broke into the college ranks from 1965–66 as an assistant coach at Southwestern Oklahoma State, the first of two stints at the Weatherford, Oklahoma school, prior to a five-year tour (1967–71) at Southern Illinois (S.I.U.) as offensive line coach where he tutored future NFL players Lionel Antoine and Carl Mauck. The latter was the Cards' offensive line coach from 1996–97.

Mazie left S.I.U. to become assistant athletic director and head football coach at Kutztown (Pa.) State, providing the school its first winning season in several years with a 6–4 record in 1971. At Kutztown, he coached future Dallas Cowboy running back Doug Dennison.

The University of Dayton was Mazie's next stop from 1972–75, first as an assistant, then as offensive coordinator. During his time directing the offense, the Flyers set several school passing records, including a single-season mark of 1,992 passing yards.

Mazie returned to Southwestern Oklahoma State as head coach in 1978, compiling a 38–38–2 (.500) composite slate over eight seasons that would have read 44–32–2 (.577), but a player ruled ineligible at the end of the 1981 season dropped that year's 9–2 record to 3–8. Overall, the squad led the Oklahoma Intercollegiate Conference in defense five times (1978–79, '82–83, '85). Mazie was named the league's coach-of-the-year in 1985. One of his standout Bulldog players was future Cardinal punter Carl Birdsong.

Born March 29, 1938 in Pittsburgh, Pa., Mazie played collegiately at Waynesburg (Pa.) College where he was a four-year letterman, senior captain, and all-conference and all-state at tight and defensive end while earning his bachelor's degree in social studies and history in 1957.

He later continued his education and playing career, playing for the U.S. Army service team, captaining the Wheeling Ironmen of the Continental Football League in 1961–62, and completing a master's degree in education at Southwestern Oklahoma State in 1965.

Mazie and his wife, Inez, who reside in The Woodlands, Texas, are the parents of four daughters and a son. They have 11 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.■

George Boone

Scout

George Boone, a long-time fixture in the Cardinals' scouting department, rejoins the team in 2001 after a nine-year hiatus.

Most recently, Boone spent six years with the Indianapolis Colts, serving the team as director of player personnel (1994–97) and director of college scouting (1998–99).

Boone previously spent 24 years with the Cardinals' organization, serving as director of player personnel from 1973–91 when he oversaw the club's scouting and drafting operations, directed the team's full-time scouts, and managed involvement with the National Scouting Combine, a personnel organization utilized by most NFL teams in pooling scouting reports.

Before joining the Cardinals, Boone held a scouting position with the Central-Eastern Professional Organization (CEPO), a scouting combine also used by NFL teams. He worked three years for CEPO before accepting the assistant player personnel director's post with the Cardinals in 1968.

A native of Louisville, Kentucky, Boone is an alumnus of the University of Kentucky where he was a three-year starter at offensive and defensive tackle from 1957–59. He earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in education at Kentucky where he also served as an assistant football coach for six years (1960–65).

He and his wife, Dedee, the parents of five grown children, reside in Phoenix.■

George Belu

Scout

Veteran college football coach George Belu shifts career gears in 2001 by joining the Cardinals' scouting staff.

Belu, a 36-year coaching veteran who broke into the profession in 1965, has been the offensive coordinator at five schools and offensive line coach at six universities.

His coaching highlights include an 11-win season and Tangerine Bowl appearance at Miami (O.) in 1973, a Big Eight Conference title and two bowl appearances at Colorado, an Orange Bowl trip at Louisiana State, and an Atlantic Coast Conference (A.C.C.) championship at North Carolina State.

His coaching pedigree was shaped by an impressive list of head coaches he served—Jim Caldwell (Wake Forest), John Cooper (Ohio State), Bill Mallory (Indiana, Colorado, and Miami, O.), and Jerry Stovall (Louisiana State).

Belu spent last season at Ohio State as offensive line coach when the Buckeyes appeared in the Outback Bowl.

Prior to his brief stay in Columbus, he was the running-game coordinator at Wake Forest from 1997–99 during a resurgence in the Winston-Salem, North Carolina school's football fortunes. Under Belu's tutelage, the Demon Deacons' rushing attack made the second biggest improvement in A.C.C. history, jumping from 65.4 yards per game in 1998 to 175.7 yards per outing in 1999.

Unexpectedly, the Deacons ranked 31st nationally in rushing yardage in '99 and recorded the highest rushing totals by a Wake Forest team since 1984. In the process, Belu helped the Deacons earn a bowl bid for only the fifth time in school history (23–3 victory over Arizona State in the Aloha Bowl) and notch their first winning season since 1992.

Prior to landing at Wake Forest, Belu spent 13 seasons at Indiana as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. The Hoosiers appeared in six postseason games (All-American Bowl, Copper Bowl, Independence Bowl, Liberty Bowl, Peach Bowl twice) during Belu's tenure.

Individuals also excelled for Belu in Bloomington. Running back Anthony Thompson, a three-year Cardinal who was the team's second-round draft choice in 1990, led the Big Ten Conference in rushing for two consecutive seasons, was named the conference most valuable player by the Chicago Tribune, and was runner-up for the 1989 Heisman Trophy.

Belu twice produced two-time all-Big Ten offensive linemen and 12 offensive linemen who were selected in the first or second rounds of the NFL Draft.

Belu's lengthy stay at Indiana was preceded by stops at Louisiana State (1980–83), North Carolina State (1979), Colorado (1974–78), Miami (1973), and Denison (1968–72).

During Belu's tenures, Louisiana State reached the Orange Bowl in 1982, N.C. State won the A.C.C. title in 1979, Colorado was co-champion of the Big 8 Conference in 1976 and earned bids to the Orange (1976) and Astro-Bluebonnet (1975) bowls, and Miami's 11–0 squad won the Mid-American Conference championship and a berth in the Tangerine Bowl in 1973.

Belu, a Lorain, O. native who holds bachelor of science and master of education degrees from Ohio University, is a member of the Lorain Football Sports Hall of Fame.

He has been married to his high school sweetheart, Janet, since 1961.■

John Omohundro

Head Trainer

John Omohundro, the NFL's senior trainer, begins his 35th season with the Cardinals and his 31st campaign as the team's head trainer.

Omohundro and his assistants, Jim Shearer and Jeff Herndon, enjoyed a memorable 1993 season when they were named the National Football League's athletic training staff-of-the-year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS). They were recognized for that achievement at the annual Ed Block Courage Awards Dinner.

During high school, Omohundro's career in athletics and life-long love affair with baseball began wholesomely as the winner of a contest to become bat boy for the Pacific Coast League Salt Lake City Bees in his hometown. Omohundro soon became a jack-of-all-trades around the Bees' clubhouse in the late 1950s and early '60s with future major leaguers like Gene Freese, Dick Hall, and Dick Stuart, and performing as a clubhouse assistant, traveling secretary, and assistant trainer for future San Francisco Giants head trainer Al Wylder.

Omohundro began his undergraduate studies while serving as head trainer at the College of Southern Utah from 1961–62. He spent 1962–65 in Laramie, Wyoming at the University of Wyoming, serving as a student athletic trainer during his undergraduate studies. After earning his bachelor's degree in physical education/allied health sciences in 1965, Omohundro remained as a graduate assistant trainer.

He also served six years as a sergeant in the U.S. Army Reserve as a senior medical specialist, including one stint on active duty from January-June, 1967 before beginning his long association with the Cardinals in time for the 1967 football season.

He served as the team's assistant trainer for four seasons (1967–70) before his promotion to head trainer in 1971.

Omohundro has taken an active role in his professional associations throughout his career. He served PFATS as secretary/treasurer from 1976–82, followed by a two-year term as the National Football Conference representative. He also is the former chairman of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) Ethics Committee. In 1993, NATA named Omohundro recipient of its 25-year distinguished service award. Omohundro also is a former chairman of the Missouri State Athletic Trainer Advisory Committee.

Omohundro is a member of the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame, and a member of the International Narcotics Officers' Association.

In 1999, Seton Catholic High School honored Omohundro's support and fund-raising efforts of the school's baseball program by naming its field "John Omohundro Field."

Omohundro, wife Martha, sons John and Jim, and daughter Neely, reside in Tempe, Arizona.■

Jim "Machine" Shearer

Assistant Trainer

Jim "The Machine" Shearer enters his 28th year with the Cardinals, assisting in all aspects of the training and medical areas.

Shearer, fellow assistant Jeff Herndon, and head trainer John Omohundro were named the National Football League's 1993 athletic training staff-of-the-year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS) and recognized for that achievement at the annual Ed Block Courage Awards Dinner.

A graduate of the University of Wyoming with a bachelor's degree in physical education, Shearer worked in Gillette, Wyoming as the city's assistant recreation director and head trainer at Gillette High School before returning to Wyoming as a graduate assistant trainer in 1973–74. He joined the Cardinals in 1974.

Born in Worland, Wyoming, Shearer and his wife, Nelma, have a son, Christopher, and a daughter, Sarah. They reside in Tempe, Arizona.■

Jeff Herndon

Assistant Trainer

Jeff Herndon enters his 16th season on the Cardinals' training staff.

Herndon, fellow assistant trainer Jim Shearer, and head trainer John Omohundro were named the National Football League's 1993 athletic training staff-of-the-year by the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society (PFATS) and recognized for that achievement at the annual Ed Block Courage Awards Dinner.

Herndon earned a master's degree in physical education from Syracuse University in 1985 after completing his undergraduate work at the University of Missouri.

A native of Boone County, Missouri, the 40-year-old Herndon first worked with the Cardinals during the 1984 and '85 preseason training camps. He followed that initiation as athletic trainer at Tascosa High School in Amarillo, Texas from 1985–86 before rejoining the Cardinals in 1986.

Herndon and his wife, Gail, reside in Gilbert, Arizona with their daughter, Elsabeth Marie (8).■

Mark Ahlemeier

Equipment Manager

Mark Ahlemeier enters his 15th season as the Cardinals' equipment manager after succeeding 21-year equipment manager Bill Simmons in April, 1987. He had served as Simmons' assistant for six years.

Ahlemeier was born in St. Charles, Mo. and raised in nearby Woodson Terrace. He attended Ritenour High School and Florissant Valley College in St. Louis.

He and his wife, Patti, have three children—daughters Mandy and Molly, and son Mark. They live in Tempe, Arizona. ■

Steve Christensen

Assistant Equipment Manager

Steve Christensen enters his 14th year as the Cardinals' assistant equipment manager, assisting department head Mark Ahlemeier in all phases of the team's logistical and equipment preparations.

Born in St. Cloud, Minnesota, Christensen attended Bozeman (Mont.) High School before enrolling at New Mexico State University and later Western Montana College to study art education.

After working at both schools as a student equipment manager, the 42-year-old Christensen was appointed to the equipment staff at Arizona State University as an assistant in 1982. He remained with the Sun Devils until joining the Cardinals in June of 1988 shortly after the team's arrival in Arizona.

The father of one daughter, Kelsey, Christensen resides in Chandler, Arizona. ■

Benny Greenberg

Video Director

The 2001 season marks Benny Greenberg's 36th year of affiliation with the Cardinals as the team's video director.

In 2001, Greenberg is an instrumental cog in he transition from videotape to digital practice and game footage.

A St. Louis native who spent his entire life in the Gateway City before the Cardinals' move to Arizona in 1988, Greenberg, 75, owned and operated photography stores until the team's move to Arizona in addition to his film and video duties with the Cardinals that include videotaping games and practices.

Greenberg also worked as a cameraman for St. Louis television stations, positions he held concurrently with part-time work for the Cardinals that began in 1966. He joined the Cards on a full-time basis in 1970.

He studied mechanical engineering at Washington University in St. Louis for three years in the 1940s.

Greenberg and his wife, Bebe, reside in Scottsdale, Arizona. They have two sons, Mark and Barry, and four grandchildren.■

COACHES

Head Coach Dave McGinnis

Dave McGinnis, although born in Independence, Kansas (August 7, 1951), is a west Texan (and dang proud of it), complete with wit, charm, drawl, and blunt, dad-gum honesty. He is rooted in the small-town values instilled by a childhood in Snyder, Texas, located, as he characteristically phrases it, "30 miles northwest of Sweetwater, 44 miles south of Post, 26 miles west of Rotan, and 15 miles due east of Gail."

Sure thing, coach!

He is a man of simple tastes (Mexican food chased with Diet Dr. Pepper, music from country to jazz, regular exercise, a good laugh, golf, travel that includes vacations in—get this—Timpson, Texas, reading "anything and everything," and high school football games) and deep convictions (faith, family, work ethic, and common decency).

He's dynamic, organized, personable, assertive, polished, and, what else, homespun. He's also a Frog. (More on that later.)

He communicates, motivates, and tackles life—and now his football team—with zeal and passion. He is all about the fiber and fabric of the sport he loves.

McGinnis is all these things and more, and since December 18, 2000, he also is a head coach in the National Football League!

Cardinals' President William V. Bidwill began and ended the search for his team's 32nd head coach with a no-doubt-about-it glance down the hall from his own office when he lassoed McGinnis, fulfilling a career-long dream of the Cards' respected five-year defensive coordinator.

In McGinnis, the Cardinals have hitched their wagon to a born leader.

Pedigree

The sports-minded McGinnis—he excelled in football and baseball for the Snyder High School Fighting Tigers, became an avid golfer, and remains a regular jogger—gravitated to football quickly and comfortably, like his favorite pair of Levis. It became his first love. A childhood in football-mad Texas does that to a kid.

En route to the Cardinals, McGinnis played for or coached under the likes of Jim Dickey (Kansas State), NFL legend and NBC-TV personality Mike Ditka (Chicago Bears), Al Onofrio (Missouri), Jim Pittman (Texas Christian), Dennis Raetz (Indiana State), Jim Shofner (T.C.U.), Vince Tobin (Missouri, Bears, Cardinals), and Miami Dolphins' Head Coach Dave Wannstedt (Bears).

Yet, McGinnis still credits his high school football and baseball coach, Speedy Moffett, for instilling the tenets he has followed throughout his athletic career. It's a Texas thing.

"He preached the necessity of putting your values and goals in direct line with the values and goals of your team," McGinnis lauds.

"Mac," as he had become known to friends and associates, was rewarded with a football scholarship to—here comes the Frog part—Texas Christian University (T.C.U.), the Horned Frogs! A defensive back, McGinnis was a two-year starter (1971–72) and three-time letterman (1970–72). His five interceptions as a junior tied for the team lead. He also earned a bachelor's degree in business administration.

His Frog tenure produced his most embarrassing football moment, too. As a sophomore, "Mac" was knocked unconscious on the opening kickoff of his first varsity road game at Purdue.

The Coaching Climb

McGinnis spent the first 13 years of his coaching career in the collegiate ranks, beginning at his alma mater, T.C.U., as freshmen coach from 1973–74. In 1975, he moved to Missouri to coach linebackers and the secondary for three years. After a stay at Indiana State as secondary coach that began in 1978, McGinnis returned to T.C.U. in 1982 for one season as defensive backfield coach before joining Kansas State as defensive ends and linebackers coach from 1983–85.

Da Bears

By 1986, professional football came calling in the form of the unforgettable Chicago Bears, fresh from their dominating Super Bowl-championship season of 1985.

McGinnis had landed in the lap of perhaps the most memorable collection of athletes and characters in NFL history. Behind the team's success and swagger, the principals—Ditka's high-profile nucleus of front-line players included Richard Dent, Gary Fencik, Dan Hampton, Wilber

Marshall, Jim McMahon, Steve McMichael, Walter Payton, Mike Singletary, Otis Wilson, et al—blended into a complicated labyrinth of ability, ego, independence, and style that accelerated the learning curve of the young, ascending coach.

McGinnis spent 10 seasons (1986–95) coaching the Bears' linebackers, a span that included nine playoff games. In his decade with the Bears, the Chicago defense ranked among the top six teams in fewest yards allowed seven times. McGinnis also was part of a defensive staff that led the NFL in fewest points allowed in 1986 (then NFL-record low of 187) and 1988 and ranked first or second in total defense from 1986–88.

In addition, McGinnis coached Pro Bowl players at all three linebacker positions—outside linebackers Wilson and Marshall, and middle linebacker Singletary, a 1998 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee who made the Pro Bowl every season under McGinnis' tutelage.

Chicago also blessed him with two relationships that have enriched his life immeasurably—marriage to the former Kim Kvasnicka, who caught his eye at Kansas State, and a life-long bond with Singletary, who McGinnis feels is the toughest and most inspirational player he has coached.

Finding A Home In The Desert

McGinnis was pried out of Chicago by Tobin in 1996 to join his first Cardinal coaching staff. "Mac" relished his first opportunity to coordinate an NFL defense and grow professionally.

McGinnis' first year at the Cardinals' defensive controls produced a unit that climbed from 26th overall in 1995 to 21st in '96, allowed nine fewer touchdowns, and fought its way from last in the NFL against the run (140.6 yards per game) in 1995 to 21st (116.4) in '96. In addition, Card opponents gained almost one full yard less per rushing attempt than in '95 (4.5–3.6) as eight of 16 Arizona opponents failed to crack 100 yards rushing.

In 1997, the Cards' third-down success on defense was noteworthy. Arizona's defenders held opponents to just 76 third-down conversions, second in the NFC to Tampa Bay (75), and allowed only one conversion in 27 third-and-long (11 or more yards) tries.

Consequently, the '97 Cardinal defense forced more punts—94—than all but three other teams (Detroit-97, Dallas-95, and Washington-95), and 36 percent more than 1996 (69 punts).

In addition, Arizona's defense yielded only 4.85 yards per pass on third down, an improvement of over a yard and one-half compared to 1996 (6.46 yards per third-down passing play).

The 1998 Cardinal defense helped lead the Cardinals into postseason play with 39 takeaways, trailing only NFC champion Atlanta (44) and Seattle (42) and nearly doubling Arizona's total from the previous season. Fielding 11 different starting lineups in 16 regular-season games, the unit finished with three rookie or first-year starters and only four 16-game starters.

Attrition in the trenches hampered Arizona's overall 1999 defense, yet the group ranked ninth in the NFL against the pass, allowing only 197.3 air yards per game. His latest linebacking protegee, Ronald McKinnon, became the first 200-tackle defender in Cardinal history.

In 2000, the wheels came off. Seven games into the season, Bidwill looked to McGinnis to shepherd the team—and franchise—through what remained of the 3–13 shipwreck season as interim head coach.

He immediately appointed defensive backs coach Larry Marmie coordinator of the Cards' defense that was decimated by injuries, fielding 10 different starting alignments in its front seven. Only four defenders started every game.

The results were humbling, but the undaunted McGinnis found opportunity in adversity. A near-miss 21–10 loss to playoff-bound New Orleans on October 29 in McGinnis' first game at the Cards' helm set the stage for dramatics the following week.

As Maricopa County pondered the future of the Cardinals via its vote on a new stadium two days later, McGinnis led the Cards against the Washington Redskins and emerged with his first head-coaching victory in an emotional 16–15 upset victory. Poetically, the victory was sparked by Arizona's defense, primarily cornerback Aeneas Williams' NFL record-tying 105-yard fumble return for a touchdown.

The victory is credited with playing a significant role in Proposition 302's passage two days later.■

Larry Marmie

Defensive Coordinator

Former Arizona State University Head Coach Larry Marmie begins his sixth year with the Cardinals and his first full season as defensive coordinator.

He served as the team's defensive backs coach from 1996 until midway through the 2000 season when he was elevated to the coordinator position following the appointment of then-defensive coordinator Dave McGinnis to interim head coach.

Marmie brought 26 years of collegiate coaching experience to the Cardinals in 1996 when he accepted his first professional coaching position.

His star pupil, cornerback Aeneas Williams, was recognized with his third, fourth, fifth, and sixth Pro Bowl trips in Marmie's first four seasons with the Cardinals. Williams' two 1997 interception returns for touchdowns led the NFC and raised his career total to six, breaking Hall of Famer Larry Wilson's team mark of five.

Pat Tillman, who like Marmie has local roots at Arizona State, emerged as one of the team's bright young defensive players last year at strong safety with a team-leading 224 tackles, the highest single-season total in franchise history.

Free safety Kwamie Lassiter blossomed in 1998 in his first extended playing time as a starter, equalling the NFL single-game record with four interceptions vs. San Diego in the regular-season finale. Lassiter's eight interceptions for the season led the NFC.

Lassiter scored his first NFL touchdown in 1999, a 78-yard interception return against Philadelphia that ranks as the fifth longest in franchise history.

In 1998 during the Cardinals' return to postseason play, Marmie also tutored a secondary that fielded a rookie starter in every game—free safety Tillman for the first 11, cornerback Corey Chavous for the last seven. Tillman became the Cardinals' first rookie opening-day starter at free safety since the team's arrival in Arizona in 1988.

The Barnesville, Ohio native spent the 1995 season tutoring UCLA's defensive backs following three years (1992–94) as Tennessee's defensive coordinator in his second stint at the Knoxville school.

He was head coach at Arizona State from 1988–91, posting a 22–21–1 composite record, after earlier serving as the Sun Devils' defensive coordinator from 1985–87, a span that included A.S.U.'s 1986 Pac-10 Conference and Rose Bowl championship team. Marmie's '86 Sun Devil defensive unit led the Pac-10 in scoring defense.

The former Eastern Kentucky (E.K.U.) quarterback (1962–65) entered the coaching ranks at Berea (Ky.) High School (1966–67) following his collegiate playing career. A four-year stint as secondary and defensive line coach at Morehead (Ky.) State (1968–71) followed before returning to E.K.U. for five seasons (1972–76) to coach the defensive line and linebackers.

Marmie later served as defensive coordinator at Tulsa (1977–78), defensive backfield coach at North Carolina (1979–82), and defensive coordinator in his first stay at Tennessee (1983–84) where he was named the Southeastern Conference assistant coach-of-the-year in 1983.

Marmie, a native of Barnesville, Ohio, holds a bachelor's degree (health, physical education, and recreation) and a master's degree (education) from Eastern Kentucky.

He and his wife, Linda, have three married children—daughters Vicki Ness and Cozy Hays, and son Larry, Jr.—and seven grandchildren.■

Rich Olson

Offensive Coordinator

Rich Olson, a protege of head coaching notables Norv Turner, Dennis Erickson, Jim Sweeney, John Robinson, and Lou Holtz, opens the 2001 season as the Cardinals' new offensive coordinator.

The 25-year coaching veteran spent the past six years in Seattle (1995–98) and Washington (1999–2000). A two-time collegiate offensive coordinator, his new Cardinals' post is his first NFL coordinating position.

As quarterbacks coach for Turner's Redskins the past two seasons, Olson tutored 1999 Pro Bowl quarterback Brad Johnson, who completed a team-record 316 passes for 4,005 yards and 24 touchdowns en route to a 10–6 record and Washington's first division title since 1991. Johnson also broke a Redskin single-game passing mark that stood for 51 years with 471 yards, also the highest in the league in '99.

Prior to joining Turner, Olson served in the same capacity with the Seahawks under Erickson, whose high-powered Oregon State squad defeated Notre Dame in the 2001 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

Olson began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Washington State, in 1970, spent 1971 at Fresno State, and coached at the high-school level from 1972–76 before working with Turner as an offensive line coach on Head Coach John Robinson's staff at Southern California in 1977. The following season, Olson matriculated to Southern Methodist to tutor the Mustangs' offensive line and running backs for three seasons for Mustang Head Coach Ron Meyer, where he helped recruit future NFL running backs Eric Dickerson and Craig James.

Olson coached the defensive backs for Holtz at Arkansas from 1981–83, then returned to Fresno State for eight seasons (1984–91) as offensive coordinator when the school compiled a 77–20–1 composite record.

In 1992, Olson coached wide receivers at the University of Miami and later was the Hurricanes' offensive coordinator under Erickson from 1993–94 when the Hurricanes forged a 30–6 overall mark during his three-year stay.

Born July 7, 1948 in Los Angeles, Olson graduated from Montebello (Calif.) High School, attended Harbor Junior College in Wilmington, Calif., then lettered for two seasons (1968–69) at quarterback and free safety at Washington State where he was awarded a degree in physical education and political science. He and his wife, Cindy, have one child, daughter Kasey.■

Geep Chryst

Quarterbacks

George Patrick "Geep" Chryst, an 11-year NFL coaching veteran, returns to the Cardinals as quarterbacks coach after two seasons as the offensive coordinator for the San Diego Chargers. Chryst previously was on Arizona's staff from 1996–98 with responsibilities in quality control (1996), tight ends (1997), and quarterbacks (1998), and also served for five seasons (1991–95) with the Chicago Bears as director of research/quality control.

Chryst tutored Cardinal quarterback Jake Plummer during his finest NFL season in 1998 season when he ranked third in the NFC and fourth in the league with 3,737 passing yards in his second NFL season and led the Cardinals to postseason play.

Chryst joined the Chargers' staff as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach and was instrumental in the development of San Diego's successful "no huddle" offensive attack in 1999 as offensive coordinator. As a result, the Chargers completed the most passes (332) in 13 seasons and passer Jim Harbaugh enjoyed the second-highest passing production (2,761 yards) of his 13-year NFL career and became the only quarterback in Chargers history other than Hall of Famer Dan Fouts to pass for 400 yards in a game.

During his previous stint with the Cardinals, Chryst tutoring of the tight ends paid dividends in both 1996 and '97. Pat Carter's 26 receptions for 329 yards in 1996 marked the best production by a Cardinal tight end since Rob Awalt's 33 catches for 360 yards in 1989. The following year, Chris Gedney caught four touchdown passes, the most by an Arizona tight end since 1988.

Chryst hails from an athletic family. His father, George, was a successful football coach at Wisconsin-Platteville from 1980–92 and was instrumental in the formation of the "Cheese League," the annual influx of NFL training camps to Wisconsin colleges, when he enticed the Chicago Bears to being training at the Platteville campus in 1984.

In 1980, George Chryst's first season as head coach, Platteville staged the then-greatest comeback in NCAA history, overcoming a 33–0 deficit to defeat Wisconsin-Eau Claire 52–43 for the Wisconsin State University Conference championship.

His four siblings—two brothers and two sisters—also are accomplished in the athletic arena.

Brother Paul is the tight ends coach for the Chargers, and brother Rick is commissioner of the Mid-American Conference. Sisters Cathy and Dolly were track stars in college; the former was an AAU sprint champion, the latter competed at the University of Wisconsin.

Born June 25, 1962 in Madison, Wisconsin, Chryst began his coaching career with his father at Wisconsin-Platteville in 1987, joined the staff at Wisconsin for one season (1988), then moved to Wyoming to coach the offensive line (1989) and quarterbacks (1990).

In 1991, he was the wide receivers/running backs coach for the Orlando Thunder of the World League before beginning his first season with the Bears where he first crossed paths with current Cardinal Head Coach Dave McGinnis. In the spring of 1992, however, Chryst took a 15-day hiatus from Chicago to long snap in three playoff games for short-handed Orlando after being out of uniform for eight years.

A 1984 Princeton graduate with a bachelor's degree in history, Chryst also holds a master's degree in educational administration from Wisconsin. A three-year starter at linebacker as a Princeton undergraduate, Chryst also played baseball for two years.

His unique nickname is a truncation of the initials adorning his first Christmas stocking—"G.P." Chryst.

Chryst's wife, Shelley, was a scholarship volleyball player at Wyoming and played professionally in the two-player sand version (Women's Professional Volleyball Association) in 1994. She also was assistant volleyball coach at Northwestern (1994) and Wisconsin-Milwaukee (1995).

They are the parents of three children—sons Keller and Jackson and daughter Gillian.■

Mike Devlin

Assistant Offensive Line/Offensive Quality Control

Mike Devlin enters his first full season on the Cardinal coaching staff as assistant offensive line coach/offensive quality control after initially joining the staff two weeks into the 2000 season.

Devlin, 31, was an all-America center at Iowa and Outland Trophy finalist as a Hawkeye senior. He was selected by Buffalo in the fifth round of the 1996 NFL Draft and played in 44 games for the Bills, then signed with Arizona as a free agent prior to the 1996 season.

As a Cardinal, Devlin started 26 of 42 games at center from 1996–98 and appeared in 58 games overall until his release August 27, 2000 on the final roster cutdown.

Devlin hails from a football family. His father, John, was a football coach for 40 years, including collegiate assistant positions as Bloomsburg, Florida State, Kentucky, Maryland, Temple, Tulane, Virginia Tech, and West Point, and the NFL Houston Oilers. His cousin, Joe Devlin, played for Buffalo from 1976–82 and '84–89, and his siblings also have extended football roots. Brother, John, was a quarterback at West Point from 1981–84, while brother, Bill, was a two-way lineman at Murray State. Sister, Liz, has been the head football coach's secretary at Tulane for 10 years.

Since joining the Cardinals, Devlin has been extremely active in civic circles. He was the Cardinals' 1999 recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award, bestowed upon one representative from each team, for demonstration of courage and determination in the face of adversity following the death of his father in 1998.

During the 1999 off-season, he established the John Devlin Memorial Celebrity Golf Classic to benefit a scholarship fund for the Bloomsburg University football program in the memory of his father.

Additionally, Devlin was the club's NFL man-of-the-year representative recognizing a player's off-field community service as well as playing excellence.

Recent endeavors include his participation in the Valley's "Read Across America Day" in 1999 along with innumerable appearances to schools and civic groups.

Born November 16, 1969 in Blacksburg, Virginia, Devlin was a prep all-America at Cherokee High School in Marlton, New Jersey where he was runner-up for New Jersey Scholastic Athlete-of-the-Year, and added scholastic all-America honors. He owns a bachelor's degree in recreation and leisure from Iowa.

Mike and his wife, Julie, live in Phoenix with their three children—son Zachary, daughters Hallie and Carlie (2).■

Jeff FitzGerald

Linebackers

Jeff FitzGerald, a seven-year NFL assistant in Washington (1998–99) and Tampa Bay (1990–93) with 18 years of coaching experience at the college and pro levels, embarks upon his second season with the Cardinals and his first as linebackers coach

Last year, FitzGerald was named to the newly-created position of quality control coach, a role that will be shared by assistant offensive line coach Mike Devlin (offense) and special-teams assistant Stan Kwan (defense) in 2001.

FitzGerald, 41, spent his two seasons with the Washington Redskins as a defensive assistant/linebackers coach and managed the club's defensive game analysis services in addition to duties as a special-teams assistant.

A native of Burbank, California, FitzGerald initially attended Oregon State, then transferred to California State-Northridge following a career-ending knee injury.

He entered the coaching arena in 1981 at his alma mater, John Burroughs High School in Burbank, while enrolled at Northridge. Following two seasons at Burbank H.S. (1983–85), he served as a graduate assistant at the University of Cincinnati (1985–86) and Alabama (1987–90), the last two seasons as the inside linebackers coach for the Crimson Tide.

In 1990, he joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' staff under Head Coach Ray Perkins, spending four years working with the defensive backs and special teams and administrating the defensive computer operations and video breakdown and evaluation.

Prior to returning to the pro ranks with the Redskins in 1998, FitzGerald served four seasons (1994–97) as linebackers coach at San Diego State where he oversaw the football staff's computer and video operations.

FitzGerald, whose interests include auto racing and international travel, owns a bachelor's and master's degree in physical education from California State-Northridge and Alabama, respectively.■

Joe Greene

Defensive Line

Charles Edward Greene, known as "Mean Joe" to a generation of football fans and a member of the NFL's all-time team named in 1994 to commemorate the league's 75th anniversary, is the Arizona Cardinals' sixth-year defensive line coach.

Greene, one of the greatest defensive tackles in the history of the National Football League, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1987 to cap his legendary 13-year playing career (1969–81). He was considered the heart of Pittsburgh's "Steel Curtain" defense that led the Steelers to four Super Bowl championships. A perennial all-pro tackle for the Steelers who recorded 66 quarterback sacks during his career, Greene was selected to 10 Pro Bowls, including eight consecutively from 1970–77, and was named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame's "Team of the 1970s."

Greene is a 14-season NFL coaching veteran. Prior to joining the Cardinals, he tutored the Miami Dolphins' defensive line for four seasons (1992–95) following five campaigns (1987–91) as the Pittsburgh Steelers' defensive line coach. During Greene's tenure on the Pittsburgh coaching staff, the Steelers were the AFC's top-rated team in giveaway-takeaway ratio. In addition, Pittsburgh finished among the top five AFC teams in run defense four of Greene's five seasons while also leading the NFL in total defense and pass defense in 1990.

In Miami in 1994, the Dolphins set a club record by allowing only 89.4 yards per game rushing to rank second in the AFC and fourth in the NFL.

Last year, injuries forced personnel juggling to the tune of seven different starting defensive line combinations.

In 1999, his only Cardinal lineman to start every game, end Simeon Rice, set a franchise single-season record with 16.5 quarterback sacks, second in the NFL.

During the Cards' playoff run the previous season, 1998, Greene's defensive linemen, despite two rookie or first-year starters most of the season (end Andre Wadsworth and tackle Rashod Swinger), contributed 29 of Arizona's 39 sacks to the cause. The group also was credited with 15 deflected passes.

In 1997, unsung defensive tackle Mark Smith, a seventh-round draft choice from Auburn, led NFL rookie interior linemen with six quarterback sacks. Tackle Bernard Wilson's 66-yard interception return for a touchdown vs. the Eagles on November 2 was the longest six-point pickoff return by a defensive lineman in Cardinal history. Tackle Eric Swann was dominant with a sack, forced fumble, fumble recovery, or deflected pass in 12 of his 13 appearances.

Swann and Rice earned numerous postseason accolades in 1996 as Arizona improved from 26th to 21st in total defense from 1995, and from last to 21st against the run. Swann earned his second Pro Bowl berth and assorted all-star honors. Rice was the NFL's runaway defensive rookie-of-the-year, tied a then league rookie record for quarterback sacks with 12.5 (Leslie O'Neil, San Diego, 1985), and was voted a Pro Bowl alternate.

In addition to his numerous awards for accomplishments on the playing field, Greene won the prestigious Clio Award for his Coca-Cola commercial in 1980 which led to numerous television and film appearances. The spot has been named the seventh-best television commercial of all time by TV Guide and the most memorable sports commercial by the American Association of Advertising Agencies.

Following his retirement in 1982, Greene worked as a color analyst for CBS-TV and owned restaurants in the Dallas area before rejoining the Steelers in 1987.

A unanimous choice as the nation's top defensive lineman as a senior at North Texas State (now the University of North Texas) in 1968, Greene was the fourth player selected in the 1969 NFL Draft. He earned NFL defensive rookie-of-the-year honors the following season.

Greene also has served on his alma mater's board of trustees.

Born in Elgin, Texas, Greene and his wife, Agnes, have three grown children—sons Major and Delon, who both played football at North Texas, and daughter Joquel—and four grandchildren.■

Pete Hoener

Tight Ends

Pete Hoener packs 27 years of coaching experience, including 15 as an offensive coordinator, to the Cardinal organization as tight ends coach, a position he held from 1985–86 with the team in St. Louis.

Last year, Hoener coached the running backs on Head Coach R.C. Slocum's staff at Texas A&M after two seasons (1998–99) as offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at Iowa State. In 1999, he was a nominee for NCAA assistant coach-of-the-year.

A native of Peoria, Illinois, Hoener (HAY-nur) was a three-year starting tight end and defensive lineman at Bradley University.

He entered the coaching arena at Belvidere (Ill.) High School in 1974, then served as a graduate assistant at Missouri in 1975 where he met Arizona Head Coach Dave McGinnis, the Tigers' linebackers and secondary coach. Hoener subsequently spent time on the staffs at Illinois State (1977), again with McGinnis at Indiana State (1978–84), the Cardinals, Illinois (1987–88), Purdue (1989–91), and Texas Christian (1992–97) before his stints at Iowa State and Texas A&M.

During his tenure at Iowa State, Hoener took over an offensive line that had allowed 46 quarterback sacks in 1997 and reduced the number to just nine his first season as the position coach. At T.C.U., eight offensive linemen earned all-Southwest Conference notice and the 1994 Horned Frog offense led the conference in total offense.

Hoener, 50, was born June 14, 1951 in Peoria where he attended Richwoods High School. He and his wife, Marianne, have three daughters—Jennifer, Kathleen, and Lisa.■

Hank Kuhlmann

Special Teams

Hank Kuhlmann coaches his third position in his second tour of duty with the Cardinals in 2001 when he undertakes tutelage of Arizona's special teams for the second consecutive year.

Last year, Arizona's special teams provided a bright spot in an otherwise disappointing season. Punter Scott Player earned his first Pro Bowl trip with 44.2-yard gross and 37.3-yard net averages to rank second in the NFC in both categories. MarTay Jenkins became the NFL's first 2,000-yard single-season kickoff returner with league records of 82 returns for 2,186 yards, finishing with a 26.7-yard average, highest by a Cardinal in 25 years. Overall, the Cardinals' 26.7-yard team kickoff return average established a single-season franchise record, and the kickoff coverage units yielded just 18 yards per return to rank second in the NFL.

Kuhlmann owns 36 years of coaching experience at the college and professional levels.

A former Cardinal assistant coach and interim head coach, Kuhlmann returned to the team following the 1997 season to coach tight ends after four seasons with the Indianapolis Colts (three as special-teams coach).

Kuhlmann served as the Cards' running backs coach under Head Coach Gene Stallings from 1986–89, and succeeded Stallings as the club's interim head coach for the final five games of the '89 season.

In 1990, he served as a regional scout for the Cardinals.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Missouri, as freshmen coach from 1962–65 before being promoted to running backs coach through the 1971 season.

He received his first professional assignment as special-teams coach for the Green Bay Packers from 1972–74, then joined Head Coach Dan Devine as running backs and special-teams coach at Notre Dame from 1975–77. The Fighting Irish won the national championship in '77.

After returning to the pro ranks from 1978–82 as running backs and special-teams coach of the Chicago Bears, Kuhlmann joined the Birmingham franchise of the USFL from 1983–85 as assistant head coach/offensive coordinator before beginning his first stint with the Cardinals in 1986. Following his departure from the Cardinals after the 1990 season, Kuhlmann served as offensive coordinator and running backs coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1991.

During his tenure in Indianapolis, Kuhlmann coached the Colts' tight ends in 1994, then spent the next three seasons (1995–97) as special-teams coach. In '96, his efforts resulted in Pro Bowl berths for both Colt kickers—kicker Cary Blanchard and punter Chris Gardocki.

Blanchard, a Cardinal free-agent signee in 2000, enjoyed his finest professional success as a Colt under Kuhlmann's guidance from 1995–97.

In 1995, Blanchard became the first kicker in Colt history to win a game in his first appearance with the team, a 27-yarder to beat Miami. He finished the 1995 season 19–24 in field-goal accuracy. He also authored one of the most memorable moments in the Colts' improbable three-game postseason run that fell just one game short of the Super Bowl with a 30-yard field goal at Kansas City that provided the difference in Indianapolis' 10–7 victory, sending the Colts to the AFC championship game at Pittsburgh.

In 1996, Blanchard was 36–40 in field-goal attempts en route to the Pro Bowl. His 36 field goals fell one shy of the NFL single-season record of Carolina's John Kasay, who passed Blanchard on the final day of the season, while establishing a single-season Colt record. He also set Colt one-campaign marks with 135 points and 90 percent three-point accuracy.

The following season, Blanchard equalled a Colt record with five field goals against Buffalo.

He also set then-club records of 13 consecutive field goals in both 1996 and '97 that were broken by Mike Vanderjagt in 1999. Over the '96–97 seasons, Blanchard tallied an NFL-leading 252 points, the best two-season point total in Colts' history.

In 1998, his first season back in the Cards' nest, Kuhlmann's pair of tight ends, Johnny McWilliams and Chris Gedney, combined to catch 48 passes for 555 yards and five touchdowns.

Overall, Kuhlmann has tutored four kickers to Pro Bowl appearances—Player (2000 with Arizona), Blanchard and Gardocki (1996 with Indianapolis), and Chester Marcol (1972 with Green Bay). In addition, the 1974 Packers established a 14-game NFL record with 12 blocked kicks (four field goals, four punts, four extra points), including seven blocked kicks by Ted Hendricks.

Born in Webster Groves, Missouri, Kuhlmann was a running back at Missouri from 1956–59 before spending four seasons as a catcher in the St. Louis Cardinals baseball organization from 1959–62.

He and his wife, Donna, have two children—Jeff and Tracey.■

Stan Kwan

Special Teams Assistant/Defensive Quality Control

Phoenix native and Camelback High School alum Stan Kwan enters his first season as defensive quality control coach and special-teams assistant for the Cardinals.

His duties with Arizona include managing the team's game film breakdown and maintaining computer analysis services in addition to assisting Cardinal special-teams coach Hank Kuhlmann.

Kwan, 31, returns to the Valley after 10 seasons as an offensive and special-teams assistant with the San Diego Chargers (1991–96) and Detroit Lions (1997–2000).

During his tenure with the Lions, Kwan's responsibilities ranged from working with the special teams to signalling in the offensive plays during games. He also developed and compiled both the offensive and defensive playbooks, provided film and statistical breakdown for special teams, and organized league and college scouting combine testing statistics.

A quarterback and all-Arizona shortstop at Camelback High School, Kwan still holds numerous baseball records at the school, including batting average, runs scored, stolen bases, on-base percentage, and walks. In his junior year, Camelback was the top-ranked team in Arizona and was ranked 16th in the nation. He earned all-Arizona honors twice as a shortstop and set the school single-game passing record with 327 yards as a quarterback. Kwan's prep teammates included three former NFL players—cornerback Kevin Miniefield (Detroit, Chicago), safety Darryl Morrison (Washington), and offensive lineman Warren Wheat (Seattle). Another high school classmate was professional golfer Billy Mayfair.

Kwan's collegiate baseball career included one season at South Mountain Community College, where he was the first freshman named captain of the team, and three years at San Diego State, where he helped the Aztecs achieve national ranking—one Western Athletic Conference title, one conference tournament title, and two berths in the NCAA Baseball Tournament.

Kwan is single and resides in Phoenix.■

Kevin Ramsey

Defensive Backs

Kevin Ramsey, a two-time all-Missouri Conference defensive back at Indiana State where his position coach was Dave McGinnis, joins the Cardinals for his first professional assignment as the Cardinals' defensive backs coach.

Ramsey, 39, broke into coaching at Kansas State (1984-85) as a graduate assistant and junior varsity defensive coordinator and at Mission High School, Mission, Texas (1986) before beginning a succession of jobs at major NCAA Division I programs—Kansas State (1987–89, outside linebackers), Northwestern (1990–92, defensive line/defensive backs), West Virginia (1993–94, defensive backs), Tennessee (1995–98, defensive backs), and Georgia (1999, defensive coordinator).

Ramsey coached in seven bowl games in the collegiate ranks, including Tennessee's national championship victory over Florida State in the 1999 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl at Sun Devil Stadium.

Seven current NFL players were tutored by Ramsey— four at Tennessee (DaRon Jenkins/Titans, Terry Fair/Lions, Deon Grant/Panthers, and Dwayne Goodrich/Cowboys, two at West Virginia (Aaron Beasley/Jaguars, and Mike Logan/Broncos), and one at Kansas State (Elijah Alexander/Raiders).

Ramsey also served two NFL internships with McGinnis at the Chicago Bears (1991) and later with the Green Bay Packers (1998).

Ramsey spent most of 2000 working for ex-Redskin Danny Buggs' "Winning Circle" nonprofit organization that teaches character behavior to students in DeKalb County, Georgia. He also appeared at an 11-day "World Federation of World Peace" symposium in Seoul, South Korea addressing students from around the world on world issues and culture.

The East St. Louis, Illinois native, who holds a 1984 bachelor's degree in education from Indiana State, and his wife, Doreen, are the parents of four daughters—Kajavia, Samiya, Tresnae, and Amariell.■

Bob Rogucki

Strength and Conditioning

Bob Rogucki (row-GUS-key) begins his 12th year as the Cardinals' strength and conditioning coach, a span that covers the tenures of four head coaches—Joe Bugel, Buddy Ryan, Vince Tobin, and now Dave McGinnis.

Since joining the Cardinals, Rogucki has developed the weight room at the team's training facility that includes a wide range of equipment from bars and dumbbells to machines while implementing a strength and conditioning program that trains the total body. Rogucki's philosophy is to gear a training regimen specific to the game of football involving training in a high-intensity mode that builds both muscular strength and endurance. The philosophy involves five body parts primary to the sport—neck, hips, legs, midsection, and torso—and focuses on developing the overall fitness of the athlete, including flexibility, cardio-respiratory fitness, muscular strength and endurance, recovery, and nutrition.

Rogucki served as the strength and conditioning coach at West Point from 1983–89 after similar posts at Weber State (1982) and as an assistant at Penn State (1981).

Rogucki also worked as an assistant for the Washington Redskins during their summer training camps at Dickinson College in Carlisle, Pennsylvania for seven years.

The Rosemont, West Virginia native, born September 27, 1953, was an offensive lineman and linebacker as a high school and college football player. He graduated from Glenville State College in his home state in 1975 before coaching football, basketball, and baseball on the high school level in Ohio, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia prior to accepting his first college coaching position at Penn State in 1981.

The author of several articles on strength and conditioning and a frequent speaker at clinics and public engagements, Rogucki holds a bachelor's degree in health, physical education, and safety from Glenville State College.

He and his wife, Mary, have two children—son Charlie, and daughter Katie. Charlie is a quarterback at St. Ambrose University in Davenport, Iowa, where his position coach as a freshman was former Cardinal quarterback Timm Rosenbach.■

Johnny Roland

Running Backs

Johnny Roland, one of the top running backs in Cardinal history, begins his fifth season as the Cards' running backs coach.

A Pro Bowl running back for the Cardinals from 1967–68, Roland is a 22-year NFL coaching veteran.

Roland owns an impressive NFL coaching resume that also includes stops with Green Bay (1974), Philadelphia (1976–78), Chicago (1983–92), the New York Jets (1993–94), and St. Louis Rams (1995–96) with one college stint at Notre Dame (1975). He and Cardinal Head Coach Dave McGinnis served as assistants with the Chicago Bears under Head Coach Mike Ditka from 1986–92.

During 10 seasons in Chicago, his tutelage of running backs Walter Payton and Neal Anderson helped the Bears lead the league in rushing four times, finish second twice, and third once as the Bears were the NFL's leading rushing team in the 1980s, averaging 153.4 yards per game. In a five-year span from 1984–88, the Bears compiled a 62–17 record (.785), made five playoff appearances, and defeated New England 46–10 in Super Bowl XX in New Orleans.

Roland entered the coaching fraternity in 1974 at Green Bay under Packers' Head Coach Dan Devine, for whom he played at Missouri. Roland followed his former coach to Notre Dame as an assistant in 1975 before logging three seasons (1976–78) under Head Coach Dick Vermeil in Philadelphia.

The owner of radio station KIRL (AM 1460) in St. Charles, Mo., Roland spent four years in private business (1979–82) before Ditka summoned him to tutor Payton and Anderson from 1983–92 when the Bears compiled a 10-year record of 103–56 (.648) and won 10 or more games seven times.

Over the past two seasons, Roland has developed promising third-year running back Michael Pittman, who in 1999 opened eyes wide against Detroit in his first NFL start with 133 rushing yards, the Cards' only 100-yard game of the season. Included was a 58-yard touchdown ramble. Arizona's longest run from scrimmage in 52 games. Pittman's 133 yards ranked 10th in the 1990s among NFL players in their first league starts. Last year, Pittman finished as the team leader in receiving (73 receptions) and rushing (719 yards), a Cardinal first since 1974 when Terry Metcalf turned the trick.

Short-yardage back Mario Bates tallied nine rushing touchdowns in 1999, most by a Cardinal since 1993.

In Arizona's 1998 playoff season, the Cardinals averaged 101.7 rushing yards per game, a team high since 1993. Running backs Adrian Murrell and Bates achieved rushing milestones. Murrell gained 1,042 yards on the ground to become only the sixth player in NFL history to rush for over 1,000 yards for different teams in consecutive seasons. Bates set a Cardinal post-season single-game record with three rushing touchdowns at Minnesota in the NFC divisional playoff game.

A native of Corpus Christi, Texas, Roland was former Cardinal head coach Vince Tobin's teammate as a two-way (running back and cornerback) starter at Missouri.

Both the NFL Cardinals (fourth round) and the American Football League N.Y. Jets (first round) selected Roland as a "future" choice in the 1965 drafts, respectively.

In 1966, Roland was named the NFL offensive rookie-of-the-year.

After seven years in St. Louis where he was a teammate of Cardinal Vice President and Hall of Fame safety Larry Wilson, Roland concluded his playing career with the New York Giants in 1973.

As a pro running back, Roland collected 3,750 yards rushing, 1,420 receiving yards, and scored 34 touchdowns.

He remains the Cardinals' no. 4 all-time career rusher with 3,608 yards. He also ranks fourth in career rushing attempts (962), fifth (tie with Elmer Angsman) in career rushing touchdowns (27), and fourth (tie with Johnny Johnson) in most career 100-yard rushing games (six).

Roland's 86-yard punt return for a touchdown at Philadelphia on October 2, 1966 is the third longest in team history. He also scored on a 74-yard punt return at Dallas on November 16, 1970.

He authored three of the 44 runs of 50 yards or more in Cardinal history. The longest, a 70-yarder at Washington on November 5, 1967, rates as the 18th-longest jaunt in franchise history, and the seventh longest without scoring a touchdown. He also registered scoring dashes of 54 (vs. New Orleans, December 3, 1967) and 50 yards (at Washington, October 23, 1966).

Roland remains one of only 22 Cardinals to have rushed for 130 or more yards in a game, and one of only five to record 10 or more rushing touchdowns in a single season (10, 1967).

Roland has two sons, Johnny, Jr. and James, and a daughter, Cynnamon.

Jerry Sullivan

Receivers

Respected as one of the finest technicians in the art of receiving, Jerry Sullivan begins his first season as the Cardinals' wide receivers coach.

Sullivan joins Head Coach Dave McGinnis' staff as a 27-year coaching veteran, including nine in the NFL and 18 at the collegiate level.

The past four seasons, Sullivan served as the receivers coach for the Detroit Lions where he schooled one of the NFL's most potent receiving corps of Herman Moore, Johnnie Morton, and Germane Crowell. Before his tenure with Detroit, Sullivan spent five seasons (1992–96) as receivers coach for the San Diego Chargers.

Born July 13, 1944 in Miami, Florida, Sullivan played football and baseball at Jackson High School in Miami before enrolling at Florida State to play football. He transferred to Delta State after two years, receiving a bachelor of science degree in education in 1968, and later a master's degree in guidance and secondary education in 1969.

Sullivan began his coaching career at Cooper High School in Vicksburg, Mississippi in 1970 and entered the college ranks in 1971 as a graduate assistant at Kansas State where he subsequently served as freshmen coach in 1972.

After three years (1973–75) as tight ends and freshmen coach at Texas Tech, Sullivan spent the next seven years (1976–82) at South Carolina where he mentored the wide receivers. After serving the 1983 season at Indiana under Head Coach Sam Wyche, Sullivan began another seven-year stint, this time at Louisiana State. While at the Baton Rouge school, Sullivan helped the Tigers win the Southeastern Conference title in 1986 and '88 and honed the skills of two-time all-America wide receiver Wendell Davis, a first-round selection of the Chicago Bears in the 1988 NFL Draft.

After spending 1991 at Ohio State, Sullivan joined the Chargers and Head Coach Bobby Ross for the next five seasons (1992–96) when San Diego won AFC West titles with 11–5 records in 1992 and '94 and appeared in six playoff games, including Super Bowl XXIX in Miami to complete the 1994 season.

Notable among his accomplishments in San Diego was the development of Tony Martin into one of the top receivers in the NFL. In 1996, Martin tied for the NFL lead with 14 touchdown receptions with his second consecutive 1,000-yard season and his first Pro Bowl honor. The following season, Martin, a former college quarterback, set a Chargers' single-season record with 90 receptions.

When Ross was named head coach of the Detroit Lions in 1997, Sullivan joined him in the Motor City and worked his magic again with the Lion receiving corps. The duo of Moore and Morton was the top receiving tandem in '97 with 184 receptions, ranked second in 1998 with 151 catches, and fourth in '99 with 161 grabs.

Moore, whose 107 receptions in 1997 shared the NFL receiving lead with Oakland Raider Tim Brown, currently ranks 15th among the NFL's all-time leading receivers with 666 catches.

Moore and Morton comprised the most prolific pass-catching combination in the league from 1997–98, snatching 335 passes during the span.

The trio was joined in 1999 by Crowell, who exploded onto the scene with a team-high 81 catches for 1,338 yards and seven touchdowns.

Sullivan and his wife, Connie, have three children, Jon Eric, Matthew, and Allison. The family resides in Phoenix.

George Warhop

Offensive Line

George Warhop begins his fourth season as Arizona's offensive line coach following two campaigns as an offensive line assistant with the St. Louis Rams.

A native of Riverside, California, Warhop played football at Mount San Jacinto College (Calif.) and the University of Cincinnati.

He entered the coaching arena in 1983 at his alma mater, Cincinnati, then served on the offensive staffs at Kansas (1984–86), Vanderbilt (1987–89), and New Mexico (1990–91).

From 1991–92, Warhop was offensive coordinator for the London Monarchs of the World Football League when the team won the World Bowl in his first season. The following fall, Warhop was offensive line coach at Southern Methodist, then served in a similar capacity at Boston College from 1994–95 where one of his linemen was new Cardinal guard Pete Kendall.

In 1999, Warhop began tutoring two promising tackles, first-round draft choice L.J. Shelton, and Anthony Clement. The latter missed all but one game of his 1998 rookie season due to injury. Both quickly became starters with a promising future as the cornerstones of the offensive line.

A year earlier in his first campaign with the Cardinals, his linemen allowed 50 sacks, a 28-sack improvement over the previous season when Arizona allowed a league-high 78 sacks. The Cardinals also held Dallas and Minnesota sackless in two postseason games. Since taking over the position duties four years ago, Warhop has overseen a Cardinal sack total which has consistently dropped—78 (1997), 50 (1998), 45 (1999), and 35 (2000).

Warhop's first Cardinal line also merited credit for Arizona's 18 rushing touchdowns, exceeding the combined totals of the two previous seasons (eight in 1996, nine in 1997).

Warhop and his wife, Lori, reside in Phoenix with their children, daughter Olivia and son Jacob.

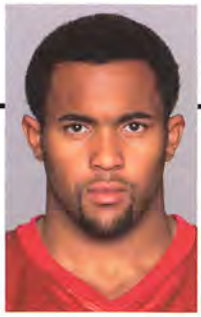
Wide Receiver
6–2 ■ 222 ■ Third Year
First Round (8th), 1999



Ohio State
DOB: August 19, 1978
Humble, Texas

■Pro Career: Primed to step into the limelight as one of the NFL's most explosive receivers … the first of two first-round picks the Cardinals held in 1999 … selected eighth overall … relinquished final year of collegiate eligibility at Ohio State to enter draft … turned 21 the day Cards completed 1999 training camp his rookie season … first NFL season reflected progressively improved play, then stepped into starting role last year … in 32 pro games (23 starts), owns 111 pass receptions for 1,629 yards (14.7-yard average) with nine touchdowns … also eight rushing attempts for nine yards and seven punt returns for 62 yards. ■2000: Seized starting opportunity with preseason loss of Rob Moore (knee injury) to lead Cards in receiving yardage (1,156), average per catch (16.3 yards), and touchdowns (7) … among league leaders, finishing eighth in yardage and 14th in receptions … 71 catches ranked second on club to running back Michael Pittman (73) … yardage total is sixth-highest in team annals and most by second-year Cardinal …

repeatedly flashed big-play ability, authoring seven of Arizona's 10 longest plays from scrimmage, including the top four—receptions of 70 (touchdown), 63, 56, and 56 (touchdown) yards ... four 100-yard receiving outings ... opened season with consecutive 100-yard receiving games, a feat accomplished only twice before in Cardinal history—J.T. Smith (1989) and Woodley Lewis (1959) ... stepped up in big way at N.Y. Giants (Sept. 3) with career-high nine pass receptions for 128 yards and two scores ... caught four passes for 52 yards in first half action, then was quarterback Jake Plummer's go-to guy in the fourth period with three grabs for 57 yards—all after the two-minute warning—including touchdown strikes of nine and 25 yards in Cards furious comeback bid in 21–16 loss to eventual NFC champs ... caught nine-yard toss on first play following the two-minute notice to cut Giant lead to 21–10 ... after Cards recovered onsides kick, grabbed 23-yarder on first play to the Giant 34-yard line, then finished the seven play, 52-yard drive with impressive catch of 25-yard laser from Plummer on third-and-16 with 39 seconds left to cut lead to 21–16 ... second consecutive 100-yard receiving game in home opener vs. Dallas (Sept. 10) with six grabs for 102 yards, including a 63-yarder in fourth quarter to set up game-winning touchdown pass from Plummer to wide receiver Frank Sanders in 32–31 comeback victory ... converted third-and-four situation in opening drive with seven-yard catch three plays after he induced 37-yard pass-interference call on Dallas cornerback Kareem Larrimore ... snared passes of four and 21 yards in second-quarter scoring drive, then induced another long penalty of 44 yards in third quarter on veteran corner Phillippi Sparks ... came through in fourth quarter with eight-yard grab to keep alive scoring march that brought Cards within 31–26, then got behind Sparks on improvised slant-and-go on first play from own 15-yard line for 63-yard gain in game-winning possession ... held to just three receptions for 23 yards vs. Green Bay (Sept. 24) ... despite limited practice time due to knee bruise, ankle ailment, and hamstring discomfort, caught five passes for 87 yards at San Francisco (Oct. 1), including a 56-yarder from Plummer with 18 seconds left in first half when he took a short hitch at the 44-yard line, dodged a 49er cornerback, then raced 56 yards for the score ... added four more catches for 31 yards in second half ... in 29–21 win over Cleveland (Oct. 8) caught five passes for 63 yards ... also induced 20-yard pass interference call midway through fourth quarter to convert a third-and-11 situation in scoring drive that produced a 28-yard Cary Blanchard field goal to push lead to 29–21 with three minutes left ... helped set up field goal in third quarter on Cards' first play of second half, taking handoff from Plummer on misdirection play and streaking 24 yards to bring Cards out of hole at own 13-yard line ... ensuing drive resulted in another field goal and 19–14 lead with eight minutes left in the period ... responded with two key third-down conversion grabs on next possession—20-yarder on third-and-four, then 12-yard grab to the five-yard line on third-and-11 ... Plummer found Sanders on the next play for a five-yard scoring toss and 26–14 lead ... led team with six catches for 123 yards vs. Philadelphia (Oct. 15), including a 70-yard touchdown play when he broke two tackles on a post pattern and sped into the end zone ... also took handoff on reverse on opening drive, but ran into Eagle linebacker Carlos Emmons and lost the ball ... clutch catches throughout game vs. New Orleans (Oct. 29) with two third-down conversion receptions to keep drive going in first quarter ... snared 11-yarder to convert a third-and-eight situation in second period ... finished game with nine-yard catch in third quarter and six-yard grab in final period for five receptions for 47 yards ... three catches for 57 yards vs. Washington (Nov. 5), including a third-and-one catch for seven yards and a first down in first quarter and 42-yarder to the Redskin 17-yard line in fourth period of 16–15 win ... bothered entire week of practice prior to outing at Minnesota (Nov. 12) with hamstring pull and limited to a pair of receptions for 34 yards ... bounced back at Philadelphia (Nov. 19) with six catches for 94 yards ... caught 11-yarder in first-quarter third-and-nine situation to keep drive alive en route to a field goal and a 3–0 lead, and added 16-yarder later in the period ... scored Cards' only touchdown when quarterback Dave Brown found him on the right sideline on fourth-and-six at the Eagle 44-yard line with 4:50 left ... career-best 184 yards on nine catches at Cincinnati (Dec. 3) one of few bright spots in frustrating loss ... after non-descript first half with three catches for 26 yards, caught fire in second half with six receptions for 158 yards ... converted third-and-five with 51-yard acrobatic grab to the Bengal nine-yard line early in the third quarter ... on next possession, hauled in passes of 33 and 38 yards on successive plays, the latter for a touchdown for Cards' first points of game to narrow deficit to 21–7 ... caught 15-yarder early in fourth quarter to bring Cards within 21–13, then induced a pass interference call at the 35-yard line with Cards poised to tie the game, only to have interception at the seven-yard line ... two catches for 25 yards at Jacksonville (Dec. 10) but was victim of fluke turnover on the Cards' first possession ... caught sliding six-yarder from Brown on Cards' second play of game ... while on back and clutching the ball, Jaguar linebacker Brant Boyer plucked the ball from his grasp for an interception ... play was reviewed but ruled Boston did not have possession and the ball was live as Boyer took it off Boston's chest ... later caught 19-yarder to convert third-and-nine in first quarter, then added six-yard grab from reserve quarterback Chris Greisen in third quarter ... though talkative Raven cornerback Chris McAlister had proclaimed no receiver had caught a pass on him in three games, Boston wasted no time victimizing the defensive back vs. Baltimore (Dec. 17) when he caught a nine-yarder midway through the first quarter, then finished the game with five catches for 93 yards, including a 56-yarder in the second quarter after outjumping McAlister ... also induced a pass interference call on Raven Duane Starks in second quarter ... concluded season with one catch for 12 yards at Washington (Dec. 24) ... also induced unnecessary roughness penalty on Redskin safety Mark Carrier, and was intended receiver for two of Plummer's interceptions. ■ 1999: First NFL season reflected progressively improved play ... in 16 games (seven starts), caught 40 passes for 473 yards (11.8-yard average) and two touchdowns, netted no yards on five rushing attempts, and returned seven early-season punts for 62 yards ... in first NFL start at Philadelphia (Sept. 12) in season opener, caught four passes for 21 yards in 25–24 win ... also gained one yard on reverse in third period ... showcased big-play ability at Miami (Sept. 19) with 43-yard punt return at end of third quarter he nearly broke for an 81-yard return for a score before being tripped ... finished with four punt returns for 63 yards, caught one pass for five yards, and gained two yards on a second-quarter midfield reverse ... suffered bruise on left shoulder blade on punt return in second quarter vs. San Francisco (Sept. 27), the same area he injured during mini-camp ... two receptions for 11 yards at Dallas (Oct. 3) in starting role for inactive/injured Moore (hamstring) ... breakout game vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 10) with eight catches for 101 yards, including a spectacular leaping grab from Plummer for 11-yard touchdown ... ran past former Arizona State standout Phillippi Sparks, then out-leaped the Giant defender in the end zone to give Cards 14–0 lead with 33 seconds left in first half ... began the play with a hard first step off the line, and Sparks reacted so hard he lost his shoe on the move as Boston cruised downfield to make the leaping catch in the right corner ... also caught 37-yarder on crossing pattern against New York cornerback Jason Sehorn near end of first quarter but was stopped inches short of the goal line two plays before Plummer scored on a keeper ... finished first half with seven receptions for 98 yards, then caught one pass for three yards in third quarter from quarterback Dave Brown as Cards played conservatively to protect the win ... four passes for 53 yards in 23–19 win over Detroit (Nov. 14), including 40-yarder over Lion cornerback Bryant Westbrook in first quarter to the Detroit 20-yard line to set up Cards' first points of game ... later snared 11-yarder from own 16-yard line following Cardinal fumble recovery to open touchdown scoring drive six plays later ... three grabs for 47 yards in 13–9 victory over Dallas (Nov. 21) featured 30-yard catch to the Dallas 23-yard line as Cards scored two plays later for 10–7 lead in third quarter ... also gained seven yards on end around early in fourth-quarter scoring drive that led to a field goal ... provided pair of clutch efforts in 21–17 win over Philadelphia (Dec. 5) ... brought Cards within 17–14 with four minutes left with acrobatic leaping grab of four-yard toss from Plummer in right corner of end zone despite defensive pass interference call on the play ... later caught nine-yard pass in game-winning drive on ensuing possession ... snared 43-yard pass over veteran cornerback Darrell Green in first quarter at Washington (Dec. 12) to the Redskin 34-yard line to set up field goal, Cards' only points of the game ... only catch vs. Buffalo (Dec. 19) a 13-yarder from Plummer that converted a third-and-10 in fourth-quarter scoring drive that narrowed the Buffalo lead to 24–21 with less than two minutes left ... finished rookie season with four receptions for 52 yards at Green Bay (Jan. 2) ... nearly scored on six-yard catch to the Packer one-yard line in second quarter as Cards settled for field goal ... caught 15-yarder to convert third-and-12 situation later in quarter, and achieved another third-down conversion with 20-yard catch in eight-play, 77-yard scoring drive to cut Green Bay lead to 21–10 with two minutes left in the quarter. ■ College/Personal: In only three years at Ohio State, established 11 school records, including most career catches (191), receiving yards (2,855), and touchdown catches (34), shattering the previous marks of 168 receptions with 27 scores by current Minnesota Viking Pro Bowler Cris Carter (1984-86) and 2,792 yards by Gary Williams (1979-82) ... averaged 5.16 catches per game, topping the school career record of 4.5 by Carter ... Football Writers Association all-America first-team choice as junior ... added all-Big Ten Conference first-team honors ... ranked fifth in the nation with an average of 120.9 receiving yards per game and ranked 13th with 6.7 catches per outing ... set Buckeye single-season records in 1998 with 85 catches for 1,435 yards (16.9-yard average) and 13 touchdowns, topping his previous mark of 73 receptions in 1997 and 1,411 yards by Terry Glenn in 1995 ... also returned 19 punts for 270 yards (14.2-yard average) and a touchdown while starting every game at split end ... became third player in school history to gain over 200 yards receiving in a game with 10 catches for 217 yards and touchdowns of 30 and 43 yards against Michigan ... school-record 14 receptions as sophomore against Penn State totalling 153 yards and a touchdown ... played in every game as a true freshman, starting the final seven contests at split end ... against the Plummer-led Arizona State Sun Devils in the Rose Bowl, returned three punts for 15 yards and made four catches for 20 yards with a pair of scores, including the game-winning five-yard touchdown grab with 1:21 left to give the Buckeyes a 20-17 victory ... Greater Houston prep player-of-the-year in 1995 ... won numerous all-America honors in both football and basketball at Humble (Tex.) High School ... all-Texas first-team pick as a free safety, adding second-team honors as a receiver ... two-time all-district choice ... as a two-way prep star, posted 88 tackles with nine interceptions and caught 51 passes for 780 yards with eight touchdowns while averaging 23.2 yards per kickoff return and 17.1 yards per punt return as a senior ... second team all-Texas selection in basketball, leading his squad to the state's "Final Four" in 1996 ... earned all-tournament accolades ... also lettered in track ... won the district title in the 300-meter intermediate hurdles ... lettered three times in football and basketball and twice in track and field ... sociology major at Ohio State ... asked in Ohio State game program to name the player he had competed against who he admired most, Boston responded, "Jake Plummer" ... sent an open letter to Ohio State fans in a Columbus newspaper explaining his decision to turn pro and thanking them for their support ... father, Byron, officiated in the Southwest Conference and World League and is now in his seventh year as a line judge in the National Football League ... father has worked two NFC championship games and Super Bowl XXXIV ... mother, Carolyn, is president and chief executive officer of Boston Sports Enterprises, Inc. ... older brother, Byron Jr., who played football at Sam Houston State, is a Dallas policeman specializing in crime unit that investigates drug complaints in high-crime areas of Dallas ... sister, Alicia, is a Dallas attorney who collaborated in negotiating Boston's first NFL contract ... born Aug. 19, 1978.■

■Pro Career: Signed with Arizona as unrestricted free agent on April 29, 1998 after six seasons with the N.Y. Giants … started 53 of 57 games as a Giant from 1992–97 … started all 32 games from 1995–96 … streak of 44 consecutive starts ended in 1997 after six contests, his final season as a Giant, due to torn chest muscle … five starts for Cardinals in 1999 resulted in three victories while regular Jake Plummer nursed broken finger … career total of 892 completions in 1,628 pass attempts (55 percent) for 9,248 yards with 44 touchdowns and 58 interceptions … played in just three games his first two professional seasons … earned starting role during 1994 training camp and led Giants to 9–7 mark … originally selected by Giants in first round (16th position) of the 1992 NFL Supplemental Draft. ■2000 (Cardinals): Played in four games (two starts), completing 40 of 69 passes for 467 yards with two touchdowns and three interceptions … did not play in first 10 games … first action of season at Philadelphia (Nov. 19) translated into solid relief effort with 11–13–140 for impressive 84.6 completion percentage and 44-yard touchdown toss … initially entered game for two plays midway through the third quarter after Plummer was shaken after 10-yard scramble … handed off to running back Michael Pittman for three yards and was sacked for no yards on second down when Plummer returned … on next Card possession, however, Plummer was sacked by blitzing Eagle defensive back Brian Dawkins from blind side and suffered rib and left-thumb injuries … Brown finished the possession with a handoff to Pittman for 12 yards … next possession was a pass to wide receiver David Boston for five yards … threw ill-advised pass while being tackled that Eagle linebacker Mike Caldwell intercepted at the 26-yard line and sped to the end zone to give the Eagles a 27–3 lead … regrouped on next possession, however, and completed three consecutive passes beginning from Arizona's own 29-yard line in eight play, 71-yard scoring drive capped with 44-yard scoring toss to Boston on fourth-and-six play … concluded game with five consecutive completions as time expired … with Plummer declared inactive third quarterback vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 26), endured trying evening against former team in starting role with 18 completions in 36 attempts for 192 yards and five sacks … suffered left shoulder injury in first quarter but managed to play through the discomfort … connected with Pittman for 36-yard touchdown catch-and-run in third quarter for Cards only score of game … suffered five sacks, lost one fumble, mishandled exchange with Pittman for another turnover, then tossed an interception before quarterback Chris Greisen took the field for the final possession ... with Plummer (ribs) again on the shelf at Jacksonville (Dec. 10), started second game in three weeks and performed solidly with 11 completions in 19 attempts for 135 yards before hitting index finger of right hand on a helmet in the third quarter that sent him to the bench ... Greisen finished the contest ... opened game in unique fashion when his first pass was a six-yarder to Boston on sliding catch over the middle only to have Jaguar linebacker Brant Boyer pluck the ball from Boston's chest for an interception ... impressive first quarter with three consecutive third-down conversions with completed passes from situations of third-and-9, 10, and 5 yards in drive that ended when Cary Blanchard's 47-yard field-goal attempt sailed wide right to end 14-play, 54-yard drive from Arizona's 17-yard line ... declared inactive third quarterback vs. Baltimore (Dec. 17) as index finger on right hand prevented him from throwing the football during practice ... came into the game for Plummer for one play in season finale at Washington (Dec. 24) in first quarter, tossing an incompletion. ■1999 (Cardinals): Came off bench for injured starter Plummer and led the club to a 3–2 record in five starts, including consecutive wins over Detroit, Dallas, and the N.Y. Giants in November to open the second half of the season ... in eight games overall, completed 84 of 169 passes for 944 yards with two touchdowns ... did not play in first three games ... first action of season at Dallas (Oct. 3) ... entered game with 2:11 remaining and 35–7 deficit at own 20-yard line ... completed four consecutive passes for 30 yards, including a 15-yarder to Pittman ... sixth attempt intercepted by Cowboy linebacker Darren Hambrick near midfield ... after Plummer was sidelined with a hip pointer midway through the third quarter vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 10), came in for final two series of third period and first two of fourth quarter in 14–3 win ... connected on first three passes to tight end Terry Hardy (eight yards for third-down conversion). Hardy again on next play (23 yards) to the Giant 19-yard line, then to Boston (three yards) to the Giant 16-yard line, but kicker Chris Jacke's 34-yard field-goal try was blocked ... finished with four completions in eight attempts for 41 yards ... came off bench again the next week vs. Washington (Oct. 17) with 11 minutes left in third quarter after Plummer suffered fractured right ring finger on sack ... after tossing an interception on his second attempt near the end of the third period, rebounded in fourth quarter with eight completions in 18 attempts for 117 yards and a touchdown ... brought Cards to within 17–10 midway through the final period with 91-yard, nine-play drive, capped by 10-yard strike to wide receiver Rob Moore with seven minutes left ... moved into starting role vs. New England (Oct. 31) and opened game with six completions in first eight attempts for 54 yards in first quarter, but saw two deflected passes in second quarter end up in New England defenders' arms as he managed just two more completions in 13 passes for remainder of half ... finished game 12–33–107 as the rookie Greisen finished game for final two series ... though winds were swirling in the Meadowlands, posted impressive first half of seven completions in 10 attempts for 144 yards vs. N.Y. Jets (Nov. 7), including career-long 71-yarder to Moore to set up Cards' only touchdown and 7–3 halftime lead ... after one sack in first half, dropped five times in second half, including a fierce hit by James Farrior just prior to the two-minute warning in fourth quarter that sent the passer to the bench for one play ... Greisen came in for a single snap ... returned to game and finished 16–26–199 yards ... first of three consecutive wins began with 23–19 triumph over Detroit (Nov. 14) ... solid first half vs. Lions provided Cards 16–7 halftime lead with 12–22–200 effort, including three completions over 30 yards—wide receiver Frank Sanders (33 yards), Boston (40 yards), and Pittman (46 yards) ... finished with 16 completions in 30 attempts for 209 yards as Cards ran ball effectively in second half ... also converted third-and-two situation with four-yard run in second-quarter scoring drive and added nine-yard run on third-and-six play in third quarter for another first down rushing ... the two third-down runs for first down were more than the Cards achieved in their prior eight games (one-for-nine in third-down rushing tries) ... duplicated the feat the following week vs. Dallas (Nov. 21) ... steady effort vs. Cowboys with 13 completions in 29 attempts for 115 yards in 13–9 win ... also rushed for 17 yards on four carries, including five-yard run on third-and-two for first downs in the first quarter, then 10-yard run for another first down on third-and-four play at end of third quarter in scoring drive that resulted in field goal and 13–7 lead ... started fifth consecutive game at old stomping grounds, Giants Stadium (Nov. 28) ... in first-half action, completed 11 of 17 passes for 126 yards, including a 44-yard connection with Moore in second-quarter drive to field goal ... facing 10–6 halftime deficit, Plummer opened second half and completed the 34–24 win ... did not play in final five games as healthy Plummer went the distance. ■1998 (Cardinals): Played in just one contest in first season as a Cardinal ... ironically, the appearance came against former New York teammates at Giants Stadium (Oct. 18) ... entered game for the beleaguered Plummer (seven sacks, two interceptions) midway through fourth quarter for Cards' final offensive series ... connected on two of five passes for 31 yards and was sacked on fourth-down play ... first pass completion as a Cardinal was 12-yarder to fullback Larry Centers.

■1997 (Giants): Reunited with former Card offensive coordinator and new Giants' Head Coach Jim Fassel. Brown's offensive coordinator during his first season with New York ... started first six games before a chronic torn chest muscle forced him to the bench ... after a four-week recovery period, Fassel had named second-year passer Danny Kanell the starter ... prior to the injury, Brown completed 91 of 171 passes for 1,009 yards with five touchdowns and three interceptions ... logged a 3–3 mark as a starter ... streak of 44 consecutive starts was third among active quarterbacks behind Green Bay's Brett Favre (84) and Cincinnati's Jeff Blake (47) ... led Giants to 31–17 win over Philadelphia (Aug. 31) in season opener by completing 13 of 27 passes for 193 yards ... passed for one touchdown and ran for another ... connected with fullback Charles Way in opening scoring drive when he faked a reverse and tossed a short pass to Way, who turned the play into a 62-yard gain to the Eagles' eight-yard line ... two plays later, Brown ran up the middle from shotgun formation for a three-yard scoring run ... completed 16 of 35 attempts for 182 yards at Jacksonville (Sept. 7) ... career-high 28 completions in 46 attempts for 269 yards and a score vs. Baltimore (Sept. 14) ... knocked out of game at St. Louis (Sept. 21) for two series with concussion ... helped break a three-game losing skid with 16–25–194 effort in 14–9 win over New Orleans (Sept. 28) ... threw pinpoint 32-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Kevin Alexander in the corner of the end zone in the first quarter ... in second quarter, completed eight of nine passes for 82 yards in a 12-play, 84-yard scoring drive, capped by a 14-yard touchdown toss to wide receiver Chris Calloway ... suffered the chest muscle injury on a sack by Saint cornerback Alex Molden at the end of the game ... started the next week vs. Dallas (Oct. 5), but left the game in the second quarter after aggravating the injury following a blitz by safety Bill Bates ... completed two of seven passes for eight yards before the injury ... inactive third quarterback the next four weeks ... did not play in five more ... first action since injury came in season finale at Dallas (Dec. 21) resulted in 2–9–14 performance in the second half ... it marked the first time he entered a game in a reserve role since finishing the Giants' 44–3 divisional playoff loss at San Francisco in 1994 (Jan. 15). ■1996 (Giants): Concluded third year as starter with 214 completions in 398 attempts for 2,412 yards with 12 touchdowns and 20 interceptions ... connected on 11 of 27 attempts for 169 yards in season opener vs. Buffalo (Sept. 1), including a short toss Way turned into a 37-yard touchdown to give the Giants a 17–0 lead in the second quarter of eventual 23–20 overtime loss ... struggled with 10 completions in 19 attempts for only 55 yards at Dallas (Sept. 8), including an interception by Cowboy Kevin Smith on the game's first play from scrimmage ... it marked the second consecutive season Brown was intercepted on the first play from scrimmage at Texas Stadium ... career-high four interceptions the following week against Washington (Sept. 15) ... guided Giants to consecutive wins with 9–13–111 showing in 13–6 win over N.Y. Jets (Sept. 22) ... 18–29–167 effort in 15–10 victory over Minnesota (Sept. 29) ... opened Viking game with five consecutive completions in first-quarter scoring drive ... sacked eight times in 19–10 loss to Philadelphia (Oct. 13) ... completed then career-high 26 passes in 43 attempts for 298 yards at Washington (Oct. 20), including 216 yards in the second half ... opened third quarter by completing five of seven passes for 82 yards in 10-play, 91-yard scoring drive, capped by a 31-yard scoring toss to wide receiver Thomas Lewis ... completed two of three passes for 33 yards in first quarter vs. Arizona (Nov. 3), but forced from game with a bruised back and back spasms after hit by Cardinal defensive end Simeon Rice ... Kanell finished in the Giants' 16–8 win ... started the following week at Carolina (Nov. 10) without much practice and completed six of seven passes for 91 yards in the Giants' first two possessions, capping both drives with touchdown passes ... also tossed two interceptions in the fourth quarter of 27–17 loss ... connected on 12 of 18 attempts for 110 yards and a score in 20–6 win over Dallas (Nov. 24) ... replaced by Kanell in fourth quarter at Philadelphia (Dec. 1) after completing just three of 11 passes for 31 yards with two interceptions and suffering four sacks in 24–0 shutout loss ... directed scoring drives of 80 and 78 yards en route to 14–7 halftime lead at Miami (Dec. 8), including 4–5–51 statistics on first series ... aggravated bruised left shoulder on sack by Dolphin cornerback Calvin Jackson but returned after receiving special padding beneath shoulder pads ... finished the game 21–28–169 with one score ... completed eight of 18 passes for 42 yards and a pair of interceptions in first half vs. New Orleans (Dec. 15) before yielding to Kanell in the third quarter ... concluded season with 14 completions in 38 attempts for 215 yards vs. New England (Dec. 21). ■1995 (Giants): Career single-season bests with 254 completions in 456 attempts for 2,814 yards and a 73.1 passer rating as 16-game starter ... also rushed 45 times for 228 yards (5.1-yard average) with four touchdowns ... single-game highs with 50 attempts (sixth most in Giant history), 23 completions at Green Bay (Sept. 17), and 299 passing yards at Seattle (Nov. 5) ... 254 pass completions and 456 attempts most by a Giant since 1988 (Phil Simms, 254–479) ... opened season with 20 completions in 34 attempts for 155 yards vs. Dallas (Sept. 4) ... 10 of 14 passes for 151 yards and a score in 20–17 overtime loss at Kansas City (Sept. 10) … engineered Giants' first victory with 19–27–258 effort in 45–29 triumph over New Orleans (Sept. 24) … connected with Calloway on 38-yard touchdown play for the Giants' go-ahead points, a 21–17 second-quarter lead … played into second half vs. Philadelphia (Oct. 15) with nine completions in 18 attempts for 82 yards but was sacked five times and replaced by Tommy Maddox … connected with wide receiver Mike Sherrard for 57-yard scoring strike in 24–15 win at Washington (Oct. 29) … career-high 299 yards at Seattle (Nov. 5) by virtue of 20 completions in 41 attempts and two touchdowns … also booted 15-yard quick kick against Seahawks … sacked seven times at Philadelphia (Nov. 19) … broke four-game losing skid with 17 completions in 27 attempts for 144 yards in 10–6 win at Arizona (Nov. 30) … guided club 83 yards in 12 plays with second-half kickoff, capped by a 12-yard scoring strike to Sherrard … established single-game efficiency mark with 10 completions in 12 attempts (.833) in 20–13 victory over Washington (Dec. 10) … broke 13–13 tie with 40-yard touchdown pass to Calloway with 1:18 left … equalled career single-game high with 47 yards rushing in narrow 21–20 loss at Dallas (Dec. 17) … completed 10 of 20 passes for 111 yards and four of his five rushing attempts netted first downs against the Cowboys … closed season with 209 yards passing on 21 completions in 36 attempts vs. San Diego (Dec. 23). ■1994 (Giants): Earned starting job prior to third preseason game after training camp and preseason challenges from Kent Graham … in 15 starts, Giants forged 9–6 record … completed 201 of 350 pass attempts (57.4 percent) for 2,536 yards with 12 touchdowns and 16 interceptions … led Giants to final-minute victories in three of final four games … in first game as a starter, threaded 10 of 20 passes for 171 yards and a 51-yard scoring strike to Calloway—his first NFL touchdown—in 28–23 victory over Philadelphia (Sept. 4) … also booted 33-yard quick kick vs. Eagles … followed with 11–17–119 showing in 20–17 win at Arizona (Sept. 11), including two more touchdown passes … took the Giants to their third consecutive win vs. Washington (Sept. 18) with 221 yards passing on 14–19 afternoon, highlighted by a 30-yard touchdown pass to Sherrard in the second quarter … after throwing four touchdown passes and two interceptions in first three games, managed just three scoring tosses and suffered 10 interceptions in next six outings as Giants battled through six-game losing skid … four of the losses occurred by 5, 7, 4, and 3 points … low lights of the stretch included seven sacks and two interceptions at New Orleans (Oct. 2), four sacks and three interceptions vs. Minnesota (Oct. 10), and a 4–17–56 passing evening in 38–10 "Monday Night Football" loss at Dallas (Nov. 7) … did not play in 10–9 loss at Arizona (Nov. 13) the following week when Graham started and played the entire game … resumed starting role at Houston (Nov. 21) but was knocked out of the game with a concussion on helmet-to-helmet collision with Oiler linebacker Lamar Lathon in the second quarter after completing four of seven passes for 19 yards … Giants eventually won 13–10 … threw two touchdown passes and ran for another in 21–19 win at Washington (Nov. 27) … completed 10 of 17 passes for 161 yards, including touchdowns of 34 yards to Calloway and six yards to Sherrard … one-yard scoring run in first quarter … completed 17 of 33 passes for 266 yards in 16–13 win at Cleveland (Dec. 4) … orchestrated game-winning drive against Browns by completing four of seven passes for 53 yards, including a 26-yard pass on third-and-15 to Calloway, a 13-yard pass to Sherrard on third-and-nine, and a seven-yard run on third-and-one to keep the drive alive … again rose to the occasion vs. Cincinnati (Dec. 11) with 16–26–222 production … in final two minutes, connected on all three pass attempts for 45 yards as Giants marched 66 yards in four plays, capped by Rodney Hampton's three-yard touchdown run in 27–20 win … kept game-winning drive going at Philadelphia (Dec. 18) with 34-yard pass play to Dave Meggett on third-and-16 in fourth quarter to set the stage for a game-winning field goal in 16–13 victory … closed season with 11 completions in 19 attempts for 141 yards and a 49-yard touchdown pass to Sherrard in 15–10 win over Dallas (Dec. 24) … prompted another key score when his 24-yard quick kick pinned the Cowboys inside their own 10-yard line and they fumbled the ball out of the end zone for a safety. ■1993 (Giants): Rotated with Graham as the number two quarterback behind Phil Simms for the final five games of the season, including both postseason contests … inactive for 13 games … only appearance was at New Orleans (Dec. 20) … finished playoff loss at San Francisco (Jan. 15) with six completions in 10 attempts for 56 yards and one interception. ■1992 (Giants): Signed with just five days remaining in training camp … appeared in two games, inactive for 10 … first action of season in relief of Graham at Dallas (Nov. 26) resulted in two completions in three attempts for six yards, but was sacked three times in the Thanksgiving Day contest … two weeks later at Phoenix (Dec. 12) completed two of four passes for 15 yards in relief, but left contest with broken thumb and spent final two games of the season on injured reserve. ■College/ Personal: Led the Atlantic Coast Conference in passing with 2,794 yards and 20 touchdowns in 1991 as a junior at Duke … a redshirt freshman in 1989, Brown started the final three games for the Blue Devils and averaged 432 yards passing with 11

■Pro Career: Rare every-down linebacker in age of specialization ... considered one of the NFL's best cover linebackers ... signed by Arizona as unrestricted free agent on March 26, 1999 after four seasons with Oakland (1994–97) and one campaign with Detroit (1998) ... career-best 167.5 tackles in 1999 in first season in Cardinal uniform, then followed with 135 tackles in 13 games last year ... in 58 games (51 starts) for the Raiders, collected 288 tackles, 5 quarterback sacks, 4 fumble recoveries, 1 interception, and 17 passes defensed, the latter an indication of his fine pass-coverage talents ... started all 16 games for the Lions in 1998, ranking third on the club with 116 tackles, and recorded 2.5 sacks, 1 interception, 5 passes defensed, and 2 recovered fumbles ... originally selected by Oakland in the first round (22nd overall) of the 1994 NFL Draft. ■2000 (Cardinals): Hampered by hip and shoulder injuries but still managed to lead club with 12 tackles for loss in 13 games (12 starts) ... also posted 135 tackles (78 solo), 1 quarterback sack, 3 hurries, and 1 interception, including 94 combined tackles over the final seven contests ... eight combined tackles in season opener at N.Y. Giants (Sept. 3), including three stops for loss—one of Tiki Barber, two more on workhorse Ron Dayne ... paced defense in 32–31 win over Dallas (Sept. 10) with six solo tackles (12 overall) as he impressively defensed both the run and pass ... snuffed potential big play by Cowboys when he nailed wide receiver Raghib Ismail for three-yard loss on end-around in second quarter ... active game vs. Green Bay (Sept. 24) with seven combined tackles, including one for loss, and knocked away a pass, but suffered hip pointer that relegated him to inactive status the following week ... returned to starting lineup vs. Cleveland (Oct. 8), posting eight tackles and back-to-back key plays late in first half when he dropped Browns' running back Travis Prentice for a two-yard loss on first down, then on second-and-17 stopped wideout Kevin Johnson after a four-yard gain to force a third-down incompletion ... resulting 42-yard field-goal try was wide and the Cards held 16–14 halftime lead en route to 29–21 win ... three combined tackles vs. Philadelphia (Oct. 15) before leaving game with subluxation of right shoulder ... Friday inactive due to shoulder injury the next two games ... returned in reserve role vs. Washington (Nov. 5), primarily in nickel situations, providing 3 tackles, 1 hurry, and 1 deflected pass, the final Redskin throw of the day on a deep drop over the middle on fourth down to preserve 16–15 victory ... returned to starting lineup in big way with 17 combined tackles and deflected one pass at Minnesota (Nov. 12) ... led defense at Philadelphia (Nov. 19) with 10 solo tackles, 13 overall stops, 1 tackle for loss, and 1 first-quarter interception to stop an Eagle scoring drive at the Cardinal 14-yard line ... followed with team-best 15 combined tackles vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 26), including one tackle for loss, and recorded 10 combined tackles and a sack of Bengal passer Scott Mitchell at Cincinnati (Dec. 3) ... led Card front seven with 10 combined tackles, including 9 solos, 2 stops for loss, and 1 hurry, at Jacksonville (Dec. 10) ... inspired play vs. Baltimore (Dec. 17) with 16 tackles on 6 solo tackles, 10 assists, and 2 tackles for loss for the second consecutive game ... finished season with seventh consecutive double-digit tackle effort with 13 stops (seven solos) at Washington (Dec. 24) ... underwent arthroscopic procedure on left shoulder Feb. 6, 2001. ■1999 (Cardinals): Authored perhaps the most consistent campaign of any Cardinal ... as 16-game starter at left linebacker, finished second on club with 167.5 tackles (90.5 solos), 2.5 quarterback sacks, 14 hurries, team-best 8 tackles for loss, 3 forced fumbles, 1 fumble recovery, and 2 interceptions, including one for a touchdown ... set Cardinal modern-era single-game tackle total record at N.Y. Jets (Nov. 7) with 22 total tackles (13 solos) ... opened Cardinal career with seven tackles in 25–24 win at Philadelphia (Sept. 12) ... outstanding overall game at Miami (Sept. 19) with five solo tackles, 11 assists, and a 34-yard interception return for a touchdown off legendary Dolphin quarterback Dan Marino ... it was Fredrickson's second career touchdown but his first by interception ... the six-pointer also made him the first Card linebacker to return an interception for a score since Oct. 4, 1987 at R.F.K. Stadium in Washington, D.C. against the Redskins when Peter Noga turned the trick in a "replacement game" ... another active game vs. San Francisco (Sept. 27) with 7 tackles, 2 hurries, and 1 separation of 49er receiver J.J. Stokes from the football in the first quarter after a one-yard catch ... Stokes recovered his own fumble ... also recorded two hurries, one which forced passer Steve Young to throw toward fellow linebacker Zack Walz, who batted the ball in the air as defensive tackle Jerry Drake made the interception in the first quarter ... seven combined tackles at Dallas (Oct. 3) and his second consecutive game with a forced fumble when he separated Cowboy running back Emmitt Smith from the ball near midfield in the third quarter that safety Tommy Bennett recovered ... outstanding all-round game in 14–3 win over N.Y. Giants (Oct. 10) with 15 tackles, including 12 solo stops, 1 tackle for loss, and 1 hurry ... career game at N.Y. to bring Cards within 17–10 vs. Washington (Oct. 17) ... in first return to the Meadowlands to face former N.Y. Jets teammates (Nov. 7), caught 24-yarder from Brown on Cards' second play from scrimmage in first quarter for 600th career, then set up Cards' only score with 71-yard catch and run in second period, the team's longest pass play in 114 games (72 yards, Chris Chandler to Ernie Jones vs. N.Y. Giants, Oct. 11, 1992) and career-long plays for Moore and Brown ... also surpassed 9,000 career receiving yards on the play ... three receptions for 24 yards in 23–19 win over Detroit (Nov. 14), including 13-yarder in second quarter scoring drive ... only one catch vs. Dallas (Nov. 21), a 21-yard toss from Brown in third quarter of 13–9 victory ... Brown handed off the ball to running back Adrian Murrell, who pitched it back to Brown, who found Moore over the middle ... big first half at Meadowlands vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 28) with five catches for 96 yards, including 44-yarder from Brown to set up second-quarter field goal ... later stole near interception from Giant defender in third quarter for two-yard touchdown grab from Plummer to give Cards a 13–10 lead with 11:50 left in the period ... seven overall grabs for 102 yards marked his first 100-yard game of 1999 in 34–24 victory ... vs. Buffalo (Dec. 19), converted third-and-six with 12-yard catch in second-quarter scoring drive ... five plays later induced pass interference call on Bills defender to place the ball on the one-yard line as Cards scored on ensuing play to cut deficit to 14–7 ... also set up second score with another interference call to place the ball at the three-yard line as Cards scored two plays later to knot game at 14–14 ... later snared 26-yard laser from Plummer with sliding grab in end zone with 1:55 left to bring Cards within 24–21 in eventual 31–21 defeat ... three catches for 32 yards at Atlanta (Dec. 26) ... enjoyed most productive game in five weeks at Green Bay (Jan. 2) in season finale with six catches for 120 yards, including a 51-yarder to the Green Bay three-yard line to set up a Mario Bates one-yard scoring run two plays later and cut Packer lead to 35–17 early in fourth quarter ... first catch of game was 16-yarder to convert third-and-10 situation in first-quarter scoring drive ... later caught six-yarder to keep fourth-quarter touchdown drive alive ... the 120 receiving yards were more than his previous four games combined (94 yards). ■1998 (Cardinals): Battled through lingering mid-season hamstring injury to start all 16 regular-season games and two postseason contests ... caught at least four passes in 10 of 16 games to finish season with 67 receptions for 982 yards (14.7-yard average) and five touchdowns ... also led Cards in two postseason contests with 11 receptions for 132 yards ... after just one catch for seven yards in first half of season opener at Dallas (Sept. 6), snared aerials of 41 and 27 yards on first possession of second half to set up Card field goal ... limited to two receptions of 22 and seven yards at Seattle (Sept. 13) and suffered right hamstring pull in second half, but returned to finish game ... though still limited by hamstring injury vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 20), managed four grabs for 27 yards, including two in the third quarter to convert consecutive third-down situations in 17–3 win ... caught 25-yarder in second quarter to the Ram 11-yard line to set up Cards' first points and pull within 7–3 at St. Louis (Sept. 27) ... snared 12-yarder to convert third-and-eight play on next possession as Cards scored two plays later to take 10–7 lead with 1:55 left in first half ... also induced pass interference call (Dexter McCleon) on next possession to give Cards the ball at the four-yard line as Murrell scored on next play for 17–10 halftime lead ... coaxed a second pass interference call (Todd Lyght) in fourth quarter ... four receptions for 37 yards vs. Oakland (Oct. 4) included 13-yard scoring toss from Plummer in second quarter ... four receptions for 24 yards vs. Chicago (Oct. 11) to vault over the 8,000-yard career receiving mark, including third-and-seven reception for 10 yards in fourth quarter to keep drive going and take time off clock ... also induced pass interference call in second quarter near goal line to give Cards ball at two-yard line as Bates scored on next play for 10–0 Cardinal lead in eventual 20–7 win ... one catch for 10 yards in first half at N.Y. Giants (Oct. 18), then added three for 42 yards in second half ... after just one reception for 13 yards in first half at Detroit (Nov. 1), caught 28-yarder from Plummer on first play of second half, 21-yarder on opening play of ensuing possession later in third period, then two plays later made sliding catch for 36-yard touchdown to give Cards 14–9 lead ... caught four-yard fade route for a score near end of third period vs. Dallas (Nov. 15) to bring Cards within 35–21 ... nearly tied the game later when he broke free from Dallas secondary to catch 57-yard pass from Plummer with 36 seconds left only to be pulled down from behind at the five-yard line by Kenny Wheaton with 11 seconds remaining and Cards down just 35–28 ... two plays later, Plummer lofted a fade to Moore with Dallas defender Kevin Smith's back turned to the play, but a no-call for pass interference following a tangle of arms and legs on the play ended the story-book comeback attempt... all four pass receptions at Washington (Nov. 22) came in first half ... caught acrobatic 35-yarder in first quarter and fell on the goal line as Cards scored on next play for 17–0 lead ... finished 45–42 win with four catches for 71 yards ... snared four passes for 36 yards in first half at Kansas City (Nov. 29), including an impressive leaping 10-yard scoring grab and 14-yarder to convert third-down play despite pass interference call on Chief defender Dale

Carter … later caught passes of 22 and 12 yards in fourth-quarter scoring drive to bring Cards within 31–24 … through first three and one-half quarters at Philadelphia (Dec. 13), caught just two passes for 24 yards—a 16-yarder on fourth-and-four play in second period and eight-yarder early in third quarter … in Cards' fourth-quarter scoring drive and overtime, collected five passes for 85 yards in final 12 minutes in 20–17 comeback win … made great catch of low pass from Plummer to tie game at 17–17 with nine-yard reception with just over eight minutes left … caught 11-yarder on first play of potential game-winning drive just prior to the two-minute warning, coaxed pass interference call on Eagle defender Troy Vincent two plays later, and caught 19-yarder to the Eagle 20-yard line with 90 seconds left only to see field-goal try sail wide right … in overtime period, brought Cards out of a hole at own 28-yard line with 30-yard catch and run to the Eagle 41-yard line … made key play three snaps later with Cards facing third-and-eight at Eagle 39-yard line on Philadelphia blitz when Plummer found Moore on textbook fade route for 16-yard gain to the 23-yard line … Chris Jacke kicked the game-winning field goal from 32 yards away four plays later … narrowly missed the 10-catch, 100-yard mark vs. New Orleans (Dec. 20) with nine pass receptions for 97 yards … snared five passes for 55 yards in first half, highlighted by a 33-yarder in second quarter … caught passes of 10 and seven yards in third-quarter scoring drive, then pulled Cards out of hole on own nine-yard line with 11-yard grab to the 20-yard line as Cards drove for field goal with roughly seven minutes left … caught 36-yarder from Plummer in first-quarter scoring drive vs. San Diego (Dec. 27) when Murrell took a handoff and pitched back to Plummer, who lofted a strike to Moore down the middle … also snagged 17-yarder in second quarter, 14-yarder in third period, and 27-yarder on third-and-two situation later in the quarter to the Charger 26-yard line … caught five passes for 41 yards in wild-card playoff at Dallas (Jan. 2), including four for 35 yards in second quarter … made key catch near end of first half when Plummer rolled right and found Moore for 15 yards to convert a third-and-10 play with 1:10 left as Cards followed with a field goal for 10–0 halftime lead in eventual 20–7 win … led Card receivers in divisional playoff contest at Minnesota (Jan. 10) with six receptions for 91 yards … snagged a 20-yarder from Plummer on fade route down left sideline in second-quarter scoring drive … also caught aerials of 11 and 23 yards, the latter to convert a third-and-four situation in third-quarter scoring drive to pull Cards within 24–14 … finished with a 23-yarder late in the game. ■1997 (Cardinals): Enjoyed career season and one of the finest receiving campaigns in Cardinal history with 97 pass receptions for 1,584 yards (16.3-yard average) and eight touchdowns to earn his second Pro Bowl berth … the 97 receptions established a team single-season record for a wide receiver and ranked second in the NFC, while his yardage led the NFL and broke the franchise single-season mark of 1,555 yards by Roy Green in 1984 … doubled his previous single-season high with eight 100-yard efforts … authored fabulous month of Nov. with 33 receptions for 616 yards (18.7-yard average) … 20 pass receptions of 25 yards or more and five over 40 yards after recording 11 and four, respectively, in 1996 … in tandem with bookend receiver Frank Sanders (75 receptions), the pair's 172 combined grabs ranked second in the NFL to Detroit's duo of Herman Moore and Johnnie Morton (184) … Moore and Sanders also became the first pair of Cardinal wide receivers to both crack the 1,000-yard barrier in the same season … during one four-game stretch (games 11–14), caught 29 receptions for 553 yards (19.1-yard average) and three touchdowns, an average of over seven Brad Ottis 96

Defensive End
6–5 ■ 292 ■ Seventh Year
Free Agent, 1996

Wayne (Neb.) State
DOB: August 2, 1971
Fremont, Nebraska

■ Pro Career: Six-year veteran signed with Arizona as free agent on Oct. 1, 1996 after two seasons with the L.A./St. Louis Rams ... spent 1998 season on injured reserve (left foot) ... in 80 NFL games (23 starts), owns 168 total tackles and four quarterback sacks while playing all four defensive line positions ... originally selected by Rams in second round (56th overall) of the 1994 NFL Draft ... first player from Wayne (Neb.) State drafted by the NFL. ■ 2000 (Cardinals): Played in 15 games with 11 starts—first eight at left defensive end, three at right end ... 24 solo tackles, 27 assists, 1 quarterback sack, 6 hurries, 3 passes defensed, and 1 tackle for loss ... 32 "blocks" on special teams best among Card linemen ... leading tackler among Arizona defensive linemen until final week of season when surpassed by rookie Mao Tosi (53 total tackles) ... manned left end for first half of season until return of Andre Wadsworth from knee injury, then switched to right side for three outings while Simeon Rice rehabbed shoulder ailment ... started at left defensive end and collected two solo tackles and a pair of hurries in season opener at N.Y. Giants (Sept. 3) ... 4 tackles, 1 hurry, and 1 deflected pass at the line of scrimmage in 32–31 win over Dallas (Sept. 10) ... contributed to 29–21 win over Cleveland (Oct. 8) with six combined tackles, including a sack of Cleveland passer Tim Couch near end of third period and knocked down another Couch pass at the line of scrimmage ... moved from left side to right in place of injured Rice vs. Washington (Nov. 5), collecting four tackles and a tackle for loss from scrimmage, but key efforts on special teams directly determined the outcome of 16–15 Cardinal win ... lined up helmet-to-helmet with Redskin long-snapper, bowled him head over heels on first field-goal attempt, then saw next attempt for point after touchdown roll back to the holder for missed extra point to preserve 10–9 Cardinal lead in first half ... less-than-perfect snap in fourth quarter saw Washington kicker Kris Heppner slide a 33-yard field-goal try wide right with just five minutes left to preserve victory ... four combined tackles at Minnesota (Nov. 12) ... reserve duty for final five games with five tackles at Cincinnati (Dec. 3) and three stops vs. Baltimore (Dec. 17) ... inactive for season finale at Washington (Dec. 24) with back aliment. ■ 1999 (Cardinals): Career-best 47 tackles (24 solos) though he played in just 14 games (six starts) ... added 1 quarterback sack, 7 hurries, 2 tackles for loss, and 3 pass deflections ... also blocked an extra-point try ... supplied six combined tackles in season-opening victory at Philadelphia (Sept. 12) as he rotated as fifth down lineman in Cards five–two–four scheme ... also spent first year on kickoff-return wedge, registering three "blocks" ... started at tackle in place of

Rashod Swinger at Miami (Sept. 19) and provided one solo stop and batted down one pass ... three assists and a hurry in 14–3 win vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 10) ... extended playing time vs. New England (Oct. 31) with absence of Wadsworth (knee) early in game and collected six tackles and a sack ... also blocked Patriot extra-point try by Adam Vinatieri in second quarter with rush up the middle, breaking the kicker's mark of consecutive points after touchdown at 117 ... with Wadsworth recovering from knee "scope," started at left defensive end at N.Y. Jets (Nov. 7) and led defensive line with nine tackles (seven solos) ... two hurries of Lion passer Gus Frerotte in second start, a 23–19 win over Detroit (Nov. 14) ... key contributor in 34–24 victory at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 28) with deflected pass that tackle Eric Swann intercepted and returned 42 yards for a touchdown with two minutes left to seal Cards' 34–24 lead ... added two hurries of Giant passer Kerry Collins as well ... another valuable effort with four tackles and two hurries in 21–17 win over Philadelphia (Dec. 5) ... career-high 10 tackles (six solos) at Washington (Dec. 12) along with a pass defensed and tackle for loss ... game-day inactive for final two outings with knee injury. ■1998 (Cardinals): Lost season ... suffered "Jones fracture" in left foot during personal workout prior to 1998 spring mini-camp ... underwent surgery to place screw in foot ... foot stepped on during second preseason game vs. Chicago (Aug. 14), refracturing the foot and bending the screw ... placed on injured reserve Aug. 30 ... second surgery Sept. 1 to remove bent screw, graph bone, and insert new screw. ■1997 (Cardinals): Played in all 16 games and enjoyed a productive season ... 30 tackles (14 solo) with four starting roles ... also credited with 2 tackles for loss, 2 quarterback hurries, and 1 forced fumble ... opened game at defensive tackle as Cards started with three down linemen and two stand-up defensive ends at Tampa Bay (Sept. 28) ... no tackles but Card defensive line held Bucs without a first down rushing and shut down both Warrick Dunn (10–27) and Mike Alstott (8–27) ... started in place of Eric Swann (hamstring) at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 16), posting two assists as he rotated with rookie tackle Mark Smith ... started at defensive tackle vs. Pittsburgh (Nov. 30), posting five combined tackles ... added four stops at New Orleans (Dec. 14) ... in season finale vs. Atlanta (Dec. 21), opened at right end and logged season-high seven solo tackles, nine overall, and made a key play when he dropped running back Jamal Anderson for a five-yard loss at the Card five-yard line, forcing the Falcons to settle for a field goal in the second quarter of eventual 29–26 Arizona triumph. ■1996 (Cardinals/Rams): Joined Cardinals near midpoint of season ... 28 tackles and one sack in 10 games after working into regular support rotation at tackle in relief of Pro Bowler Swann and Bernard Wilson ... opened season on injured reserve with Rams due to knee injury ... released by Rams and signed by Cards on Oct. 1 ... rotated with Wilson in pass-rush situations ... action in first game as a Cardinal with one solo tackle at Dallas (Oct. 13) ... added two tackles and a quarterback pressure in 13–9 victory over Tampa Bay (Oct. 20) ... with Swann nursing an ankle injury, started first NFL game vs. N.Y. Jets (Oct. 27), responding with 10 tackles (four solos) ... followed with three solo tackles and one assist at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 3) ... first sack in a Cardinal uniform vs. Philadelphia (Nov. 24) with nine-yard loss at expense of Eagle quarterback Ty Detmer on third down, forcing a punt in 36–30 victory ... three tackles at Minnesota (Dec. 1), ... two more stops vs. Dallas (Dec. 8) ... added three assists in 27–26 win over Washington (Dec. 15). ■1995 (Rams): Played in 12 games for Rams, registering seven stops on kickoff-coverage units and three tackles from scrimmage ... inactive for first three games ... action in all but one of 13 remaining contests, primarily on special teams. ■1994 (Rams): Logged 9 tackles, 1 sack, and 3 stops on special teams in 13 games as a rookie ... two tackles and first career sack vs. New Orleans (Dec. 4) ... most extensive playing time from scrimmage against Washington (Dec. 24) when he replaced Sean Gilbert in first quarter and posted four tackles. ■College/Personal: Concluded career at Wayne State with 215 tackles, 45 sacks, 75 tackles for loss, and 7 forced fumbles ... 84 tackles, 27 stops for loss, and 14 sacks in eight games as a senior ... three-time letter winner as prep football star at Bergan High School in Fremont, Nebraska ... also lettered in track and placed second in Nebraska state wrestling finals ... majored in graphic design in college ... high school teammate of Jaguars' offensive lineman and University of Nebraska product Zach Wiegert ... interests include motorcycles, professional wrestling, and golf ... daughters Jessica and Julie.■

Running Back
6–0 ■ 218 ■ Fourth Year
Fourth Round (95th), 1998

Fresno State
DOB: August 14, 1975
San Diego, California

■Pro Career: Impressive physical package of strength, speed, and size … soft hands belie chiseled physique that equals every-down back … displayed glimpses of talent over past two seasons with 133-yard rushing effort, including 58-yard touchdown run, in first pro start vs. Detroit (Nov. 14, 1999) … added ironman effort both rushing and receiving last year … originally selected in fourth round (95th overall) of 1998 NFL Draft. ■2000: First Cardinal to lead club in receptions (73) and rushing yardage (719) since Terry Metcalf in 1975 … 10 pass receptions vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 26) most by Cardinal running back in 64 games (Larry Centers, 1996) … finished season with 73 pass receptions for 579 yards (7.9-yard average) and two touchdowns and rushed 184 times for 719 yards (3.9-yard average) and four scores with starts in final 12 games … NFC's no. 2 pass-catching running back to Redskin Centers (80 receptions) … deferred to first-round draft pick Thomas Jones as early-season starter, beginning with season opener at N.Y. Giants (Sept. 3) … rushed just four times for nine yards but collected 71 yards on six pass receptions against the Giants … five catches for 53 yards in second half included a 21-yard gain to convert a third-and-five situation in a third quarter scoring drive to a field goal, the Cards' first points of game … added another 21-yard run-and-catch in the fourth quarter … gained 28 yards on nine carries and vaulted over from one yard out in second quarter to give Cards 10–7 lead in eventual 32–31 win over Dallas (Sept. 10) … added two receptions for 12 yards, and when injuries mounted later in game, volunteered to play special teams on kickoff coverage and was first player downfield following Cardinal score in fourth quarter. … supplied spark at San Francisco (Oct. 1) with 144 yards total offense … finished game with team-best 11 carries for 72 yards and impressive 6.5-yard average … also led Cards in receiving with six receptions for 72 yards … authored runs of 25 and 27 yards and added a 35-yard gain on pass play in fourth-quarter scoring drive … exhibited outstanding athletic ability and desire in second quarter when he caught a short pass in the flat, broke one tackle, and went airborne over 49er defensive back Ronnie Heard for first down on third-and-13 play for 15-yard gain … inserted back into the starting lineup vs. Cleveland (Oct. 8) and responded with 16 carries for 107 yards, two pass receptions for 10 yards, and spirited, tackle-breaking running that inspired teammates in 29–21 victory … started slowly with first two carries for minus one yard each in first quarter, then opened second period with 20-yard burst to the Browns' 22-yard line, caught a nine-yard pass on the next play to the 13, then saw Jones finish the scoring drive with a 10-yard run … Jones promptly delivered the football to Pittman on the sidelines as a gesture of appreciation and friendship … finished second quarter with 33 yards on six carries, added 36 more rushing yards in third quarter alone with a 21-yard run in scoring drive … closed outstanding day with eight carries for 40 yards in the fourth quarter, including runs of nine and two yards with less than two minutes left as Cards ran out the clock ... first-quarter rushing stats of four carries for 34 yards and 8.5-yard average included fourth-and-one situation at the Eagle 42-yard line as he sped around right end for 14 yards and a first down vs. Philadelphia (Oct. 15) ... brought Cards within 24–14 in fourth quarter with 10-yard scoring grab from quarterback Jake Plummer ... held to 21 yards rushing on nine carries at Dallas (Oct. 22), scored on one-yard plunge in fourth quarter, and added team-best seven pass receptions (24 yards) ... 126 yards from scrimmage vs. New Orleans (Oct. 29) with 20 carries for 86 yards and 4.3-yard average and three receptions for 40 yards against talented Saints' defense ... opened second-quarter scoring drive with 16-yard dash around right end, popped over left tackle for one yard, then caught eight-yard pass on third consecutive touch ... third-quarter series featured six-yard gain around left tackle, bounced over right tackle for six more yards, and caught 18-yard pass two plays later ... gained 30 tough yards on 15 carries vs. Washington (Nov. 5), including a seven-yard burst for a touchdown near start of third period to give Cards 16–12 lead in eventual 16–15 win ... added three pass receptions for 28 yards ... led Cards with 50 rushing yards on 12 attempts and eight pass receptions for 63 yards at Minnesota (Nov. 12) ... scored only Card points on offense with one-yard vault near end of first period to finish 11-play, 75-yard scoring drive to tie game at 7–7 ... six of his receptions came on third down ... 113 combined yards from scrimmage accounted for 45 percent of team total of 249 yards ... though slowed by tender ribs and shoulder, rushed for 49 yards on 13 carries and caught six passes for 29 yards at Philadelphia (Nov. 19) despite not suiting up for practice until Friday ... accounted for 173 yards from scrimmage—65 percent of Cards' total offense—with 13 carries for 77 yards and career-best 10 pass receptions for 96 more yards vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 26) ... scored Arizona's only touchdown with 36-yard rumble on textbook screen pass in third quarter ... added season-best 29-yard run earlier in the period ... impressive 5.9-yard rushing average, best since 6.7-yard average vs. Cleveland (Oct. 8) ... another ironman effort at Cincinnati (Dec. 3) as only Cardinal to carry the ball from scrimmage with 19 attempts for 72 yards and added six pass receptions for 31 yards ... frustrating rushing experience at Jacksonville (Dec. 10) as 11 carries netted minus one yard, four for lost yardage, and long run of just three yards ... also caught two passes for 17 yards, including 15-yarder to convert third-and-five in second-quarter scoring drive to a field goal ... tough afternoon vs. Baltimore (Dec. 17) against the league's top-ranked defense with six yards on five rushing attempts and caught one pass for three yards—all in first quarter—before leaving game with concussion ... broke over right tackle on second-and-three at Raven eight-yard line, was snowed under by host of defenders, and knocked out as safety Rod Woodson's knee hit his helmet ... rebounded for season finale at Washington (Dec. 24) to collect 72 yards rushing on 16 attempts and catch three passes for 13 yards. ■1999: Flashed glimpses of talent and productivity in frustratingly-short sophomore season marred by turf-toe injury ... in 10 games (two starts), rushed for 289 yards on 64 carries for team-best 4.5-yard average per attempt with two touchdowns ... also caught 16 passes for 196 yards and returned four punts (16 yards) and two kickoffs (31 yards) ... in first pro starting role vs. Detroit (Nov. 14), amassed 177 yards total offense with 133 rushing yards on 23 carries and two receptions for 44 yards in 23–19 win ... featured plays were 58-yard scoring run and 46-yard pass reception ... the 58-yard run was the longest by a Cardinal in 52 games and the longest scoring jaunt in 53 contests (LeShon Johnson, 70 yards at New Orleans, Sept. 22, 1996) ... the 133 rushing yards rank 10th among NFL players in their first starts in the 1990s ... the effort also was Arizona's only 100-yard rusher during the 1999 season ... extensive action both from scrimmage and on special teams in season opener at Philadelphia (Sept. 12) ... caught two passes for 26 yards, and returned four punts for 16 yards and one kickoff 22 yards in 25–24 win ... converted key third-and-eight play with 13-yard grab from Plummer in third-quarter scoring drive, then made diving catch for 13-yard gain to open game-winning march with less than two minutes left to place the ball at the Eagle 30-yard line with 1:43 to play ... also posted two assisted tackles on kick-coverage units ... netted minus one yard on five combined carries at Miami (Sept. 19) but showed a new wrinkle with 26-yard completion to wide receiver Frank Sanders to the Dolphin eight-yard line midway through first quarter, but Cards were unable to score ... popped loose for 12-yard run in first half vs. San Francisco (Sept. 27), then added back-to-back runs of 15 and seven yards in third-quarter drive to a field goal ... also caught 11-yard pass in final quarter and finished with 5.8-yard rushing average on six carries (35 yards) ... increased playing time from scrimmage at Dallas (Oct. 3) with four rushing attempts for nine yards and caught season-best four passes for 42 yards, including third-down catches of 18 and 15 yards in the fourth quarter ... 20 tough yards on eight carries from scrimmage and caught 21-yard pass near end of first half to the Giant 11-yard line, setting up a Plummer-to-wide receiver David Boston 11-yard touchdown toss on the next play to give Cards 14–0 lead at halftime of 14–3 win at the Meadowlands (Oct. 10) ... left outing early vs. Washington (Oct. 17) with concussion after two carries for 15 yards and a pair of pass receptions for another 33 yards ... four carries for 29 yards vs. New England (Oct. 31) included 21-yarder up the middle near the end of the first half ... scored first NFL touchdown on four-yard burst up the middle to give Cards 7–3 lead at N.Y. Jets (Nov. 7) ... finished game with nine rushing attempts for 41 yards and 4.6-yard average per carry ... earned first NFL start the following week vs. Detroit (Nov. 14) ... enjoyed outstanding success with 133 yards rushing and 44 yards receiving for 177 yards of offense on 25 handles of the football, an average of 7.1 yards per touch ... warmed up in first quarter with 27 yards on seven carries ... rambled 46 yards with screen pass on third play of second quarter to the Lion three-yard line as Cards scored two plays later ... later bolted 58 yards to the end zone on third quarter draw play as he took the ball inside, bounced outside, and streaked down the left sideline and outraced the Detroit secondary to the end zone to give Cards a 23–7 lead with 11 minutes remaining in the period ... nearly spoiled starting debut in fourth quarter with fumble at Arizona 35-yard line ... Lion defensive back Terry Fair scooped up the loose ball and ran untouched into the end zone to cut the Cardinal lead to 23–19 with just over five minutes left ... inactive next three games ... returned to starting lineup at Washington (Dec. 12) but lasted for just three carries for eight yards and a pair of pass receptions as he left game in second quarter after aggravating the toe ... declared Friday inactive for final three games. ■1998: Played in 15 of 16 games, primarily on special teams ... exhibited ample promise and talent despite limited playing time from scrimmage ... 91 rushing yards on 29 carries (3.1-yard average), 4 kickoffs returns for 84 yards (21-yard average), and 17 tackles and 50 "blocks"on special teams ... played almost exclusively on special teams in season opener at Dallas (Sept. 6) where he teamed with defensive back J.J. McCleskey to put fierce stop on Deion Sanders in first quarter for three-yard loss on punt return ... first action from scrimmage with two carries for two and five yards in second quarter at Seattle (Sept 13) ... nailed Ram kickoff returner Tony Horne with fierce hit on second-quarter kickoff at St. Louis (Sept. 27) ... later penalized after he hammered Ram punt returner Eddie Kennison on fourth quarter fair-catch attempt with 10 minutes left in game ... Kennison lay on the turf for several minutes before exiting on his own ... three carries for four yards in first half vs. Chicago (Oct. 11), then opened in second half to collect 14 carries for 52 yards, including fourth quarter that produced 54 yards on 13 attempts with runs of 8, 10, and 11 yards ... however, lost the ball at Bear 17-yard line in final period to set up Chicago's only score in 20–7 Card victory ... finished with 17 carries for 56 yards ... no carries from scrimmage at N.Y. Giants (Oct. 28), but returned two kickoffs 22 and 18 yards and made a solo tackle and assist on coverage units ... five yards on four carries at Detroit (Nov. 1) ... took lateral from Eric Metcalf vs. Dallas (Nov. 15) on kickoff following Cowboy touchdown in first quarter and gained eight yards ... Metcalf caught the ball one yard deep in the end zone, came out to the seven-yard line, then lateralled to Pittman going against the grain for eight more yards ... contributed mightily on special teams in 45–42 win at Washington (Nov. 22) ... recovered a muffed punt by Redskin Brian Mitchell in first quarter at the Washington 29-yard line as Cards scored six plays later to take 3–0 lead ... in fourth quarter, returned a Washington squib kick 20 yards to the Card 45-yard line, setting stage for 10-play, 55-yard drive to take 45–35 lead with 3:49 left in game ... also sparkled with four tackles on coverage units ... opened with bursts of eight and seven yards on Cards' second possession of game at Kansas City (Nov. 29), but only one carry for two yards in second half ... sustained broken bone in right hand on opening kickoff vs. N.Y. Giants (Dec. 6) and did not play remainder of game ... Friday inactive the next week for Cards' assignment at Philadelphia (Dec. 13) ... casted hand limited him to special-teams play vs. New Orleans (Dec. 20), but still managed three solo stops on coverage units ... the next week contributed to key play vs. San Diego (Dec. 27) when Metcalf followed him up the right hash mark on 46-yard kickoff return with 16 seconds left to set the table for the game-winning field goal in playoff-clinching 16–13 victory over the Chargers ... scored three touchdowns rushing in preseason finale at Oakland (Aug. 29). ■College/Personal: Regarded as one of the best pass-catching running backs in college football in 1997 ... third player in Fresno State history to better 3,000-yard career rushing plateau (3,017) ... second on Fresno State's all-time rushing list behind Ron Rivers (3,473 yards, 1991–93) ... tied school record with four consecutive 100-yard rushing performances vs. Air Force, Boise State, Colorado State, and Nevada-las Vegas ... set Bulldog single-game record with 39 rushing attempts for 151 yards and a pair of touchdowns vs. Oregon ... set Fresno State weightlifting record for a running back with bench press of 435 pounds ... two-time all-Western Athletic Conference first team and all-America third-team pick as a senior all-purpose back ... played in the final 11 games as a senior, leading the team with 1,057 yards rushing and eight touchdowns on 238 carries (4.4-yard average) ... also caught 32 passes for 255 yards and two scores ... brother, Wayne, who played football at San Diego State.

■Pro Career: Local hero who starred as a collegian at Arizona State University (A.S.U.) … in 1998, his first full season as a starter, guided Cardinals to their first playoff appearance since 1982 and their first postseason victory since 1947 … elected offensive co-captain by his teammates during 1998 training camp at 23 years of age with just 10 NFL games (nine starts) under his belt … uncanny ability to produce amid the mayhem and pressure of helter-skelter last-minute situations … in 52 pro games, has led Cards to 12 comeback victories (defined as tied or trailing in the fourth quarter or overtime) … suffered through frustrating 1999 and 2000 seasons that included finger, thumb, hip, rib, sternum, and groin injuries … in 52 NFL games (50 starts), has completed 952 of 1,699 passes (.560) for 10,997 yards with 54 touchdowns and 80 interceptions … fastest Cardinal to 10,000 career passing yards … also owns 737 rushing yards on 166 attempts with eight scores, including four in 1998, the most by a Cardinal quarterback in over 20 years. ■2000: Enigmatic fourth professional season … as 14-game starter, completed 270 of 475 pass attempts (56.8 percent) for 2,946 yards with 13 touchdowns and 21 interceptions … also 22 sacks for –151 yards … passer rating of 66.0 was nearly 16 points higher than 1999's 50.8 figure … touchdown passes of 50 yards or more in three consecutive games (weeks five-seven) is team first since Neil Lomax in 1983 … consecutive games without interception at San Francisco (Oct. 1) and vs. Cleveland (Oct. 8) a career first … named NFC offensive player-of-the-week in 32–31 win over Dallas (Sept. 10) with career-best 75 percent completion figure (18 completions, 24 attempts) as he brought Cards from 11-point deficit with two fourth-quarter touchdown passes for his 12th career comeback victory … passer rating of 87.8 after two weeks was highest since becoming a starter midway through 1997 season … began season opener at N.Y. Giants (Sept. 3) with 10 completions in 20 attempts in first half with two interceptions, then regrouped midway through the third quarter and into the final period but come-from-behind rally from 21–3 deficit fell short in 21–16 defeat … fourth-quarter stats of 10–17–143 with two touchdowns in comeback bid, including scoring tosses of nine and 25 yards to wide receiver David Boston … also ran the ball four times for team-high 18 yards … 318 yards passing was the second highest season-opening performance in team history behind Jim Hart's 322-yard effort vs. the N.Y. Giants on Sept. 7, 1980 … combined first-half numbers of 11–14–133 and second half of 7–10–110 with two touchdowns vs. Dallas (Sept. 10) to guide Cards to a 32–32 come-from-behind victory … twice fired scoring tosses to wide receiver Frank Sanders on third-down touchdown passes of four and 17 yards, the latter with 1:54 remaining for the final 32–31 margin … perfect four-for-four in pair of third-quarter scoring drives … key play was improvised slant-and-go to Boston for 63-yard gain in fourth quarter to set up game-winning points … regressed vs. Green Bay (Sept. 24), completing 21 of 43 attempts for 189 yards and long completion of just 18 yards with four interceptions … first interception, however, was on desperation throw at the end of the first half, the other three occurred in fourth quarter after game was out of reach … though sacked just once for eight yards, frequently was hit after releasing the ball by Packer rushers and sustained left-elbow contusion … frustrating afternoon at San Francisco (Oct. 1) with solid stats but no sustained production until late in failed comeback bid … connected on 12 of 18 passes for 129 yards in first half with 56-yard scoring connection to Boston on quick hitch brought Cards within 17–10 at halftime … after Arizona fell behind 27–10 in fourth quarter, opened with 14-play, 61-yard drive to a field goal to narrow the margin to 27–13 at the 6:45 mark … then connected on four of five passes to reach the 49er nine-yard line with a first down, but a run for no yards by running back Michael Pittman and two incomplete passes forced the Cards to settle for a 27-yard field goal … guided club 70 yards on six plays following a 49er punt with 11-yard tosses to Boston and Mac Cody, a 35-yard catch-and-run by Pittman, and another nine-yard pass to Boston that running back Thomas Jones converted with a four-yard touchdown run for 27–20 deficit with 2:15 left … efficient, mistake-free effort in 29–21 victory over Cleveland (Oct. 8) with 17 completions in 30 attempts for 171 yards with two touchdown passes and no interceptions … after Cards fell behind 14–0 in the first quarter, delivered fine second quarter with 8–12–100 numbers, including a 53-yard scoring toss over the middle to Sanders on his fourth read of the play, the second time at Sanders after looking him off earlier as the play developed … guided club on extended scoring drives of 13 (field goal), 9 (field goal), 9 (touchdown), and 11 (field goal) plays, and two other quick-strike drives of five and two yards for touchdowns in 29–21 victory … efficient game vs. Philadelphia (Oct. 15) with 18 completions in 30 attempts for 213 yards and two touchdown passes, but two second-half interceptions quelled comeback hopes after Cards cut 24–0 deficit to 24–14 … connected on 12 of 21 passes for 168 yards in second half, including a 70-yard scoring connection with Boston on post pattern in the third quarter … scrambled twice for 43 yards on runs of 24 and 19 yards … fine first half vs. New Orleans (Oct. 29) with 172 yards passing on 13-of-21 effort, a three-yard scoring strike to tight end Terry Hardy, a 13-yard run, and no interceptions as Cards took a 10–7 lead and scored a touchdown in the first quarter for the first time in 23 regular-season games … . deadly third quarter, however, with a third-down interception inside the Saints' 40-yard line on Arizona's first possession of the second half, and later watched New Orleans linebacker Keith Mitchell tip a swing pass and gather in the football for a 40-yard return for a touchdown to give the Saints a 14–10 lead … completed passes to season-high 10 different receivers … up-and-down game vs. Washington (Nov. 5) but finished with 12 completions in 19 attempts for 146 yards and suffered just one sack in pivotal 16–15 victory just two days before Election Day and crucial stadium vote in Maricopa County … found wide receiver MarTay Jenkins for 34-yard gain to the Washington eight-yard line on first play of the second quarter, but mishandled the center exchange on next play … Washington recovered the ball and drove to a touchdown to take a narrow 10–9 lead … tossed interception to Redskin cornerback Deion Sanders in fourth quarter and made the tackle after a 32-yard return, but ensuing Washington drive ended in missed field-goal try … 146 passing yards against Washington made him the fastest Cardinal to 10,000 career passing yards in his 47th appearance … solid, mistake-free game at Minnesota (Nov. 12) evidenced by good game management with numerous accurate reads, handled the Metrodome noise factor, and audibling impressively at line of scrimmage … completed 19 of 28 passes for 219 yards, suffered two sacks, but avoided interception for the first time in five outings … after Vikings took 7–0 lead in the first quarter, drove Cards 75 yards in 11 plays to tie the game at 7–7 as he connected on six of eight passes for 71 yards in first-quarter drive, including three consecutive third-down conversions with passes of nine yards to Pittman, 11 to Sanders, and 21 to Boston … continued efficient play with five-of-six completions for 70 yards in second quarter to finish first half 11-14-141 … two fourth-quarter lost fumbles by Card tailbacks Pittman and Jones ended comeback hopes … endured a beating at Philadelphia (Nov. 19), leaving game twice, the final time early in the fourth quarter as back-up quarterback Dave Brown finished the contest … final stats of 8–15–51, long completion of just 16 yards, and five sacks for –22 yards … first trip to bench came after third-quarter run for 10 yards ended when the Veterans Stadium turf produced an awkward slide and Eagle Hugh Douglas folded him up from behind … after leaving the game for two plays with wind knocked out of him, returned to finish the period … later sacked on blind-side blitz by Eagle Brian Dawkins early in the fourth quarter and landed awkwardly on left hand, leaving the game with bruised ribs and sprained thumb … declared inactive third quarterback vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 26) with thumb and rib injuries that prevented him from practicing during the week … back in the saddle at Cincinnati (Dec. 3) with healthy week of practice … connected on 22 of 44 attempts for 278 yards and a pair of scoring strikes of 38 and 15 yards to Boston … completed 14 of 26 passes for 223 yards and the two scores in the second half as he brought Cards back from 21–0 deficit to 21–13 margin … from own 29-yard line, guided Cards to Bengal 23-yard line with just over eight minutes left, but was intercepted by Bengal cornerback Tom Carter at 17-yard line as Cincinnati converted the turnover into a 17-play, 69-yard drive to a field goal that ate up 7:25 on the clock for 24–13 final tally … inactive third quarterback at Jacksonville (Dec. 10) while recovering from rib/sternum injuries … after a full week of practice, back in the starting lineup vs. Baltimore (Dec. 17) and performed impressively against the league's top defense … Cards penetrated Raven 30-yard line five times only to score one touchdown for their efforts … connected on eight of 10 passes for 65 yards in first quarter and took Cards on drive from own 15-yard line to Raven eight before Pittman lost the ball while being knocked out … in the second quarter, took Cards from own

29-yard line to Raven 28-yard line before Cary Blanchard's 46-yard field-goal try was short ... later in period from own one-yard line, engineered drive to Raven 29, highlighted by 56-yard toss to Boston ... stopped on fourth-and-one, however, on quarterback keeper with 59 seconds left before intermission ... finished first half 11–22–148 ... in third quarter, found Cody for 24-yard gain on third-and-14 near midfield, then three plays later hit Sanders over the middle for 27-yard touchdown to give Cards 7–3 lead with 9:41 left in the period ... tossed interception on next series as his pass in the flat to tight end Chris Gedney was wrestled away by Raven linebacker Jamie Sharper, who returned the pickoff 45 yards to Arizona's six-yard line to set up a one-yard Jamal Lewis touchdown run and a 10–7 Baltimore lead ... nearly pulled out a comeback in fourth quarter with eight completions in 11 attempts for 55 yards, but tight end Terry Hardy lost a fumble at the Raven five-yard line and on subsequent possession, a fourth-and-five pass at the Raven 12-yard line was batted away by all-pro linebacker Ray Lewis ... the valiant effort was Baltimore's narrowest victory in its final eight games as it marched to the Super Bowl XXXV championship ... concluded frustrating season with 14–31–144 outing at Washington (Dec. 24) with three interceptions (two at the goal line) and lost one fumble ... struggled through first half with just three completions in 12 attempts for 26 yards as he was shaken up and sent to the bench for one play ... returned in second half with 20-yard connection to Sanders to the Redskin 45-yard line, then intercepted by Darrell Green at the 35-yard line ... finished second half 11–19–118 ... also collected 30 yards on four rushing attempts.

■ 1999: Five-week absence due to preseason thumb injury and mid-season broken finger—both on his right (throwing) hand—dashed expectations ... suffered sprained thumb in second preseason game, broken finger in mid-season, and nagging hip and groin injuries spelled frustrating campaign as NFL's lowest-rated passer at 50.8 with 201 completions in 381 attempts (52.8 percent) for 2,111 yards, 9 touchdowns, and league-leading 24 interceptions ... the 24 interceptions were the most by a Card quarterback since Jim Hart's 30 pickoffs in 1967 ... troubles began in preseason vs. Tennessee (Aug. 20) ... early in first quarter while Titan defensive end Mike Jones was sacking Plummer, defensive tackle Jason Fisk slapped at the ball in Plummer's hand and yanked his thumb ... diagnosed with a sprained thumb, Plummer saw little or no practice time in the coming weeks while the injury healed ... threw just 10 passes in preseason play due to the sprained thumb ... inactivity was obvious over the first six weeks of the regular season as he completed just 93 of 181 passes (51.4 percent) for 928 yards, 3 touchdowns, and 14 interceptions ... broken finger vs. Washington (Oct. 17) forced him to miss five starts ... in the week leading up to his return to action in second half at N.Y. Giants (Nov. 28), had participated in just nine practices since preseason due to the myriad of injuries ... shook off nightmarish first quarter in season opener at Philadelphia (Sept. 12) of 2–9–15 with two interceptions to rally Cards from 21–0 deficit to thrilling 25–24 victory, his 10th fourth-quarter comeback in just 27 pro starting assignments ... both first-quarter interceptions led to Eagle touchdowns ... finished the first half 10–25–78 with three interceptions ... found his rhythm in the third quarter with 10 completions in 14 attempts for 105 yards, including a perfect five-for-five for 58 yards on third down ... responded in comeback bid with outstanding first-down efforts in fourth quarter, another perfect showing with four completions in as many attempts for 71 yards, including a 47-yarder to wide receiver Rob Moore to the Eagle 18-yard line, then a strike to Moore on a slant between two defenders for a 20-yard touchdown pass to cut the deficit to 24–22 with 4:03 to play ... key play was a naked bootleg on second-and-11 at the Eagle 21-yard line with 1:24 left when he scooted around right end before being pushed out of bounds at the four-yard line, a call only he and offensive coordinator Marc Trestman knew would be a Plummer bootleg ... three kneel-downs set up Chris Jacke's game-winning 31-yard field goal as time expired ... by his own admission, Plummer endured perhaps his worst game as a pro at Miami (Sept. 19) the next week with just 11 completions in 27 attempts, four interceptions, and numerous poor throws ... tender throwing thumb dictated back-up Dave Brown take nearly all the snaps during team drills during the week ... once again started slowly vs. San Francisco (Sept. 27) with first-half numbers of 8–17–85, 1 interception, and 4 sacks ... opened second half with supportive running game on opening series of the third quarter in 11-play, 80-yard touchdown drive as he connected on two of three passes for 20 yards ... also dove for 10 yards on third-and-11 in fourth quarter, then converted the fourth-and-one with one-yard dive for a first down at own 44-yard line with five minutes left ... struggled out of the starting blocks again at Dallas (Oct. 3) as third-down pass bounced off wide receiver Andy McCullough's hands into the arms of Cowboy safety George Teague, who raced 32 yards for a touchdown on the Cards' third play from scrimmage ... finished the game with 16 completions in

33 attempts for 111 yards, 1 touchdown, and 3 interceptions ... all three interceptions bounced off the hands of Cardinal receivers ... completed two-yard scoring toss to rookie fullback Joel Makovicka to cap 38-yard scoring drive in second quarter, one play after finding Sanders for a 26-yard gain with 24 seconds left in first half ... found his rhythm with first-half numbers of 13–17–156 vs. N.Y. Giants (Oct. 10), including seven connections for 98 yards and a touchdown to rookie Boston and five tosses for 37 yards to Sanders ... also sneaked over goal line from one-yard away near end of first half to give Cards 14–0 lead that held up in the 14–3 win ... attempted just two passes in second half ... sandwiched between Giant linebacker Jessie Armstead and defensive end Michael Strahan on third-and-10 scramble on third play of second half, however, suffering bruised left hip that sent him to the locker room for four series as Brown relieved ... with x-rays clean, returned for final two series and finished the game, his first of the year without interception ... practiced only briefly during week prior to home game against Washington (Oct. 17) due to left hip and right rib injuries ... looked sharp in first quarter with six completions in nine attempts for 50 yards, taking the Cardinals 52 yards in 12 plays to the Redskin 27-yard line for a field goal and 3–0 lead ... midway through second quarter, however, made mistake on out route to Boston that Redskin rookie cornerback Champ Bailey intercepted and returned 59 yards for a touchdown ... on ensuing possession, Moore broke wide open behind the Redskin rookie, but Plummer underthrew the ball on the run, leading to Bailey's second interception ... on opening possession of second half, sacked by Washington linebacker Shawn Barber who came in untouched on fierce blindside hit ... Plummer's ring finger of right hand lodged between Barber's facemask and helmet, bent sideways ... in-stadium x-rays disclosed a spiral fracture that sidelined Plummer indefinitely ... inactive the next four weeks as Brown saw his first starts in a Cardinal uniform ... Plummer returned to action by opening the second half at the Meadowlands vs. N.Y. Giants (Nov. 28) in relief of Brown with Cards down 10–6 at halftime ... on second possession following a turnover, guided Cards 16 yards in five plays to a touchdown with two-yard toss in left corner of end zone that Moore stole from Giant defender to give Cards 13–10 lead ... connected with tight end Johnny McWilliams for nine-yard touchdown toss to open fourth quarter and extend Card lead to 20–10, completing five consecutive passes on the drive ... again responded with nine-play, 60-yard drive and 27–17 lead with four minutes left, key plays an 11-yard toss to Sanders to convert third-and-eight situation, then 23-yarder to running back Adrian Murrell on next play to the Giant 24-yard line five plays before running back Mario Bates vaulted over from two yards out in 34–24 win ... back in starting saddle the next week vs. Philadelphia (Dec. 5) ... after three quarters, had completed just eight of 15 passes for 53 yards and faced a 17–7 deficit ... with 10:50 left in the game, Cards had managed just 79 yards total offense to the Eagles' 252 yards ... rallied the Cards in the fourth quarter with two touchdowns in the final five minutes for his 11th come-from-behind victory by completing 12 of 19 passes for 126 yards, throwing for one touchdown and running for another, in 21–17 win ... took Cards on consecutive scoring drives in final stanza ... commanded 16-play, 80-yard drive climaxed by four-yard scoring toss to Boston in right corner of the end zone on scrambling throw as he changed the play at the line of scrimmage ... then guided club on 69-yard, eight-play drive he finished with one-yard sneak for the score to give Cards 21–17 lead with less than a minute to play ... on the first drive, perfect four-for-four to convert third-down situations, then added two more third-down conversions with completions on game-winning drive, highlighted by a 38-yard diving catch by Sanders to the one-yard line to set up the quarterback sneak on the next play ... overall, 11–12 on third-down passing (100 yards) ... the rally marked Plummer's fourth consecutive comeback against Philadelphia ... miserable effort at Washington (Dec. 12) with sub-50 percent completion mark (15 completions, 32 attempts) 147 passing yards, 5 sacks, and 3 interceptions for fourth time in 1999 ... performed admirably against Buffalo's third-rated defense with 11 completions in 30 attempts for 119 yards (Dec. 19) ... only interception occurred on game-ending desperation play ... down 24–14 with 3:01 to play, took Cards 65 yards on six plays, including a 13-yard third-and-10 completion to Boston near midfield, found Sanders for 26 yards on the next play, then connected with Moore for 26-yard scoring strike with two minutes left to cut Buffalo lead to 24–21 ... came out smoking at Atlanta (Dec. 26) with 7–8–75 first quarter and 10–14–116 first half, guiding Cards to scoring drives of 86 yards (13 plays) and 74 yards (8 plays) and 14–7 lead in second quarter ... three third-down runs of 5, 2, and 2 yards produced first downs ... threw ill-advised interception near end of first half as Atlanta converted the turnover into field goal and 20–14 lead at intermission ... other interception was desperation pass near end of game ... impressive showing on first-down plays with 11–13–179 as only misfires were an incompletion and game-ending interception … also connected with Sanders for 63-yard gain in fourth quarter … concluded frustrating, injury-plagued season with career-high 35 completions in 57 attempts for 396 yards (second highest) and a pair of touchdowns against three interceptions at Green Bay (Jan. 2) … excellent first-down results (20–29–246) … after a first half of 15 completions in 27 attempts for 149 yards and two interceptions, heated up in second half with 20 completions in 30 pass attempts for 247 yards and two scores … seven times converted third-down situations with pass completions for first-down yardage and showed authority on his passes and good decision-making in three second-half scoring drives for touchdowns, two with scoring passes of six yards to Sanders and nine yards to Mac Cody … first interception slipped through the hands of Sanders, the second was batted at the line of scrimmage, spelling his fifth game of the season with three or more interceptions. ■1998: Earned Pro Bowl alternate status … ranked second in NFC with 547 pass attempts and 324 completions to Green Bay's Brett Favre (347–551) … guided Cards to single-season league record seven wins in eight games decided by three points or less … franchise-record 15 consecutive completions to open second half of 29–27 win vs. Washington (Nov. 8) … 16–17–138 in second half vs. Redskins … in second half of consecutive comeback victories at Detroit (Nov. 1) and vs. Washington (Nov. 8), combined to complete 26 of 33 pass attempts for 292 yards … opened season just three-for-nine in first quarter at Dallas (Sept. 6), finished first half 7–15–53 yards with two sacks, and lost a fumble on a fierce blindside hit by Cowboy Hurvin McCormack near midfield late in the second quarter … warmed in third period with four-of-nine accuracy for 91 yards and long connections of 41 and 27 yards to Moore on opening drive of second half, but misfired to wide open Sanders in back of end zone as Cards settled for a field goal … two series later, scored on one-yard keeper as he dove to the goal-line pylon to bring Cards within 21–10 at end of third period … finished with 14 completions in 36 attempts for 166 yards … suffered sub-par performance at Seattle (Sept. 13) against fierce Seahawk pass rush that sacked him seven times and pressured him throughout the game … two interceptions returned for touchdowns of 56 and 28 yards … impressive in first half with seven-of-10 accuracy for 79 yards but was sacked five times and had one pass returned by Seattle for a score … brought Cards to within 20–7 in third quarter, however, but again sacked twice late in third period as Seattle scored on ensuing possession, then returned the second interception for a touchdown to balloon its advantage to 33–7 in eventual 33–14 Arizona loss … displayed patience with just 137 yards passing on 35 attempts (21 completions) in home opener vs. Philadelphia (Sept. 20) … connected on key seven-yard scoring play to McWilliams on third-and-seven play with seven minutes left to give Cards 10–3 lead … on next drive, found McWilliams again on third down for 26 yards to midfield as Cards eventually scored for 17–3 final … efficient, near error-free game at St. Louis (Sept. 27) with 211 yards on 21–31 accuracy with 1 touchdown, 1 interception, and 1 sack in 20–17 victory … connected with Sanders for 13-yard scoring play in second quarter on fine throw and catch on fade route in back corner of end Jake Plummer's 12 Game-Winning Comebacks (Defined as facing tied game or point deficit in fourth quarter)

Cardinals 32, Cowboys 31 (H) ■ Sept. 10

The nationally-televised (ESPN) contest is played in 100-degree heat at Sun Devil Stadium ... Arizona registers 10 unanswered points on the first Frank Sanders touchdown catch, a four-yarder, and Cary Blanchard's third field goal, a 35-yarder, to inch the Cards within one point at 24–23 ... a final Dallas touchdown in the fourth quarter stakes the Pokes to a 31–23 advantage ... Plummer drives Arizona to 10 points on its next two possessions on Blanchard's fourth field goal (51 yards) and Sanders' second touchdown reception (17 yards) ... the latter caps a four-play, 85-yard march highlighted by a 63-yard Plummer-to-David Boston connection ... the Cards' defense snuffs the Cowboys' madcap attempt to reach field-goal range when Randall Cunningham's fourth-down pass from Arizona's 43-yard line sails out of bounds.

Cardinals 21, Eagles 17 (H) ■ Dec. 5

After sputtering through three quarters with just 79 yards total offense and trailing 17–7, Plummer drives the Cardinals 80 yards in 16 plays, culminated by a four-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver David Boston with 4:31 to play ... after Arizona's defense forces a three-and-out punt, Plummer again drives the Cardinals, this time 69 yards in eight plays ... the key connection is a 38-yard third-and-10 pass to wide receiver Frank Sanders to Philadelphia's six-inch line with 59 seconds to play ... Plummer sneaks for the game-winning touchdown on the next play.

Cardinals 25, Eagles 24 (A) ■ Sept. 12

Trailing 24–22, Cardinals regain possession of the ball on 32-yard interception return to Philadelphia's 43-yard line with 1:49 to play ... Plummer milks the clock while driving the Cards into field-goal range ... Arizona marches 30 yards in eight plays, highlighted by Plummer's 17-yard naked bootleg to the Eagles' four-yard line ... Chris Jacke kicks game-winning fourth field goal of the day from 31 yards on the contest's final play.

1998

Cardinals 16, Chargers (H) ■ Dec. 27

San Diego ties the game at 13–13 with 16 seconds remaining on a fourth-and-20 30-yard touchdown pass ... Eric Metcalf returns the ensuing kickoff 46 yards to the Chargers' 44-yard line with eight seconds remaining ... Plummer finds wide receiver Frank Sanders with a quick 10-yard completion to the San Diego 34-yard line ... timeout is called with three seconds to play ... Chris Jacke drills his third field goal of the game, a 52-yarder, and his 14th career game-winner.

Cardinals 19, Saints 17 (H) ■ Dec. 20

New Orleans regains the lead at 17–16 with 1:21 to play ... Cards begin final possession on their own eight-yard line following penalty on the kickoff return ... Cards cover 73 yards in six plays, beginning with pass completions of 25 and 28 yards to Sanders and ending with Plummer runs of 21 and four yards following one incompletion ... Jacke follows with his fourth field goal of the game, a 36-yarder, his 13th career game-winner.

Cardinals 20, Eagles 17-OT (A) ■ Dec. 13

Philadelphia takes its first and only lead of 17–10 early in the fourth quarter ... completed eight of 10 passes for 119 yards and a touchdown thereafter ... on Arizona's final three possessions, Plummer drives the Cards 66 yards in 10 plays to tie the score at 17–17 with a nine-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Rob Moore, positions the Cardinals at Philadelphia's 17-yard line for a missed 34-yard field-goal attempt, and directs the Cards 58 yards to the Eagles' 14-yard line on the first nine plays of overtime to set the table for Jacke's 32-yard game-winning field goal ... the latter drive principally was the work of two clutch completions to Moore, the first for 30 yards, the other for 16 yards in the face of a third-and-eight Philadelphia blitz.

Cardinals 29, Redskins 27 (H) ■ Nov. 8

Cards take 26–17 lead midway through fourth quarter ... Washington tallies 35-yard touchdown pass with 1:39 left to cut Arizona lead to 26–24 ... onsides kick recovery by Redskins sets up 54-yard field goal for improbable 27–26 Washington lead with :35 to play ... Plummer takes Cards 50 yards in five plays, using just 27 seconds ... Joe Nedney kicks 47-yard field goal with :02 left for 29–27 final.

Cardinals 17, Lions 15 (A) ■ Nov. 1

Cards down 15–14 with 9:29 remaining ... Plummer drives Cards 39 yards in eight plays to Lion 35-yard line ... Joe Nedney kicks career-long 53-yard field goal with 2:46 left ... Cards win 17–15.

Cardinals 20, Rams 17 (A) ■ Sept. 27

Cards and Rams even at 17–17 with 9:52 left to play in Cards' first regular-season trip to St. Louis since leaving in 1988 ... Plummer takes Cards on 10-play, 75-yard drive to the Ram 12-yard line ... Joe Nedney kicks 29-yard game-winner with 4:04 left ... Cards win 20–17.

Cardinals 17, Eagles 3 (H) ■ Sept. 20

Cards trail 3–0 with 14:20 remaining in fourth quarter ... Plummer directs Cards 51 yards in six plays from own 20-yard line for Joe Nedney's 47-yard field goal and 3–3 tie with 12:15 left ... next possession is five-play, 18-yard drive following turnover for seven-yard touchdown pass to Johnny McWilliams and 10–3 lead with 7:39 left ... finishes game with 86-yard drive in nine plays, capped by 25-yard touchdown run by Adrian Murrell with 1:52 left for 17–3 margin.

Cardinals 29, Falcons 26 (H) ■ Dec. 21

Cards trail 26–14 with 8:41 remaining ... Plummer takes Cards 69 yards to end zone, capped by 21-yard touchdown pass to Rob Moore with 4:55 left ... Cards regain possession on own 20-yard line with 1:52 on clock and no timeouts ... Plummer takes Cards 80 yards in 12 plays, finishing with a one-yard touchdown pass to Larry Centers ... ensuing two-point scramble with five seconds left ices 29–26 victory.

Cardinals 16, Ravens 13 (A) ■ Nov. 23

Game tied at 13–13 ... Plummer guides Cards 55 yards in six plays from own 20-yard line in final 34 seconds ... Joe Nedney kicks 43-yard field goal as time expires for 16–13 win ... Plummer completes four of five passes for 50 yards in the drive.

2000 REVIEW

2000 Review

It was a season not even a mother could love! The Cardinals' 3–13 campaign—the team's fewest victories and lowest winning percentage since 1959 (2–10, .167)—appeared to be a complete wipeout, flotsam after a shipwreck.

Yet, nothing could be further from the truth. In reality, 2000 will be remembered for two pivotal moments in franchise history long after memories of the disappointing season fade.

- November voter approval for construction of a new multi-purpose stadium.
- December emergence of Dave McGinnis as the team's permanent head coach.

In reality, 2000 could prove to be a watershed year for the Cardinals' franchise!

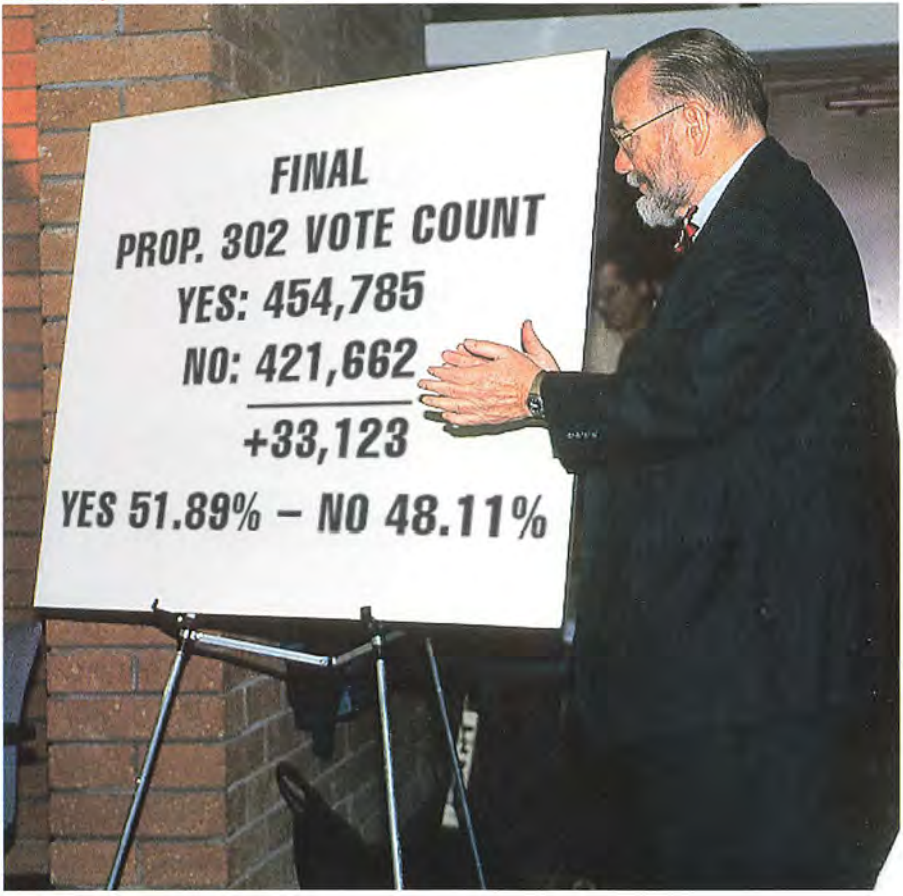
The Stadium

On Election Day, Tuesday, November 7, two days after the Cardinals' dramatic 16–15 upset victory over the Washington Redskins at Sun Devil Stadium, voters in Maricopa County approved Proposition 302, the "Tourism and Sports Initiative," that will help fund a new stadium for the Cardinals, the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, and future Super Bowls in addition to providing revenue for Cactus League baseball, tourism, and youth recreation.

The measure passed with a plurality of 33,123 votes (51.89 percent).

As McGinnis said at the time, "The campaign was called 'AZ WINS.' Well, Arizona won!"

President William V. Bidwill unveils the final vote count at a Proposition 302 press conference following Election Day.



Added Michael Bidwill, the Cardinals' vice president and general counsel, "There are many people to thank for the passage of Proposition 302, but none more important than the 454,785 Maricopa County residents who voted 'yes.' We are grateful for their support!"

The Tourism and Sports Authority (TSA), the governing body charged with developing the stadium, enlisted Ted Ferris, former deputy chief of staff to Arizona Governor Jane Hull, as its president.

The TSA considered five possible locations for the stadium, ultimately selecting downtown Tempe.

Stadium design is ongoing. Approximately 25 percent of the design for the retractable-roof, retractable-field, 68,000-seat (expandable to 73,000 for mega events) stadium is complete.

Groundbreaking is scheduled concurrent to the start of the 2001 season. Opening day for the Cardinals in the new building will be August, 2004.

Dave McGinnis, left, conversing with record-setting middle linebacker Ronald McKinnon, was named interim head coach seven games into the season, then was named the franchise's permanent head coach on December 18, 2000.

The Coach

Arizona's 2–7 start ended with an unnerving 48–7 setback at Dallas on October 22. Only a late Cardinal touchdown prevented the outcome from ranking as the most one-sided loss in franchise history. The ominous trend cost fifth-year Head Coach Vince Tobin his job.

He was replaced on October 23 on an interim basis by McGinnis, the dynamic defensive coordinator whose time was coming.

A near-miss 21–10 loss to playoff-bound New Orleans on October 29 in McGinnis' first game in "the chair" set the stage for dramatics the following week.

As Maricopa County pondered the future of the Cardinals via its vote on a new stadium two days later, McGinnis led the Cards against Washington on November 5 and emerged with his first head-coaching victory in an unlikely 16–15 triumph.

The victory is credited with playing a significant role in Proposition 302's passage two days later.

McGinnis' time arrived December 18 when Cardinals' President William V. Bidwill named the West Texan the franchise's 37th head coach.

The Injuries

Any overview of the 2000 Cardinals must begin with injuries, lots of injuries. In fact, 109 starter games were lost by injuries to 17 players. Two missed the entire season.

A harbinger of things to come struck early when two-time Pro Bowl wide receiver Rob Moore—quarterback Jake Plummer's favorite target—was lost for the season (knee injury) on the artificial turf of the Minnesota Vikings' Metrodome in the third preseason outing.

The loss of center Mike Gruttadauria, the Cards' primary off-season acquisition fresh from anchoring the St. Louis Rams' offensive line to the Super Bowl championship, compounded matters. Knee arthroscopy cost him most of training camp and the season's first two games. After starting the next eight outings, Gruttadauria was sidelined by a ruptured disc in his neck that manifested itself at home with his family. Ensuing surgery ended his season.

Starting defensive tackle Rashod Swinger never returned from a severe knee injury in the next-to-last game of 1999 on Atlanta's artificial surface. Regular strong safety Tommy Bennett, who injured a knee in the same late-season '99 game against the Falcons and also underwent knee surgery, rehabilitated in time to appear in 11 contests but only on special teams and as a spot defender.

Defensive end Andre Wadsworth's ongoing knee woes plagued him throughout 2000. He missed training camp and the season's first seven assignments. Facing postseason surgery on both knees, Wadsworth, nevertheless, fought through the pain to appear in the season's final nine outings, starting the last eight games.

Spirited outside linebacker Zack Walz, still rehabilitating from 1999 anterior cruciate knee surgery, missed five of the season's first six games, then made five starts before suffering a broken leg November 19 on Philadelphia's artificial turf.

Veteran defensive tackle Tony McCoy, signed to replace departed free agent Eric Swann, only appeared in the first six contests before a knee injury sent him to the surgeon's arthroscope.

Running back Michael Pittman led the Cardinals in rushing and receiving, a team first since 1974.

Feisty Thomas Burke, a potential starter at defensive end, endured a wasted campaign. He nursed a severe abdominal pull throughout the season that limited him to just two token appearances.

Isolated lost starts to an assortment of other Cardinal regulars—outside linebackers Rob Fredrickson (3) and Ray Thompson (5), guards Lester Holmes (4) and Matt Joyce (3), Plummer (2), fullback Joel Makovicka (2), defensive tackles Russell Davis (3) and Mark Smith (2), guard/center Chris Dishman (2), and tackle L.J. Shelton (2)—rounded out the painful picture.

The Offense

The early loss of Moore forced a sudden change in the Cards' mindset on the eve of a new season. Arizona scrapped plans to regularly employ a three-wideout set to take advantage of Moore, Frank Sanders, and David Boston.

The alternative was a basic two-back, two-receiver concept.

Injuries prompted eight different offensive line combinations.

The result was a unit that struggled for 16 weeks.

Arizona scored only 201 points (less than one-half of their opponents' total of 443) or 13.1 points per game to rank 29th in the NFL in scoring. It was the team's lowest single-season point total since 1991. The Cardinals, who tallied just 24 touchdowns and only six rushing, scored less than 20 points 13 times in 16 games, including the final 11, when they didn't reach 10 points five times. They also posted the league's lowest red-zone touchdown percentage (31.8).

Ranking 24th overall in total offense at 283 yards per game, the Cards' rushing attack rated 27th in the league at 79.9 yards per outing. Only one running back—Michael Pittman (107 yards vs. Cleveland, October 8)—cracked the 100-yard barrier one time. As a unit, the Cards failed to rush for 100 yards 11 times, including seven consecutive weeks late in the season.

Pittman finished 2000 as the team leader in receiving (73 receptions, 579 yards, 2 touchdowns) and rushing (184 rushes, 719 yards, 4 touchdowns), a Cardinal first since 1974 when Terry Metcalf turned the trick. Pittman's 73 catches rank fourth in team single-season annals among running backs. His 10-reception game November 26 vs. the Giants not only was his single-game best but also the highest total by a Cardinal running back since Larry Centers' 10 grabs at Minnesota on December 1, 1996, a span of 64 games.

Sanders caught 54 passes (749 yards, six career-best touchdowns) to improve his career total to 418 receptions and tie Bobby Joe Conrad for fifth place on the Cardinals' all-time receiving list.

Pittman's backfield running mate, first-round (seventh overall) draft choice Thomas Jones, suffered a frustrating rookie season. Although the started the season's first four games, Jones garnered only 373 rushing yards and two touchdowns on 112 carries. He also missed most of the final month of the season battling pneumonia and pleurisy.

Sophomore speedster Boston caught a career-best 71 passes for 1,156 yards and seven touchdowns. He also repeatedly flashed his big-play potential, authoring seven of Arizona's 10 longest plays from scrimmage, including the top four, receptions of 70 (touchdown), 63, 56, and 56 (touchdown) yards. Boston's 184 receiving yards December 3 at Cincinnati were his career best and led the NFL that weekend. He also posted back-to-back 100-yard receiving games in the season's first two outings September 3 at the Giants (128 yards) and September 10 vs. Dallas (102 yards).

Plummer experienced a sub-par season for the second consecutive year. He completed 270 of 475 passes for 2,946 yards with 13 touchdowns against 21 interceptions. Along the way, though, he became the fastest Cardinal to 10,000 career passing yards with a 146-yard day, his 47th NFL appearance, against the Redskins on November 5. He also logged his 12th career comeback September 10 vs. Dallas, driving the Cardinals 85 yards in four plays for a game-winning 17-yard touchdown pass to Sanders with 1:54 to play.

Plummer completed his fourth NFL season with career statistics that include 952 completions in 1,699 attempts (.560) for 10,997 yards, 54 touchdowns, and 80 interceptions.

Reserve quarterbacks Dave Brown and Chris Greisen played sparingly. Brown started once against his old teammates, the New York Giants, on November 26.

Bookend tackles Anthony Clement and Shelton showed promise for the future, answering the bell for 30 of 32 starting assignments.

Despite the flux, the offensive line pass protected well, allowing only 35 sacks. Just 12 teams suffered fewer.

Tight ends Terry Hardy (27 receptions, 160 yards, 1 touchdown), Chris Gedney (10 receptions, 75 yards), and Tywan Mitchell (5 receptions, 80 yards) collectively caught 42 passes for 315 yards and one touchdown.

Gedney's mere presence was remarkable and inspirational, perhaps miraculous, and rated as one of the NFL's top feel-good stories of 2000. The seven-year veteran became the first professional athlete to resume his career following dual surgeries for ulcerative colitis. The Syracuse product lost his entire 1999 campaign when surgeons were forced to remove his large intestine in July, then performed reanastomosis (reattachment) of the previously constructed ileostomy in September to regain and maintain normal gastrointestinal function. Gedney's weight fell from 257 to 218 pounds. He regained his heft and resumed his career, appearing in 13 contests.

The Defense

Arizona's defense, suffering the brunt of the team's injury bugaboo, fielded 10 different starting alignments in its front seven. The only constant was relentless middle linebacker Ronald McKinnon, who did not miss a start.

Three other defenders who answered the bell for all 16 starts were members of the secondary—cornerback Aeneas Williams, and safeties Pat

Cornerback Aeneas Williams' 104-yard fumble, equalling the NFL record, was the signature play of his storied career.

Tillman and Kwamie Lassiter.

Four players started at end (Wadsworth, Brad Ottis, Corey Sears, Simeon Rice), four (McCoy, Smith, Russell Davis, and rookie Mao Tosi) at tackle, and five (Fredrickson, Walz, Johnny Rutledge, James Folston, and rookie Thompson) at outside linebacker.

The results were humbling.

In the face of 1,062 opponent plays, the NFC high, the unit finished last in third-down efficiency (47.3 percent) and next to last in points allowed (443), opponent total yards (5,737, 358.6 per game), opponent rushing yards (2,609, 163.1 per game), and opponent first downs (345) in the NFL.

Dubious opponent single-season franchise records were established for points (443), rushing touchdowns (29), first downs (345), rushing first downs (149), and rushing yards (2,609).

Williams punctured the defensive doldrums and authored perhaps the signature play of his storied career on November 5 vs. Washington when he returned a Stephen Davis goal-line fumble 104 yards for a touchdown, the longest fumble return in Cardinal history that equalled the longest in NFL annals (Oakland's Jack Tatum vs. Green Bay, September 24, 1972).

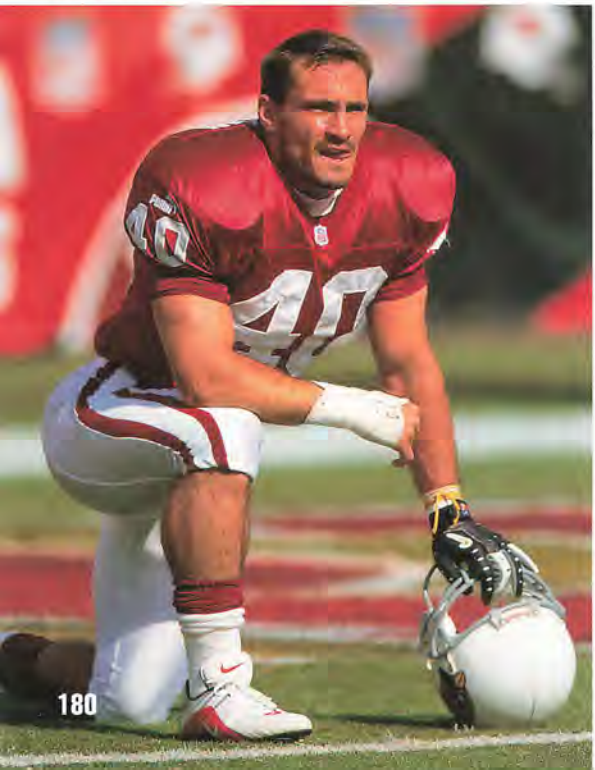
Williams concluded 2000 by playing in his 169th consecutive game, the longest streak by a position player in franchise history and second only to kicker Jim Bakken (234, 1962–78). Williams was named a Pro Bowl alternate after six consecutive selections to the all-star squad.

Williams' five pass interceptions for 102 yards raised his career totals to 46 pilfers for 653 yards, trailing only Larry Wilson's team records of 52 pickoffs for 800 yards.

Tillman (224 total tackles, 110 solos) and McKinnon (208 total tackles, 131 solos) dueled for the team lead in tackles. Tillman eventually prevailed in total tackles, McKinnon in solo stops. The duo became the first pair of Cardinals to crack 200 total tackles in the same season. Tillman became the first non-linebacker to lead the Cards in total tackles since strong safety Tim McDonald in 1992 (107 total, 89 solos). McKinnon, the 1999 NFL tackles leader who led Arizona with 223 total stops (106 solos), became the first Cardinal to post 200 total tackles in consecutive seasons.

Lassiter recorded the top individual effort of the season with 22 total tackles (12 solos) December 3 at Cincinnati. The 12 solos joined Tillman (November 5 vs. Washington) and McKinnon (October 8 vs. Cleveland) for the 2000 single-game lead. The 22 total tackles equalled Fredrickson's 1999 effort at the New York Jets as the franchise's modern-era record.

Safety Pat Tillman narrowly edged McKinnon to lead the Cards in tackles. The pair combined to become the first duo in franchise history to both crack the 200-total tackle barrier in the same season.



Fredrickson led the defense with 12 tackles for loss, Rice with 7.5 sacks and 20 pressures, Tillman with 12 deflected passes, and Williams with five interceptions.

Rice, who did not join the team until the second week of the regular season following a contract impasse, turned heads November 19 at Philadelphia with three career-high sacks, all in the first half, a Cardinal first since outside linebacker Ken Harvey's three sacks at Washington, September 12, 1993.

Two rookie defensive linemen showed promise. Tackle Tosi, pressed into starting duty over the season's final 10 games, responded by leading the Cards' defensive linemen with 53 total tackles (30 solos). Jabari Issa also impressed in spot duty, particularly his first NFL sack November 5 vs. Washington, a second-half turning point deep in Arizona territory that helped preserve the Cards' 16–15 victory.

Special Teams

Arizona's special teams acquitted themselves nicely in 2000.

Speedy MarTay Jenkins, who also found a home as an extra wide receiver, stole the limelight by becoming the NFL's first 2,000-yard single-season kickoff returner with league records of 82 returns for 2,186 yards. The numbers broke the previous NFL marks of New Orleans' Tyrone Hughes (70 returns, 1,791 yards in 1996).

Jenkins' 26.7-yard kickoff-return average ranked second in the NFC, third in the NFL. It also was the Cards' highest average in 25 years (Metcalf, 27.4, 1975).

Jenkins set a team record with eight kickoff returns at Jacksonville on December 10, and on November 12 at Minnesota, he returned a kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown, the Cards' first scoring kickoff return in 21 years (Roy Green, NFL-record 106 yards at Dallas, October 21, 1979).

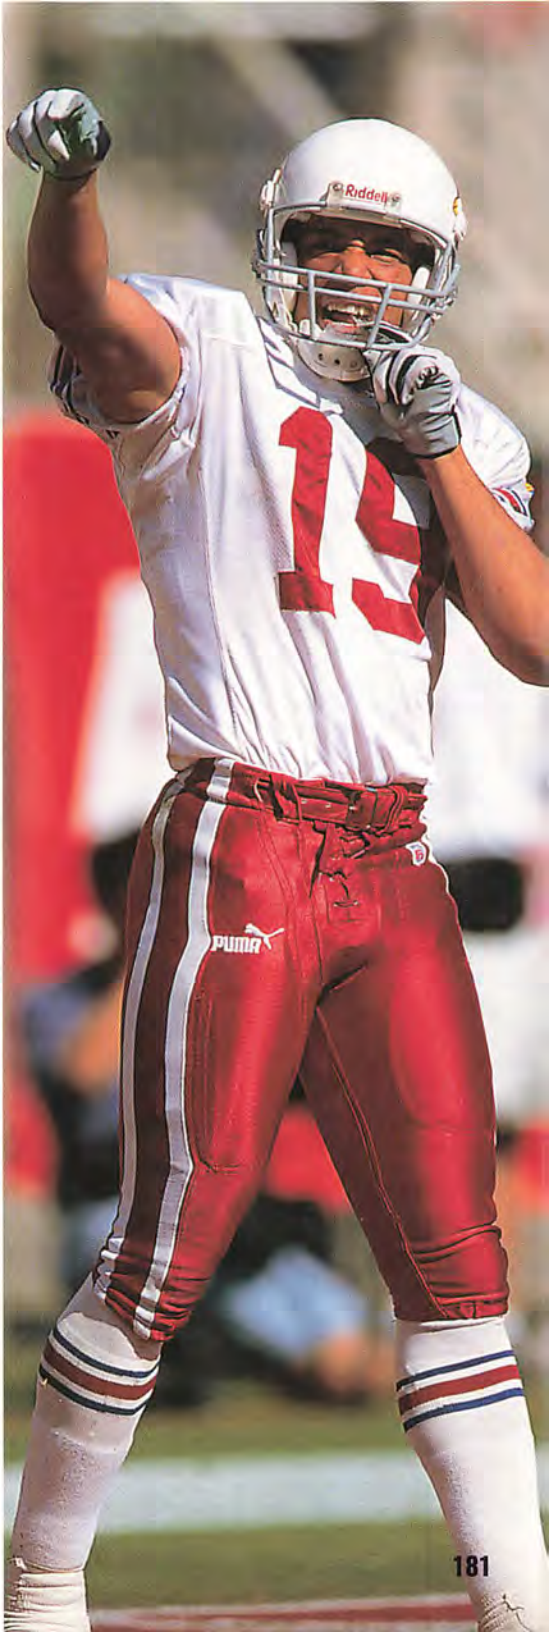
Jenkins also caught 17 passes for 219 yards to accumulate 2,402 combined yards (–4 rushing/219 receiving/2,187 returns), trailing only Metcalf's 2,462-yard total in 1975.

Jenkins' 71-yard kickoff return November 5 vs. Washington set the table for Arizona's game-winning third-quarter drive.

Unheralded punter Scott Player earned his first Pro Bowl trip with 44.2-yard gross and 37.3-yard net averages to rank second in the NFC in both categories.

First-year Card kicker Cary Blanchard experienced modest success, connecting on 16 of 23 field-goal attempts and 18 of 19 point-after-touchdown tries for a team-leading 66 points. He equalled his career long with a 54-yard field goal September 10 vs. Dallas. In the season opener at the Giants on September 3, Blanchard booted the 150th field goal of his nine-year NFL career that had previous stops with the Jets, Colts, Redskins, and Giants.

Elder statesman and long-snapper Trey Junkin climbed into eighth place on the NFL's all-time list of games played with 16 appearances that raised his career total to 265 appearances. He ranked fourth among active players by season's end, trailing only Minnesota kicker Gary Anderson (293), Atlanta kicker Morten Andersen (292), and Tennessee offensive lineman Bruce Matthews (280).■



Speedy MarTay Jenkins set Cardinal and NFL single-season records for kickoff returns and kickoff-return yardage.

Giants 21, Cardinals 16

September 3, 2000 ■ Giants Stadium (77,434)

The Cardinals opened a season in New York for the first time since 1961, dropping a 21–16 decision delayed nearly 23 minutes by lightning during the first offensive series of the second half. A 223-yard New York rushing attack, powered by running backs Tiki Barber (13–144, 2 TDs) and Ron Dayne (23–78, TD), propelled the Giants to comfortable leads of 14–0 at halftime and 21–3 early in the fourth quarter. Barber's 78-yard second-quarter touchdown sprint equalled the second longest rush in history against the Cardinals (Adrian Murrell vs. N.Y. Jets, Oct. 27, 1996, TD). Arizona, which did not score on its first nine offensive possessions, suddenly made things interesting with two late touchdown passes (9, 25 yards) from quarterback Jake Plummer to wide receiver David Boston with 1:55 and 0:32 remaining, respectively. Earlier, however, Arizona failed to score after reaching New York's 13- (fumble), 31- (interception), 30- (interception), and 33- (downs) yard lines. Boston enjoyed his finest day as a professional, posting career highs of nine receptions for 128 yards and two touchdowns. Running back Thomas Jones, the team's first-round draft pick, experienced a frustrating NFL debut, registering just 16 yards rushing on 12 carries and 18 receiving yards on four receptions in his first pro start. Safety Kwamie Lassiter's end zone interception kept Arizona within striking distance late in the third quarter with New York poised at the Cardinals' five-yard line looking to pad its 14–0 lead. Plummer enjoyed mixed results, completing 28 of 49 pass attempts for 318 yards, 2 touchdowns, and 3 interceptions. It was the ninth time in Plummer's 39 NFL appearances he has thrown 40 or more passes.

Cardinals 32, Cowboys 31

September 10, 2000 ■ Sun Devil Stadium (58,303)

The Cardinals rode four Cary Blanchard field goals, two Frank Sanders touchdown receptions, and the 12th fourth-quarter comeback of quarterback Jake Plummer's 40-game NFL career to their first 2000 victory, a 32–31 success over the Dallas Cowboys. The nationally-televised (ESPN) contest was played in 100-degree heat at Sun Devil Stadium. Dallas seized the game's momentum in the first half with two long scoring plays, a 64-yard punt return by Wane McGarity and a 47-yard touchdown pass from substitute quarterback Randall Cunningham to wide receiver James McKnight. Blanchard's second field goal, a 54-yarder as time expired in the first half, equalled his career long and cut the Cardinals' intermission deficit to 21–13. Following a third-quarter Cowboy field goal, Arizona registered 10 unanswered points on the first Sanders touchdown catch, a four-yarder, and Blanchard's third field goal, a 35-yarder, to inch the Cards to within one point at 24–23. A final Dallas touchdown in the fourth quarter staked the Pokes to a 31–23 advantage. The stage was set for Plummer, who drove Arizona to 10 points on its next two possessions on Blanchard's fourth field goal (51 yards) and Sanders' second touchdown (17 yards). The latter capped a four-play, 85-yard drive highlighted by a 63-yard Plummer-to-David Boston connection. The Cards' defense snuffed the Cowboys' mad-cap attempt to reach field-goal range when Cunningham's fourth-down pass from Arizona's 43-yard line sailed out of bounds.

Packers 29, Cardinals 3

September 24, 2000 ■ Sun Devil Stadium (69,568)

The Cardinals suffered their most one-sided home-field loss in 21 Sun Devil Stadium outings (41–14 vs. Tennessee, Oct. 26, 1997), a 29–3 setback in Green Bay's first Arizona appearance since 1990. The Packers dominated the contest throughout, beginning with 80- and 85-yard touchdown drives on their second (Ahman Green 19-yard touchdown run) and third (Bill Schroeder 55-yard touchdown reception from quarterback Brett Favre) possessions, continuing with five Packer record-tying Ryan Longwell field goals, and ending with a stifling defensive effort that held the Cardinals to 209 total yards while intercepting Arizona quarterback Jake Plummer four times. Green Bay scored on seven of its 11 offensive possessions. The Packers also enjoyed a 36:28–23:32 time-of-possession advantage that relegated Arizona to just five second-half possessions, including only one in the third quarter. Longwell's five three-pointers equalled Chris Jacke's single-game Packer record. Arizona's only points came on kicker Cary Blanchard's 31-yard second-quarter field goal, his sixth consecutive three-pointer as a Cardinal. The Cardinals never seriously threatened after Longwell closed Green Bay's first-half scoring with his first field goal with 2:06 to play before intermission, extending the Packers' lead to 17–3.

49ers 27, Cardinals 20

October 1, 2000 ■ 3Com Park (66,985)

The Cardinals lost their fifth consecutive road game and their seventh outing overall in their past eight assignments after staking San Francisco to a 27–10 lead. The opportunistic 49ers turned a missed Arizona field-goal attempt and two fumble recoveries into 17 of their 27 points. A 56-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Jake Plummer to wide receiver David Boston with 18 seconds remaining in the first half breathed new life into the Cardinals, cutting San Francisco's advantage to 17–10 at halftime. But Arizona was unable to maintain its momentum in the third quarter when the Niners marched 63 yards in 11 plays for the second of running back Charlie Garner's two one-yard touchdown plunges. After San Francisco's second field goal early in the fourth quarter, the Cards posted 10 late points—Cary Blanchard's second field goal of the day, a 27-yarder, and running back Thomas Jones' first NFL touchdown on a four-yard draw play. Running back Michael Pittman accumulated 142 total yards on 11 rushes for 72 yards and six receptions for 72 yards. Plummer, interceptionless for the second time in three games, completed 24 of 41 throws for 239 yards and one touchdown.

Cardinals 29, Browns 21

October 8, 2000 ■ Sun Devil Stadium (44,296)

The Cardinals scored 26 unanswered points, their most in 26 games (31 straight at Washington, Nov. 22, 1998), on five consecutive second- and third-quarter possessions to storm from behind, overcome a 14–0 deficit, and defeat the visiting Cleveland Browns. Running back Michael Pittman, in his first 2000 start, spearheaded the Arizona offense with 107 rushing yards. As a team, the Cards registered over 125 yards rushing for the second consecutive game, a first since 1996. Wide receiver Frank Sanders logged two touchdown receptions, including a 53-yarder, his longest since Nov. 16, 1997 at the N.Y. Giants (70 yards). Quarterback Jake Plummer, a workmanlike 17-for-30, 171 yards, and 2 touchdowns, avoided interception for the second consecutive week and for the third time in four outings. The former was a Cardinal first since Kent Graham in games one and two in 1997. Arizona's defense held the Browns to 240 total yards, the lowest opponent total since the 1999 season opener at Philadelphia (205), and limited Cleveland to three or four plays on all six second-half possessions and eight of 12 drives overall. Rookie running back Travis Prentice tallied all three Cleveland touchdowns on short runs. Two of the three touchdowns were the result of short fields created by Cardinal special-teams turnovers—fumbled kickoff return (MarTay Jenkins), muffed punt (Mac Cody). Card kicker Cary Blanchard was successful on three field-goal attempts (36, 47, 28 yards) to improve his Cardinal accuracy to a near-perfect 11-for-12. His initial three-pointer with 1:13 to play in the first half gave Arizona its first lead at 16–14.

Eagles 33, Cardinals 14

October 15, 2000 ■ Sun Devil Stadium (38,293)

Philadelphia dominated Arizona throughout to snap the Cardinals' five-game series winning streak. Philadelphia's balanced (219 passing yards, 172 rushing yards), ball-control offense held significant advantages in plays (76–45), time of possession (39:34–20:26), rushes (38–14), first downs (28–17), and turnovers (0–3). The Eagles seized a commanding 24–0 lead, scoring three touchdowns and a field goal on their first four possessions that lasted 10, 14, 17, and 10 plays for 70, 54, 78, and 58 yards, respectively. The Cards finally scratched the scoreboard on a 70-yard third-quarter touchdown pass from quarterback Jake Plummer to wide receiver David Boston, Arizona's longest play of the season, then again on their ensuing 12-play, 88-yard possession, capped by a 10-yard scoring toss from Plummer to running back Michael Pittman. The Cards' offense recorded its third consecutive 300-yard outing, a first since weeks 13–15 of 1998. Reserve linebacker James Folston posted two sacks (minus one yard), the second and third sacks of his career, and the Cards' first multi-sack effort of 2000. Boston's six receptions were good for 123 receiving yards, his third 100-yard effort of the season. Arizona was penalized a season-high nine times (–65 yards) after entering the contest with a league-low 15 penalties through five games.

Cowboys 48, Cardinals 7

October 22, 2000 ■ Texas Stadium (62,981)

The Cardinals endured one of the most one-sided losses in franchise history and the worst of their 77-game all-time series against the Dallas Cowboys, a 48–7 verdict, the Cards' 11th consecutive regular-season setback at Texas Stadium and Vince Tobin's final game as Arizona's head coach. The Pokes scored (six touchdowns, one field goal) on seven consecutive possessions, a run that began late in the first quarter and ended early in the fourth stanza. Dallas seized a 21–0 lead before its quarterback, Troy Aikman, completed his first pass. The Cowboys built that lead by capitalizing on the first of three interceptions of Card quarterback Jake Plummer with a brief 16-yard drive that running back Emmitt Smith completed with a one-yard touchdown run, a 59-yard punt return for a touchdown by Wane McGarity, and running back Chris Warren's 32-yard rumble to cap a 73-yard march. The two possessions consisted of 10 collective plays, all runs. The Dallas lead reached 48–0 before Arizona averted a shutout with a late one-yard leap by running back Michael Pittman with 5:29 to play. The Cards gained 177 of their 276 total yards in the fourth quarter. The injury-depleted Arizona defense failed to force an opponent turnover for the third consecutive outing while allowing 200 yards rushing for the second time in 2000. Plummer's 20 completions were caught by nine different receivers, led by Pittman's seven catches. Arizona, the least penalized team in the NFL entering the contest, was called for a season-high 11 penalties (–59 yards).

Saints 21, Cardinals 10

October 29, 2000 ■ Sun Devil Stadium (35,016)

Four Cardinal turnovers—two interceptions, two fumbles—and two missed field-goal attempts, both bouncing off the left upright, spoiled Dave McGinnis' head-coaching debut as New Orleans overcame Arizona's statistical advantages to post its fourth consecutive victory. The Cards held the upper hand in total yards (394–247), offensive plays (77–57), rushing yards (125–89), passing yards (269–158), first downs (24–17), time of possession (33:19–26:41), and penalties (4/27–5/55). The total yards, first downs, time of possession, and third-down conversion percentage (10–18, 56 percent) were Cardinal season bests, and first downs, third-down conversion, total yards, offensive plays, passing yards, and passing yards were season bests against the Saints' NFL-leading defense. The New Orleans offense (68-yard first-quarter 12-play march that tight end Lamont Hall ended with a one-yard touchdown reception), defense (linebacker Keith Mitchell's 40-yard touchdown interception), and special teams (forced fumble and recovery on fourth-quarter Card punt return at Arizona's 16-yard line leading to the final New Orleans touchdown) each contributed to their three touchdowns. The Cards tallied their first first-quarter touchdown in 24 games on a three-yard pass from quarterback Jake Plummer to tight end Terry Hardy, the latter's first NFL touchdown and one of seven career-best receptions. Ten Cardinal players caught passes, a season high, including NFL firsts for wide receiver/tight end Tywan Mitchell and rookie tight end Jay Tant. Arizona's defense snapped Saint running back Ricky Williams' streak of five consecutive 100-yard rushing games by limiting him to 54 yards on 21 carries.

Cardinals 16, Redskins 15

November 5, 2000 ■ Sun Devil Stadium (44,723)

Big plays overcame statistical disparity to propel the Cardinals to a 16–15 upset over Washington, handing Dave McGinnis his first victory as Arizona's head coach. Cornerback Aeneas Williams authored two first-quarter takeaways that staked Arizona to a 10–0 lead. Williams stunned the Redskins, poised at Arizona's one-yard line on the game's first possession, with an end-zone recovery of a Stephen Davis goal-line fumble and a 104-yard return for a touchdown. It was the longest fumble return in Card history and equalled the longest in NFL annals (Oakland's Jack Tatum vs. Green Bay, Sept. 24, 1972). On Washington's ensuing possession, Williams intercepted a deflected Jeff George pass in Redskin territory, leading to a 30-yard Cary Blanchard field goal five plays later. It was Williams' first pickoff in 13 games. After Washington took a 12–10 halftime advantage with two field goals and a one-yard Davis touchdown run, the Cardinals regained the lead for good early in the third quarter following a 71-yard kickoff return by MarTay Jenkins that set the table for the deciding points three plays and 20 yards later, a seven-yard touchdown run by running back Michael Pittman. The Arizona defense, despite allowing 431 total yards, bent but did not break. A sack by rookie defensive lineman Jabari Issa, his NFL first, on third-and-two at the Arizona two-yard line limited Washington to its final points, a 29-yard field goal, midway through the third quarter. Washington also missed two fourth-quarter field-goal attempts after stalling at Arizona's 33- and 15-yard lines. Cardinal quarterback Jake Plummer surpassed the 10,000-yard mark for career passing in his 47th NFL game, the fastest Cardinal to the milestone, with 146 passing yards. Washington held decided statistical advantages: 431–178 total yards (164–45 rushing/267–133 passing), 27–11 first downs, and 37:26–22:34 time of possession. Jenkins posted 183 kickoff return yards, the fifth best single-game effort in Cardinal history.

Vikings 31, Cardinals 14

November 12, 2000 ■ Metrodome (64,223)

The Cardinals suffered their fourth consecutive lopsided setback at Minnesota, a 31–14 verdict that was decided when the Vikings tallied touchdowns on three of their first four second-half possessions to extend their narrow 10–7 halftime advantage to a comfortable 31–7 lead. After the teams traded first-quarter touchdowns, Arizona squandered an opportunity to take a 10–7 lead late in the second quarter when a high center snap turned into an 11-yard sack of holder Scott Player instead of a field-goal attempt. The powerful Minnesota offense amassed 460 total yards, including 302 yards passing, and 29 first downs, all season highs against the Cardinals. Viking quarterback Daunte Culpepper enjoyed a banner day, completing 25 of 32 passes (.781) for 302 yards and three touchdowns. He also rushed five times for 26 yards, including a three-yard touchdown. Vikings Cris Carter (11–119) and Randy Moss (7–104) became the first pair of opposing receivers to both crack 100 yards receiving against Arizona since the Lions' Germane Crowell (5–142) and Johnny Morton (4–110) on Nov. 14, 1999, a span of 18 games. Arizona running back Michael Pittman accumulated 113 total yards—12 rushes for 50 yards and Arizona's lone offensive touchdown, a one-yard first-quarter leap, and eight career-best receptions for 63 yards. Speedy MarTay Jenkins accented the day's action with a 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, his first NFL six-pointer and the Cardinals' first kickoff return for a touchdown since Roy Green's NFL record-setting 106-yarder Oct. 21, 1979 at Dallas. Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams intercepted a pass for the second consecutive game.

Eagles 34, Cardinals 9

November 19, 2000 ■ Veterans Stadium (65,356)

The Eagles swept the two-game season series for the first time since 1995 by scoring three touchdowns and a field goal on their final five possessions. The victory propelled Philadelphia into first place in the NFC East Division. A scrappy Arizona defense kept the Cardinals close throughout the early going, forcing two punts and logging two takeaways (outside linebacker Rob Fredrickson interception, middle linebacker Ronald McKinnon end-zone fumble recovery) on four of the Eagles' first five possessions to maintain a 3–3 deadlock. Arizona's offensive struggles continued, failing to crack 100 yards in total offense until midway through the fourth quarter. The Cards' lone touchdown was the work of a 44-yard touchdown pass from reserve quarterback Dave Brown, making his first 2000 appearance in relief of battered (left thumb, ribs) starter Jake Plummer, to wide receiver David Boston with only 4:43 to play. Defensive end Simeon Rice shined defensively, recording three career-high quarterback sacks (–13 yards), a Cardinal best since outside linebacker Ken Harvey also registered three sacks at Washington on Sept. 12, 1993. Starting outside linebacker Zack Walz was lost for the remainder of the season with a fractured lower left leg. Arizona also suffered nine penalties for 114 yards.

Giants 31, Cardinals 7

November 26, 2000 ■ Sun Devil Stadium (38,909)

The Cardinals suffered a one-sided loss for the third consecutive week, a methodical 31–7 setback to the Super Bowl-bound N.Y. Giants. While New York built a comfortable 21–0 lead by tallying one touchdown in each of the first three quarters, the Giants' defense limited Arizona to just 141 total yards (98 passing/43 rushing) during the same span. The Cardinal offense, behind quarterback Dave Brown, making his first 2000 start for injured regular Jake Plummer, sputtered in the face of New York's withering defensive pressure that produced 6 sacks (–32 yards), 3 fumble recoveries, and 1 interception. The Cards' first seven possessions ended with five punts, a lost fumble, and on downs. Arizona also was penalized a season-high 12 times for 99 yards. Running back Michael Pittman was a bright spot for the Cards, posting 173 total yards via 13 rushes for 77 yards and 10 career-high receptions for 96 yards. His 10 catches were the most by a Card running back since Larry Centers made 10 grabs at Minnesota on December 1, 1996, a span of 64 games. Pittman also authored Arizona's only touchdown, a spirited 36-yard swing pass reception and run. MarTay Jenkins increased his NFL-leading kickoff-return yardage to 1,674 yards with six returns for 158 yards, including a long of 47 yards. Brown, who injured his left shoulder in the contest, completed 18 of 36 passes for 192 yards with one touchdown and one interception before giving way to back-up Chris Greisen, making his first 2000 appearance, on Arizona's final possession.

Bengals 24, Cardinals 13

December 3, 2000 ■ Paul Brown Stadium (50,289)

Cincinnati's bludgeoning rushing attack sent the Cardinals to their fourth consecutive defeat and left them winless (0–6) on the road in 2000. The Bengals amassed 292 yards rushing, the third highest total in history by a Cardinal opponent and the most in 42 years (615 games). Cincinnati running back Corey Dillon established a Card opponent record with 216 yards rushing. Thirty-five of Cincinnati's 78 offensive plays were Dillon rushes. He set the tone for the day with a 57-yard off-tackle burst on the Bengals' second play from scrimmage, leading to their first touchdown two plays later. Arizona wide receiver David Boston brought the Cardinals back from a 21–0 deficit with two second-half touchdown receptions, a 38-yarder late in the third quarter, and a 15-yarder early in the fourth stanza. Trailing 21–13 on their next possession, the Cards threatened to tie the contest when they drove 48 yards to the Bengals' 23-yard line with 8:44 to play, but Cincinnati defensive back Tom Carter intercepted quarterback Jake Plummer to end Arizona's hopes. Boston enjoyed his finest day as a professional, registering a career-best 184 receiving yards, the NFL weekend high, on nine catches that equalled his single-game best. Running back Michael Pittman, Arizona's leading rusher and receiver, logged 72 rushing yards on 19 carries and 31 yards receiving on six grabs. Poor field conditions contributed to four misfires by kickers Cary Blanchard of the Cardinals (31-yard field-goal attempt hits right upright, wide left point-after-touchdown) and Neil Rackers of the Bengals (wide left 36-yard field-goal attempt, wide right 45-yard field-goal try).

Jaguars 44, Cardinals 10

December 10, 2000 ■ Alltel Stadium (53,472)

An overpowering Jacksonville offensive performance smothered the Cardinals, dropping Arizona's road record to 0–7. The Jaguars scored on their first seven possessions (four touchdowns, three field goals) to take an insurmountable 37–3 lead in the third quarter. The Jags employed a relentless rushing attack that included 45 rushes for 214 yards, the fourth 200-yard ground attack against Arizona in 2000 and the second in as many weeks. Running back Fred Taylor paved the way with 137 yards and two touchdowns on 23 carries, his eighth consecutive 100-yard outing. Jacksonville's 469 total yards were a season high against Arizona. Wide receiver MarTay Jenkins established NFL single-season records for kick-off returns (73), kickoff-return yardage (1,964), and combined (punts/kick-offs) kick-return yardage (1,965) with a Cardinal single-game record eight kickoff returns for 193 yards. Jenkins broke the previous league marks of New Orleans' Tyrone Hughes (70 kickoff returns, 1,791 kickoff-return yards, 1,943 combined kick-return yards) in 1996. Back-up quarterback Chris Greisen, in relief of starter Dave Brown, accounted for Arizona's only touchdown when he threw his first NFL touchdown pass, a 26-yarder to wide receiver Frank Sanders, in the fourth quarter.

Ravens 13, Cardinals 7

December 17, 2000 ■ Sun Devil Stadium (37,452)

Four turnovers (two interceptions, two fumble recoveries) by the Cardinals' offense scuttled an excellent defensive performance in Arizona's home finale, a narrow 13–7 loss in Baltimore's first appearance at Sun Devil Stadium. The setback marked the Cardinals' sixth consecutive loss. Despite gaining 309 total yards to become only the second team (Jacksonville twice) to better the 300-yard mark against the Ravens' NFL-leading defense, the Cardinals scored just one touchdown, a 27-yard pass from quarterback Jake Plummer to wide receiver Frank Sanders, on six trips inside Baltimore's 30-yard line. The other five Card drives ended pointless at Baltimore's 8- (running back Michael Pittman fumble), 28- (Cary Blanchard missed field-goal attempt), 29- (failed fourth-and-inches Plummer sneak), 15- (tight end Terry Hardy fumble), and 12- (deflected fourth-down Plummer pass) yard lines. The Card defense limited Baltimore, Super Bowl XXXV champion-to-be, to 214 total yards, including only 37 yards (70 gross yards) through the air, the fewest passing yards against the Cards in 170 games (34, Oct. 14, 1990 vs. Dallas). Four sacks (–33 yards) of Raven quarterback Trent Dilfer, the Cards' first four-sack effort in 21 outings, contributed to the low passing total. Raven rookie running back Jamal Lewis rushed 29 times for 126 yards, the seventh Cardinal opponent to crack the 100-yard barrier in 2000. Baltimore's lone touchdown was the result of one of its two interceptions that linebacker Jamie Sharper returned 45 yards to Arizona's six-yard line. Lewis plowed in for the touchdown from one yard out three plays later. The Cards' MarTay Jenkins became the NFL's first 2,000-yard single-season kickoff returner when he raised his record-setting 2000 totals to 77 returns for 2,052 yards with four returns for 88 yards.

Redskins 20, Cardinals 3

December 24, 2000 ■ FedEx Field (65,711)

Five Cardinal turnovers (three interceptions, two lost fumbles) spoiled the beginning of the Dave McGinnis era and sentenced the new Cardinal head coach's team to its seventh consecutive loss, a 3–13 (.188) season, its longest losing streak since 1991, and its lowest victory total and winning percentage since 1959 (2–10, .167). Despite holding Washington scoreless with only four first downs and 65 total yards (47 rushing/18 passing) in the second half, the Cards could not overcome repeated offensive misfirings, including three pivotal miscues—running back Michael Pittman's opening-drive fumble at Arizona's 33-yard line that seven plays later Washington turned into its second touchdown and a 14–0 lead 6:39 into the first quarter, and two interceptions of quarterback Jake Plummer inside the Redskins' 10-yard line. Cornerback Aeneas Williams kept the Cardinals alive with two interceptions and returns of 48 and eight yards. It was the fifth two-interception outing of Williams' career, equalling his single-game best. The pickoffs also lifted Williams' career total to 46, inching him closer to Cardinal all-time leader and Hall of Famer Larry Wilson's 52 interceptions. Pittman rushed 16 times for 72 yards and caught three passes for 13 yards, boosting his season totals to 719 rushing yards and 73 receptions to become the first Cardinal running back in 25 years to lead the team in rushing yardage and receptions (Terry Metcalf, 1974, 718 rushing yards, 50 receptions). Wide receiver Frank Sanders caught four passes that raised his career total to 418 receptions, tying him with Bobby Joe Conrad (1958–68) for fifth place in Cardinal history. MarTay Jenkins, already the NFL's first 2,000-yard single-season kickoff returner, improved his record-setting season totals to 82 returns for 2,186 yards. Arizona finished the season –24 in giveaway (44)-takeaway (20), their poorest total since 1959 (–25, 30 takeaways/55 giveaways).

HISTORY

Franchise History

The Cardinals, founded in 1898 and a charter member of the National Football League, hold the distinction of being the oldest continuously run professional football franchise in the nation.

The Early Days

The team boasts a colorful history! Its fans have known the club as the Arizona Cardinals, Phoenix Cardinals, St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago Cardinals, Racine Cardinals, the Normals, and the Morgan Athletic Club.

The team began as a neighborhood group that gathered to play football in a predominantly Irish area of Chicago's South Side, playing under the name Morgan Athletic Club. The team later was acquired by Chris O'Brien, a painting and decorating contractor, and soon its playing site changed to nearby Normal Field, prompting the new name Normals.

In 1901, the team gained longstanding identification when O'Brien, finding a bargain, bought used jerseys from the nearby University of Chicago. The jerseys were faded maroon in color, prompting O'Brien to declare, "That's not maroon, it's Cardinal red!" The club's permanent nickname had been born!

The jersey color and the location of the field led to a new and obvious name, the Racine Cardinals.

In Chicago at the time, football competition was exclusively amateur, but such opposition became increasingly hard to find, so in 1906, the team disbanded.

In 1913, O'Brien reorganized the Cardinals. By 1917 they were able to buy new uniforms and hire a coach, Marshall Smith. That year they lost only two games and were champions of the Chicago Football League.

The war in Europe and a flu epidemic in the United States forced the team to suspend operations once again in 1918. Following Armistice Day, O'Brien organized the Cardinals for a third time. From that day forward, the Cardinals have been a permanent part of the professional football scene in America.

Cardinal owner Charles W. Bidwill, Sr. is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Growth

The Racine Cardinals, their popularity growing in the Chicago area, eventually became one of 11 charter members of the American Professional Football League, forerunner of the NFL, in 1920 for the $100 franchise fee. Immediately after joining the league, O'Brien lured a great halfback, John "Paddy" Driscoll, to the Cardinals for $3,000 a year, a sum considered outlandish at the time. But Driscoll was an authentic superstar, a superior runner, blocker, punter, and possibly the finest drop kicker in the history of football. He also coached the team from 1921–22.

One of Driscoll's young running backs was Ralph Horween, a former star at Harvard, who played under the assumed name of B. McMahon. A Cardinal from 1921–22, Horween scored two rushing touchdowns during his three-year career during the days of leather helmets without face masks, numberless sweater jerseys, and $40 paychecks. Horween's claim to fame, however, would occur many years later. In 1996, the retired lawyer, who was born in Chicago on August 3, 1896, became the National Football League's first centenarian! He died in 1997.

In 1922, a team from Racine, Wisconsin joined the NFL, prompting the Cardinals to change their name to the Chicago Cardinals. The same year the Cardinals also moved into their new home in Comiskey Park that they would share with baseball's White Sox for 37 years.

Under new Head Coach Norman Barry, the Cardinals outdistanced a field of 20 teams to win their first NFL championship in 1925 by virtue of the league's best record. (NFL postseason play began in 1933.).

A Chicago physician, Dr. David Jones, purchased the team in 1929. In his first year of ownership, he coaxed running back Ernie Nevers out of retirement to become player-coach. Still in his prime, the 26-year-old Nevers scored an NFL-record 40 points on six touchdowns and four extra points in an historic 40–6 victory over the crosstown Bears on Thanksgiving Day, 1929.

After guiding the Cardinals to a 16–14–3 composite record in three seasons, the legendary Nevers retired as both coach and player in 1932.

Modern Era

Nevers' departure also marked the arrival of a new club owner. Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., a vice president of the Chicago Bears, purchased the Cardinals for Jones' asking price of $50,000. Bidwill divested himself of his Bears' holdings and a new era began.

However, the team sorely missed Nevers' magic on the field. The Cardinals endured difficult years in the 1930s and early '40s. World War II hit the team heavily. The Cardinals' top passer, receiver, and lineman—Johnny Clement, Billy Dewell, and Joe Kuharich, respectively—entered the service. In 1944 as a war-time emergency measure, the Cardinals combined with the Pittsburgh Steelers to play as one team. It was called Card-Pitt. Co-coached by the Cardinals' Phil Handler and the Steelers' Walt Kiesling, a former Cardinal guard, the team split its home games between Comiskey Park and Forbes Field in Pittsburgh, failing to win an outing in 10 tries.

Success finally returned following the war. In 1945, the arrival of University of Missouri quarterback Paul Christman trumpeted the team's conversion to the "T" formation. Fullback Pat Harder and halfback Elmer Angsman were added in 1946.

The 1947 Championship Season

In the resurrectional flush of post-World War II, the 1947 Cardinals stormed to the Western Division title and the NFL championship.

But the title season was bittersweet for the Cardinals' organization. In April, the death of Bidwill, the club's spearhead since taking over as owner in 1933 who helped shepherd the NFL through "The Great Depression," deprived the owner of witnessing the club's first NFL crown in 22 years.

But he still earned credit for fitting the final crucial piece into place to complete the Cardinals' famed "Million-Dollar Backfield." It was Bidwill's unprecedented signing of University of Georgia all-America running back Charley Trippi, for the then-unheard of sum of $100,000, that finally put the Cardinals over the top, winning their one and only NFL championship via a title game.

To appreciate the accomplishment of the 1947 squad, perspective is necessary.

Just two seasons earlier, in 1945, the Cardinals as a team were outscored for the entire season by Philadelphia's premier running back, Steve Van Buren, 110–98. But the following year, the third-winningest coach in Cardinal's history, the omni-talented Jimmy Conzelman, led Chicago out of the desolate wilderness to a 6–5 mark, the club's first winning season since 1935.

Several key Cardinals were already in place for the championship run. In 1945, the organization drafted Christman, a talented passer from Missouri, before adding churning Wisconsin fullback Harder, Angsman of Notre Dame, and brilliant end/defensive back Mal Kutner from Texas in '46. Another great end, Dewell, had returned from military service for the '45 season. The staple of Conzelman's ensemble was a relic from the late '30s, versatile Marshall "Biggie" Goldberg, an intuitive defensive back who was the first real free safety in pro football and the "dean" of the "Million-Dollar Backfield." Also a running back, Goldberg, a two-time all-America at Pittsburgh, had enjoyed many productive days offensively, too, but they were mostly behind him when Conzelman began his second reign as the Cards' head man in '46.

Chicago started quickly in 1947 by winning its first three outings, a run that included a 31–7 trouncing of their hated crosstown rivals, the Chicago Bears. In week four, the Cardinals headed to Los Angeles on a trip heavy with fate. They incurred their first loss of the season, 27–7 to the Rams, but lost something far more precious than a game.

Rookie punter Jeff Burkett suffered an appendicitis attack and missed the game as well as the team plane back to Chicago. He spent several days recuperating after an appendectomy before boarding a United Airlines DC-6 bound for home. He never made it. The plane crashed in Bryce Canyon, Utah, killing the young star who was the NFL's leading punter at the time of the tragedy with a 47.4-yard average.

Under the pall of the loss of Burkett, the Cardinals climbed to 7–3 but were in the throes of a two-game losing streak heading to Philadelphia on December 7 for a critical game against the Eagles. Trailing 7–3 at the half, Chicago exploded for six second-half touchdowns, including two by Trippi, and held the powerful Van Buren to just 44 yards rushing to grab a crucial 45–21 road win.

The victory deadlocked the Cards with the arch-rival Bears, who, ironically and poetically, stood as the only remaining obstacle between the Cardinals and their first Western Division crown. A showdown loomed for the regular-season finale the following Sunday at hostile Wrigley Field on Chicago's North Side.

If the '47 Cardinals' miracle season could be summarized in a single moment, the opening play of that division decider unquestionably would receive the vote. It was the creation of mastermind Conzelman, a pass play designed to give the Cardinals an advantage at the outset. In a best-case scenario, the stratagem would isolate Bears' left-side linebacker Mike Holovak one-on-one with Boris "Babe" Dimancheff, a blistering speedster who was Trippi's replacement. Conzelman eagerly looked forward to rehearsing the play all week before the big game, but nature did not cooperate. Dimancheff's wife was expecting, and he missed the entire week of practice to be at her side. He did not rejoin the team until the day before the game.

The biggest play of the season for the soon-to-be-champion Cardinals never had a single dry run.

Game day dawned!

The stunning game-opening play worked to perfection. Dimancheff ran a flair pattern, turned outside the end, then raced down the center of the field. He outdistanced Holovak, caught Christman's perfect pass, and galloped into the end zone despite stumbling over the baseball pitcher's mound.

The Cardinals also intercepted four passes by legendary Bear quarterback Sid Luckman, converting two into touchdowns en route to a 30–21 win.

Victories over the Bears were especially sweet. A sore spot with all the old Big Red was their inescapable status as Chicago's "other" team.

The Western Division crown now in hand, the Cardinals prepared to play host to the league championship game a fortnight later against Eastern Division powerhouse Philadelphia.

Cardinal running back Marshall Goldberg (with ball), who also starred in the defensive secondary, is one of four Cardinals to have his jersey number retired.

The NFL's 15th championship game opened with a surprise controversy and was studded with more big-play touchdowns on the ground than any NFL title game or Super Bowl since.

On December 28, 1947, a grim, frozen Comiskey Park gave little indication of the approaching heat of the day's upcoming war. Even the preliminaries generated sparks. Pre-kickoff controversy raged when it was discovered the Eagles, in attempts to get better gripping on the concrete-like playing surface, had sharpened and filed their cleats. A succession of penalties for the blatant rules infraction opened the game, infuriating Philadelphia Head Coach Earle "Greasy" Neale.

The Cardinals quietly had slipped on tennis shoes for the frigid affair.

The game was defined by Chicago's quick-openers, producing three devastating, back-breaking, long scoring runs from scrimmage—two 70-yarders by Angsman and a 44-yarder by Trippi.

In the third period, Trippi circled under a high Joe Muha punt, taking it on his own 25-yard line. Spectacularly side-stepping three Eagle pursuers, Trippi pranced 75 yards for a touchdown, getting hit three times along the way.

Angsman's thrilling fourth-quarter duplication of his second-period 70-yard touchdown strike enabled him to break the NFL championship game record for rushing yards with 159.

But Philadelphia fought evenly throughout with one-eyed quarterback Tommy Thompson setting two playoff records on 27-of-44 passing for 297 yards.

The Cardinals' 28–21 victory, however, wasn't secured until Goldberg's late-game interception.

New Direction

Violet Bidwill, with her husband's passing, assumed control of the franchise for the next 15 years, a span that included a second consecutive Western Division championship and appearance in the 1948 NFL championship game, a 7–0 loss at Philadelphia, and the transfer of the team from Chicago to St. Louis in 1960.

Upon Mrs. Bidwill's death in January of 1962, team control moved to sons Charles W. Bidwill, Jr. and William V. Bidwill. In 1972, the latter and his family gained sole ownership with William becoming managing general partner. On July 1, 1976, incorporation of the company was accomplished with Bidwill continuing as chief executive officer.

After 14 years in the city, the Cardinals brought their first division title to St. Louis in 1974. The Big Red captured the NFC Eastern Division flag under Head Coach Don Coryell and advanced to the playoffs with a 10–4 regular-season record.

The Cardinals lost to the Minnesota Vikings, 30–14, in their first playoff appearance since 1948.

Again in 1975, Coryell provided St. Louis with a division crown but another playoff loss, this time to the Rams in Los Angeles, 35–23, ending the Cards' postseason dream in their first outing.

The Cardinals next appeared in the playoffs in 1982 when Head Coach Jim Hanifan's club lost a first-round game at Green Bay, 41–16. In 1984, an offensively explosive St. Louis team narrowly missed the playoffs—and the NFC Eastern Division title—with a 9–7 record. However, the Cardinals stumbled to a 5–11 mark in 1985, prompting Hanifan's dismissal and the hiring of long-time Dallas Cowboy assistant Gene Stallings as the team's new head coach.

Arizona

After 28 years in St. Louis, the Cardinals relocated to Arizona in the spring of 1988 and made Sun Devil Stadium on the campus of Arizona State University their new home.

Their first season in the Valley of the Sun began optimistically when the team raced to a 7–4 record and a share of the NFC Eastern Division lead. But untimely injuries struck and a five-game losing streak ensued to finish the year, dashing hopes of the club's first postseason berth since 1982.

The Cardinals' new home provided club single-game (67,139 vs. Dallas in the Arizona inaugural game) and single-season (472,937) attendance records in the team's first autumn in Arizona.

Four coaching changes and a name change have altered the face of the Cardinals since their Arizona arrival. Following their first two seasons in the desert, long-time Washington assistant Joe Bugel arrived as head coach, a position he held for four seasons until Buddy Ryan was named head coach and general manager on February 3, 1994. Vince Tobin succeeded Ryan as head coach on February 7, 1996. Then on December 18, 2000, Dave McGinnis, the Cardinals' dynamic five-year defensive coordinator, was named the franchises head coach.

On March 17, 1994, Bidwill announced his intention to change the name of the team to the Arizona Cardinals. The change was adopted unanimously by vote of NFL owners the following week.

All the Cardinals' franchise attendance records have been established since moving to the desert. The record-setting inaugural season attendance total was eclipsed in 1994 when 497,330 fans, or 62,166 per game, spun the Sun Devil Stadium turnstiles.

The top 10 single-game home crowds in franchise history have watched the Cardinals in Sun Devil Stadium, including the largest, a throng of 73,025 that saw the Cards face Dallas on September 19, 1993.

The 1995 season also marked another milestone when the Cardinals served as the host team for Super Bowl XXX at Sun Devil Stadium on January 28, 1996.

The 1998 Arizona squad, one of the NFL's youngest teams, ended the franchise's 15-year playoff drought and notched the Cardinals' first postseason victory since 1947.

Pivotal 2000 Campaign

The 2000 season proved pivotal to the Cardinals' franchise.

An October coaching change promoted then-defensive coordinator Dave McGinnis to interim head coach, replacing Vince Tobin after four and one-half seasons. Eight weeks later, McGinnis was named the franchise's permanent head coach.

Election Day, November 7, 2000, fell in between. Voters in Maricopa County passed Proposition 302, the Tourism and Sports Initiative, to help fund a new stadium for the Cardinals, Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, and future Super Bowls, in addition to providing revenue for Cactus League spring training baseball, tourism, and youth recreation. The 454,785 "yes" votes spelled a plurality of 33,123 votes (51.89 percent).

The team's new home is scheduled to open in 2004!

The list of former Cardinals enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame reached 14 in 1996 when former offensive lineman Dan Dierdorf joined the elite group. The University of Michigan product, currently a CBS-TV NFL color analyst, played every down of his illustrious 13-year (1971–83) career as a Cardinal.

The others are Charles Bidwill, Guy Chamberlin, Conzelman, Driscoll, Kiesling, Curly Lambeau, Dick "Night Train" Lane, Ollie Matson, Nevers, Jackie Smith, Jim Thorpe, Trippi, and Larry Wilson, who currently serves the Cardinals as a vice president. ■

A Cardinal "Biggie"

It was voiced as a strong statement of belief and was echoed by others in quick agreement.

"The fact that Marshall Goldberg isn't in the Hall of Fame is absurd," said long-time Chicago sportswriter Bill Gleason in mid-1997.

The venerable Windy City journalist didn't have to wait long for supportive corroboration from a host of former Chicago Cardinals players whose sentiments ran equally as strong.

"Goldberg certainly should be in there," remembers Cardinals two-time all-pro end Mal Kutner. "He was a great player, of course, and he could play any position. He was a good offensive back and good defensive back."

"My three guys I'd like to see in the Hall of Fame?" Chet Bulger, a star tackle on the Cardinals' 1947 world championship team, wondered out loud. "Goldberg, Kutner, and (center Vince) Banonis. We beat the Chicago Bears at least once each year from 1945–48. Nine Bears are in the Hall of Fame; only one of our guys, (Charlie) Trippi, is in!"

Versatile Marshall "Biggie" Goldberg was one of the great two-way players in NFL history at running back and defensive back.

Accolades were nothing new to the young Goldberg, a Cardinal rookie in 1939. He just had completed a stupendous collegiate career at Pittsburgh under iconic Head Coach Jock Sutherland, where Goldberg was a two-time consensus all-America and Heisman Trophy runner-up in 1938. He was a member of Pitt's "Dream Backfield" and would earn that same distinction again in future years with the Cardinals. He had played in, and won, a Rose Bowl game. Even the grandest sportswriter in the nation, the immortal Grantland Rice, had rhapsodized about Goldberg after the youth's stunning 1936 performance against Notre Dame.

"The main factor that led to Notre Dame's downfall," began Rice, "was a young sophomore by the name of Marshall Goldberg from West Virginia. Goldberg celebrated his 18th birthday yesterday. … There were many occasions when it took three or four South Bend tacklers to bring him down."

In Goldberg's three years at Pitt, not once did the Irish come away with a win.

With that personal portfolio, the former Panther star prowled into the Windy City to play the pro game. The Cardinals were debuting a new head coach — the fabled Ernie Nevers — in '39, and an uncommon air of optimism hung brightly over Chicago's South Side.

What unfolded instead was a dismally long 1–10 season in which the highly-touted Goldberg never got untracked. Most observers felt the fall was due in large part to an unimaginative offense engineered by the stubborn and relentless Nevers.

"He was a wonderful guy," recalls Goldberg today at age 83, "but his coaching was 'do what I do,' then he'd show how he would do it. But some of those guys couldn't do it. When we had practice, why, he'd take the ball and say, 'This is the way you do it.' And that just didn't get it done."

While that may have been true to that point, it was the addition of a new weapon to his arsenal that enabled Goldberg to have a breakout year in '41. He began throwing, catching virtually every opponent off guard with his left-handed tosses. After the first three games of the season, he had completed five of six passes for 100 yards and one touchdown. He also had caught two long scoring passes of 58 and 76 yards, though the first was in a non-league game against Johnny Blood's

Kenosha Cardinals.

Through the early part of the season, amazingly, Goldberg would lead the NFL in no less than four statistical categories!

"I got off to a great start for about the first five or six games," recalls Goldberg. "I was feeling pretty good."

Opponents would find it difficult to argue. Goldberg topped the list in punt returns, kickoff returns, rushing, and interceptions. In the entire history of the NFL, only three men—Sammy Baugh, Bill Dudley, and Steve Van Buren—have achieved statistical triple crowns, and all are in the Hall of Fame. Goldberg eventually wound up leading the league at season's end in two categories—interceptions and kickoff returns, finishing third in rushing.

But his great individual season in '41 was followed by two disheartening campaigns, during which the Cardinals won a total of just three games. Because he was married, Goldberg was exempt from the military during World War II.

"I felt so badly my brothers were in the service and I wasn't," he says, "I got appointed to the Navy Seals (1944–45), but I was the one who instigated it. I put myself out of football."

Marshall Goldberg, right, signs his first professional contract under the watchful eye of Cardinal owner Charles Bidwill, a future NFL Hall of Famer.

Upon rejoining the Cardinals after the war, things were in flux and, of course, Goldberg was a big part of it. Gleason points to a Goldberg defensive gem as the key turning point in the franchise's history—the play that reversed the Cardinals' losing ways—in the sixth game of the 1946 season against the visiting Los Angeles Rams.

"A helluva running back named Kenny Washington (the first African-American, along with Woody Strode, in the modern-day NFL) burst down the sideline," recalls Gleason. "He encountered Marshall. Washington put a couple moves on Goldberg, and Goldberg doesn't move a muscle. When Kenny was through faking, Marshall hit him. Washington fumbled, the Cardinals recovered, went in to score, and won that game (34–10). Right away I thought, 'We've really got something here. We're gonna have a team that might contend for the league championship.'"

Goldberg remembers the play, explaining, "He (Washington) didn't think I was going to touch him. And that's what surprised him. I came up and under him, and the ball popped right out of his arms. I just watched his hips until he got over to where I was, and then I laid it on him."

Another milestone highlighted that '46 campaign. Goldberg's first winning season with Chicago since joining the club in '39. Against the crosstown arch-rival Bears in the final game of the year, Goldberg took a handoff on the Bears' 32-yard line.

"It was right down the middle," he says, "right down the middle. It was the funniest thing. I think they were taken by surprise. It was a trap play, and I side stepped a few fellas. A couple of men were out of position and were trying to scramble back. I just stepped one side to the other, right down the middle, and it went for a touchdown."

Goldberg claims seven tackles were broken on the play. The scoring run reportedly converted Cardinals' owner Charles Bidwill into a fan of his own team—a seemingly preposterous contention, but one more easily understood when made aware he had been raised since boyhood a devout Bears fan. Bidwill's one-time fickle support of his Cardinals notwithstanding, Goldberg counts him as one of the two men he was devoted to during his playing days.

"The other was Jock Sutherland," he says. "Everything I did, I wanted to look good in their eyes. And I fought to do that every time I got on the field."

The following year, the Cardinals reached the pinnacle of pro football supremacy, winning their first and only NFL championship game in a scintillating display of offense against the Philadelphia Eagles at Comiskey Park.

Goldberg played his first full-time campaign at safety in 1947. His contributions, though now on the other side of the ball, continued to mount. His game-saving interception in the waning moments of the title game preserved the 28–21 win for Chicago.

In 1948, the Cardinals repeated as Western Division champions with a magnificent 11–1 worksheet, but in the howling blizzard of Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium, Chicago was muffled by snow and the Eagles, 7-0, in the championship game.

Goldberg called it quits for good after that '48 season, giving his complete attention to the heavy machinery business, a field he had begun working in during the mid-1940s. By 1950, he would own the company that gave him his start, renaming it Goldberg-Emerman.

"I was doing a lot of international machinery trading," he recounts. "I became a consultant to Toyota for four years and was traveling all over the world. I finally retired in 1996."

Life has not been without its struggles for Goldberg the past several years. For the second time in his life, he contracted cancer.

"The chemotherapy knocked the hell out of me," he admits, but he has employed a special weapon in his comeback to regain full health.

"I have a wonderful wife," he glows. Rita Goldberg trains the Cardinal legend and works out every day with him.

"She's terrific," Goldberg adds with understandable pride.

They called him "Biggie," a handle he'd had since childhood, and one journalist once lyrically described him running in the open field "with all the abandon of a typhoon on a holiday."

He is one of only four Cardinal players in franchise history to have his jersey number retired, but he's never forgotten the doctrine of hard work that made each game a mission nor the mentor that molded him into the great player he became.

When asked to name the biggest highlight of his career, Goldberg responds he doesn't have one. Instead he offers with sincerity, "I try to do my job, and if I do my job, that's it, I'm satisfied with it.

"Jock once said, 'If I had a son, I'd like him to be like Marshall Goldberg.'"

The tone warms unmistakably in his voice at the remembrance, adding, "That was it for me. My hero."■

An Uncommon Day

It's not unusual to experience a quick succession of events only to recall a blur in hindsight.

In the fast-paced business of block and tackle known as the National Football League, return men top the list in fuzzy memories among position players, but it's an understandable part of simply doing a job successfully.

Two timeless blurs in Cardinals return annals had the distinction of being recorded on the same afternoon in an uncommon display of gridiron phenomena 55 years ago.

On Sunday, October 14, 1956 against the Washington Redskins at creaky old Griffith Stadium, one-time home to baseball's Washington Senators as well as host field for the Washington Redskins from 1937–60, the Chicago Cardinals' Frank Bernardi broke Phil Sarboe's 21-year-old club mark (88 yards vs. N.Y. Giants, 1935) with a 95-yard punt return that remains the longest in Cardinal history.

Later in that same game, Hall of Fame running back Ollie Matson's 105-yard end zone-to-end zone kickoff return equalled the NFL record of another ex-Cardinal, Frank Seno, established 10 years earlier. Their record distance, which has been equalled by eight other NFL players, now ranks second behind three 106-yard returns, including Cardinal Roy Green (Oct. 21, 1979 vs. Dallas).

The blur syndrome was in full effect for both players that afternoon.

"I caught the ball, started up, went over to the right, then down the sideline," Bernardi recalls today of his record-setting first-quarter punt return. "It was a blur until I crossed the goal line."

Matson's memory of his third-quarter kickoff return brought a similar description.

"I had to catch it deep in the end zone," he says, "but that's about all I can remember about it."

What Matson did was motor through Redskin defenders, bolt to his left, and dodge kicker Norb Hecker's last-gasp dive at the Washington 35-yard line before sprinting into the end zone.

"That was it," he says.

The marvel of both return marks being either set or tied on the same afternoon is a statistical rarity.

The oddity of Matson's club record-tying return, matching Seno's jaunt against the New York Giants on October 20, 1947, is it occurred just seven days after Green Bay's Al Carmichael registered a 106-yard kickoff return against the Chicago Bears that Green and Kansas City's Noland Smith (1967) since have accomplished.

Ironically, though tied by several others in the past 45 years, Matson's 105-yard return still is the second longest in NFL history but it's only tied for second in Cardinals annals.

Running back Frank Bernardi's 95-yard punt return for a touchdown against the Washington Redskins on October 14, 1956 at old Griffith Stadium set the Cardinals' still-standing record. The return, which broke a 21-year old team record, has stood unassaulted for 45 years.

For Matson, it was simply all in a day's work.

"My philosophy was, hey, I was just doing my job," he recalls.

Few Chicago Cardinals partisans expected a blowout 31–3 victory that afternoon, but contrary to previous team performance standards, the club was off to an unheard of 3–0 start, a feat accomplished only one other time in Cardinals' history since the middle 1920s, the championship season of 1947!

It wasn't too early to begin talk of the impossible—a December "subway" showdown for the NFL championship—between the arch-rival Chicago Bears who also led their division.

Matson still giggles at that outlandish possibility and what it would have meant to Windy City fans.

"Oh, that would have been it!" he remembers.

A crosstown title match failed to materialize, but the Cardinals registered their only winning campaign (7–5) of the 1950s.

Matson arrived in Chicago as the Cardinals' first pick of the 1952 NFL Draft. In an unrelated but unusual occurrence, Matson's collegiate coach at the University of San Francisco, former Cardinals' lineman Joe Kuharich (1940–41, '45), was simultaneously named the new head coach of the Cardinals.

In only his second game as a pro, Matson swept into the hearts of Chicago's South Siders looking for a rebirth of the team that just five years before had been NFL champions. Serving coming-superstar notice against the Bears, Matson scored three touchdowns in a 21–10 win at Comiskey Park, two on long returns—a 94-yard punt return and a 96-yard kickoff return.

Big Red fans were exultant. A new era appeared about to dawn.

Displaying his versatility on the field throughout that first season, Matson, not surprisingly, made all-pro—as a defensive back.

"Charley Trippi was still playing," Matson explains of his first-year move to the secondary.

Matson's defensive skills already were well known to Kuharich, who had played his multi-talented star both ways in college at San Francisco.

But Matson was notified he would be inducted into the military. He missed the entire 1953 season.

Chicago's "no. 33" resumed his all-pro ways in 1954, becoming synonymous with poetry in motion, according to teammate Bernardi.

"We're spectators, too," he says. "Ollie was such a beautiful runner. He had such a great stride to him. It was effortless; he almost started at top speed the first step or two. He would just kind of explode out of there. You just watched him in awe."

Bernardi and Matson occasionally would team as the deep return men on punts, a terrifying tandem. Matson at one time was the NFL career leader in combined returns for touchdowns (nine total—three punt returns, six kickoff returns).

Future Hall of Famer Ollie Matson shared the spotlight with Bernardi with a 105-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in the same game.

"It was fun," Bernardi says of the art of returning punts. "It's a matter of survival. You're almost fighting for your life. You have to love to do it. There's a fine line of when you're going to accept the ball and when you're not. It's a hard thing to judge, because you're supposed to keep your eye on the ball until it's in your hands. You hear a lot of huffin' and puffin' coming down on you. The big difference between our era and today is that we never had the "halo" rule. You get a little adrenaline rush, and that's what's exciting about it."

While Bernardi was starring as a collegian at Colorado, Matson was in full glory in another athletic arena, on a major international stage—the 1952 Olympic Games at Helsinki, Finland. As a track dashman, Matson earned a bronze medal in the 400-meter dash and a silver medallion as part of the United States' 1600-meter relay team.

One of his great personal recollections surfaced around those games.

"I had promised my mom in 1948, after Jesse Owens had made all that money running against horses in exhibitions, that we were going to make the boat. I said, 'Mom, we're going on the boat — to Helsinki, Finland (for the '52 Olympics),' not realizing we would fly at that time. But we went on over there. It was really just tremendous. That's one moment I will never forget."

Matson, oddly, may likely be remembered more for his presence in one of pro football's all-time blockbuster trades than for his auspicious career numbers and multi-faceted brilliance on the playing field.

In 1959, the Los Angeles Rams, then guided by a young general manager named Pete Rozelle, the eventual NFL commissioner, who even more coincidentally happened to be the publicity man at the University of San Francisco when Matson was in college, engineered a trade for the four-time all-pro running back, yielding nine players to the Cardinals as compensation for their star.

"It was a great feeling," Matson remembers.

"When he first went there, Pete had told the Rams, 'Get Matson.' They said, 'We'll get him, but we'll take him on the third round (of the '52 draft)'. Pete said, 'Oh, no, he won't be there then.'"

Matson played four years for the Rams before heading to Detroit for one season, finally finishing his 14-year career with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1964–66. After coaching at both the high school and college levels, he became commissioner of the Los Angeles Coliseum.

Now retired, he is the last player in NFL annals named all-pro on both offense and defense during his career.

Matson also was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1972.

Bernardi played four seasons with the Chicago Cardinals before injuring his knee late in the 1958 season. Unable to recover sufficiently, he was cut in '59 but became one of the original Denver Broncos in 1960, the inaugural season of the American Football League. That meant a move back to Colorado, an act not without appreciation within the Bernardi family.

"My kids thank me almost every day," he says of the exhilarating life in the Rockies.

Though now retired, Bernardi spent over 27 years in brokerage and investments after his playing days, the last 17 with the former Colorado National Bank.

For one memorable afternoon in the fall of 1956, Ollie Matson and Frank Bernardi dazzled brightly on their respective special teams, collectively combining to shake up the Cardinals' record books with something akin to a blur.

"You're just trying to avoid people," Bernardi says of his former craft. "You really don't recall anything until you review it on film the next Monday." ■

Notes

NFL approves Cards' move from Chicago to St. Louis on March 13 ... team plays in 34,000-seat Sportsman's Park ... with no regular practice site, the team practices at an open field at a city park ... running back John David Crow breaks Ollie Matson's single-season rushing mark with 1,071 yards ... Crow sets franchise single-game mark that stood for 35 years with 203 yards vs. Pittsburgh on Dec. 18 ... Cards lead NFL in rushing with 2,356 yards (196.3 yards per game) and in rushing defense allowing 1,212 yards (101 yards per game) ... defense also leads league, allowing 252.4 yards per game, 158 first downs, and just 56 first downs rushing ... wide receiver Sonny Randle leads NFL with club-record 15 touchdowns receiving on 62 receptions ... little-known Utah halfback Larry Wilson, selected in seventh round of draft, converts to safety due to injuries.

Notes

Cards sign decade-long CFL passing leader Sam Etcheverry and trade quarterback John Roach for running back Prentice Gautt and wide receiver Taz Anderson ... Gautt and Anderson enjoy productive Cardinal careers ... Etcheverry, who passed for 30,381 yards and 183 touchdowns in nine seasons for the Montreal Alouettes, hurts his arm in training camp ... coupled with running back John David Crow's broken ankle, Cards finish 7–7 ... Head Coach Frank "Pop" Ivy resigns with two games remaining ... Cards win both remaining contests as assistants Chuck Drulis, Ray Prochaska, and Ray Willsey take over ... during the season, Drulis and his prize pupil, second-year safety Larry Wilson, perfected the safety blitz.

Notes

After a 1–3 start, Cards roll to 8–1–1 mark in the final 10 contests to finish 9–4–1 ... punter/defensive back Chuck Latourette sets NFL mark with 46 kickoff returns for 1,237 yards ... Cards' 22 rushing touchdowns most since 1949 ... Cards send nine players to the Pro Bowl, including four of the five starting offensive linemen—center Bob DeMarco, guards Irv Goode and Ken Gray, and tackle Ernie McMillan ... the fifth lineman—tackle Bob Reynolds—is named in '67 and again in '69 ... tight end Jackie Smith, in addition to catching 49 passes for a 16.1-yard average, perfects the end-around play, averaging 13.6 yards on 12 carries (163 yards) with three touchdowns (36, 34, 11 yards).

Notes

Injuries decimate the team as 11 players undergo surgery ... Cards limp to 4–9–1 mark as offense manages just 193 points, lowest since 1954 (183) ... defense is particularly hobbled by injuries, allowing team-record 389 points that will stand for 15 seasons ... safety Larry Wilson sets team mark with 88-yard fumble return for a touchdown at Green Bay on Dec. 21 that stands until 2000 ... Cards and Saints combine for NFL-record 12 touchdown passes in 51–42 New Orleans victory in Busch Stadium on Nov. 2 ... the combined 93 points is just 10 shy of the all-time NFL combined scoring mark as quarterbacks Charley Johnson (Cardinals) and Billy Kilmer (Saints) each toss six touchdown passes to set Card individual and opponent marks.

Notes

Bob Hollway named head coach ... Cards draft cornerback Norm Thompson, offensive lineman Dan Dierdorf, and wide receiver Mel Gray ... Thompson will start for seven seasons, Dierdorf becomes six-time Pro Bowler and member of Pro Football Hall of Fame, and Gray logs 12 seasons, highlighted by a stretch of catching a pass in 121 consecutive games from 1973–82 ... Eagles' kicker Tom Dempsey sets then Card opponent record with 54-yard field goal on Dec. 12 ... Gray completes rookie season with eye-popping averages of 28 yards on two rushing attempts, 29.7 yards on 18 pass receptions with four touchdowns, and 24.7 yards on 30 kickoff returns.

Notes

Former Don Coryell assistant Jim Hanifan returns to St. Louis as head coach ... Cards finish 5–11 ... future Hall of Famer Dan Dierdorf returns from reconstructive knee surgery to start all 16 games at right tackle and earn a sixth trip to the Pro Bowl ... punter Larry Swider sets Cardinal single-season mark with 99 punts ... Card defense ties NFL mark with 12 quarterback sacks at Baltimore on Oct. 26 ... 330 rushing yards at New Orleans on Oct. 5 establish club single-game record ... after six games, 1978 first-round draft choice kicker Steve Little is released and is involved in auto accident that results in disabling injuries and permanent confinement to a wheelchair.

Notes

The 1981 draft class includes Alabama linebacker E.J. Junior (first round), Portland State quarterback Neil Lomax (second round), and Citadel running back Stump Mitchell (ninth round), a trio that would combine for 26 seasons with the Cards ... all three earn consensus NFL all-rookie team notice ... Lomax named starter for final six games as Cards win four consecutive times to finish 7–9 ... return specialist Mitchell breaks or ties eight club marks and ties two NFL records ... Roy Green doubles as defensive back and wide receiver as the league's first authentic two-way player in more than two decades.

Notes

A second consecutive jackpot draft class of UCLA tackle Luis Sharpe (first round), Florida tackle David Galloway (second round), Alabama safety Benny Perrin (third round), and East Tennessee State fullback Earl Ferrell (fifth round) will average over eight years per player, all four earning near-immediate starting roles ... Cards become youngest team in NFL to qualify for the Super Bowl tournament in strike-shortened season with 5–4 record ... NFL players walk out after second game of the season due to labor strike on Sept. 19 ... play does not resume until Nov. 21 ... Cards lose 41–16 at Green Bay in first-round action as Card quarterback Neil Lomax sets league postseason record with 385 yards passing.

Notes

After losing five of first six games, Cards rebound with 7–2–1 mark in final 10 contests and narrowly miss playoffs with 8–7–1 record ... in first full season at wide receiver, Roy Green establishes team records with 78 pass receptions for 1,227 yards to earn all-pro acclaim ... defensive end Curtis Greer sets team record with 16 quarterback sacks as Cards lead NFL with 59 traps ... Cards and N.Y. Giants play to 20–20 tie on nationally-televised "Monday Night Football" game remembered for three missed overtime field-goal attempts by Card kicker Neil O'Donoghue ... future Hall of Famer Dan Dierdorf announces his retirement after 12 seasons, 160 games, and six Pro Bowls ... St. Louis (nine) and Kansas City (six) combine for 15 turnovers, two shy of the NFL record, in 38–14 Chiefs' win on Oct. 2 ... Cards lose 28–10 to Minnesota during preseason game on Aug. 6 in London's Wembley Stadium, the first NFL game in England.

Notes

The Cards, with the NFC Eastern Division title on line to the winner, travel to R.F.K. Stadium and battle back from a 23–7 halftime deficit to take a 27–26 lead midway through fourth quarter, but a 50-yard field-goal try sails wide as time expires and Redskins escape with a 29–27 win and the division crown ... in the torrid comeback at Washington, quarterback Neil Lomax connects on 25 of 28 passes for 314 yards in the second half ... Cards finish 9–7 with seven losses by an average of just over six points ... Lomax sets club single-season marks with 345 pass completions in 560 attempts for 4,614 yards (fifth highest in NFL history), 28 touchdowns, and 92.5 quarterback rating ... wide receiver Roy Green's 1,555 receiving yards is most by NFL player in 19 seasons as he averages 45.3 yards per touchdown reception.

Notes

Though a 3–1 start looks promising, the Cards win only two of their final 12 contests to finish 5–11, spelling the end of Jim Hanifan's six-year (1980–85) tenure as head coach ... with former all-pro running back Ottis Anderson injured, Stump Mitchell averages 96.9 yards rushing in final nine games en route to 1,006 yards and a 5.5-yard average per carry despite starting just eight contests ... quarterback Neil Lomax is sacked NFC-high 61 times ... Yugoslavian kicker Novo Bojovic, signed by the Cards during mid-season, kicks a 40-yard field goal to give the Cards a 3–0 first-quarter lead Nov. 24 vs. N.Y. Giants, chases down the football, spikes it in the end zone, then watches with teammates as Giants score 34 unanswered points in 34–3 defeat at the Meadowlands.

Notes

Encouragement from 4–0 preseason record and 2–0 start to regular season quickly dissipates as Cards drop 12 of next 14 games to finish 4–12, the most losses in franchise history ... quarterback Timm Rosenbach suffers ruptured anterior cruciate ligament in right knee in non-contact drill during evening practice on Aug. 21 and misses season after reconstructive surgery ... Cards gamble in first round of NFL Draft by selecting defensive tackle Eric Swann despite no college playing experience ... little-known Southern University walk-on cornerback Aeneas Williams, picked in third round, starts 15 of 16 games and his six interceptions share the NFC lead, making him the first rookie cornerback to achieve the feat since the Cowboys' Everson Walls (11) in 1991 ... linebacker Eric Hill returns a fumble 85 yards for a touchdown in season opener at L.A. Rams on Sept. 1, one of a team-record five Card fumble recoveries.

Notes

Despite considerable improvement on both offense and defense, Cards lose six games by six points or less to post a second consecutive 4–12 season ... defense allows fewest rushing yards (1,635) in 24 seasons (1,558, 1968) and fewest points (332) since 1978 (296) ... cornerback Robert Massey becomes 17th player in NFL history to return two interceptions for touchdowns in one game (31 and 41 yards in fourth quarter Oct. 4 vs. Washington) ... Pro Bowl punter Rich Camarillo narrowly misses becoming the first player in NFL history to achieve a 40-yard net punting average with a 39.6-yard net mark.

Notes

A 5–3 record and three consecutive victories to finish season 7–9 are not enough to save Head Coach Joe Bugel's job ... rushing offense improves from 26th (1992) to sixth overall and scoring jumps from 24th to fourth ... defensively, six opponents held to 10 points or less, a Cardinal first since 1936 ... first-round draft pick Garrison Hearst suffers season-ending knee injury in sixth game ... Pittsburg (Kan.) State rookie running back Ronald Moore rushes for 1,018 yards and leads all NFL rookies with nine touchdowns ... Moore becomes only fifth rookie in NFL history to tally four rushing touchdowns in one game (vs. L.A. Rams, Dec. 5) ... franchise-record crowd of 73,025 sees Cards lose 17–10 to Dallas on Sept. 19 ... Cards snap 14-game losing streak at R.F.K. Stadium with a 17–10 victory on Sept. 12, their first success at Washington since 1978.

Notes

Improvement from 4–12 to 7–9 record, underscored by an offense that jumps from 24th to 12th and a defense from 26th to 21st, highlight Vince Tobin's first season as head coach … running back LeShon Johnson bursts for runs of 56 and 70 yards on Sept. 22 at New Orleans—believed to be the longest touchdown runs on consecutive carries in NFL history—en route to franchise single-game rushing mark of 214 yards … quarterback Boomer Esiason passes for 522 yards (third most in league history) in 37–34 overtime win at R.F.K. Stadium against Redskins on Nov. 10 … 0–8 N.Y. Jets secure the only victory of their 1–15 season with 31–21 win over Arizona on Oct. 27 … first-round draft pick Illinois defensive end Simeon Rice sets Cardinal mark and equals then league rookie record with 12.5 quarterback sacks.

Notes

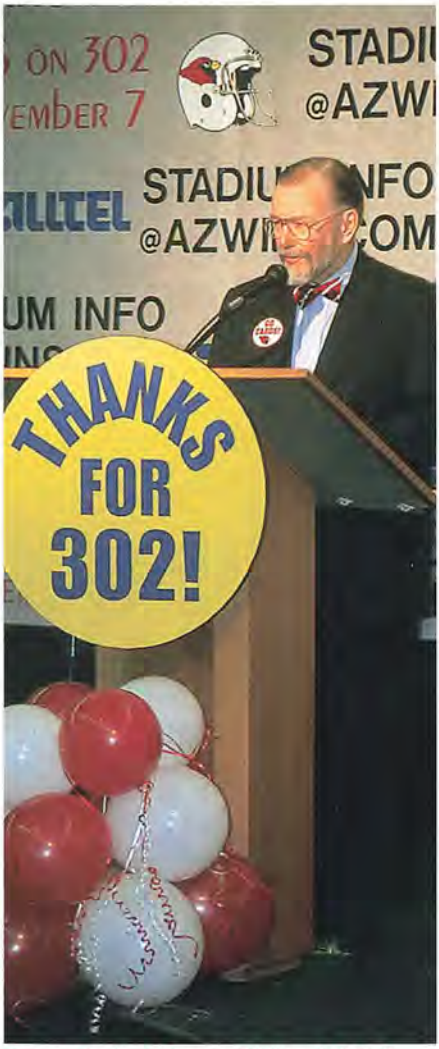
Defensive coordinator Dave McGinnis replaces head coach Vince Tobin on an interim basis after seven games ... McGinnis is named permanent head coach Dec. 18 prior to the season finale ... Maricopa County voters approve funding for a new multi-purpose stadium for the Cardinals, the Fiesta Bowl, and future Super Bowls on Election Day, November 7 ... injuries decimate the Cards' ranks with 109 starter games lost by injuries to 17 players ... fewest victories and lowest winning percentage since 1959 ... cornerback Aeneas Williams concludes season by appearing in his 160th consecutive game, the longest streak by a position player in franchise history ... he also authors a 104-yard fumble return for a touchdown Nov. 5 vs. Washington, equalling the NFL record of Oakland's Jack Tatum (1972) ... safety Pat Tillman (224) and middle linebacker Ronald McKinnon (208) become the first pair of Cards to crack 200 total tackles in one season ... McKinnon also becomes the first Cardinal to register 200-plus total tackles in consecutive seasons ... MarTay Jenkins sets NFL single-season records with 82 kickoff returns for 2,186 yards ... Jenkins also posts the Cards' first kickoff return for a touchdown in 21 years (Roy Green, 1979) Nov. 12 at Minnesota ... long-snapper Trey Junkin, 39, climbs to eighth place on the NFL's all-time games played list with 16 appearances that raise his career total to 265 games ... Frank Sanders equals fellow wide receiver Bobby Joe Conrad for fifth place on the Cards' all-time receiving list (749) ... wide receiver David Boston authors seven of Arizona's 10 longest plays from scrimmage, including the top four—receptions of 70 (touchdown), 63, 56, and 56 (touchdown) yards ... quarterback Jake Plummer becomes the fastest Cardinal to 10,000 career passing yards in his 47th NFL game Nov. 5 vs. Washington ... he also logs his 12th career comeback Sept. 10 vs. Dallas ... punter Scott Player is the Cards' only Pro Bowler ... tight end Chris Gedney becomes the first professional team-sport athlete to resume his playing career following dual surgeries for ulcerative colitis.



Arizona Cardinals President William V. Bidwill thanks voters at a rally following the passage of Proposition 302 on Election Day, 2000. The measure will help fund the new Arizona Cardinals Stadium that will become the Cards' new home in 2004.

Overtime Games (12–10–2)

Cardinals 20, Eagles 17

December 13, 1998 ■ Veterans Stadium (62,176)

The Cardinals returned to .500 and earned their first two-game season sweep against the Eagles since 1984 with their first December road win in four years (30–12 at Houston, Dec. 4, 1994). After Arizona took a quick 10–0 first-quarter lead on a 28-yard opening-drive Chris Jacke field goal and strong safety Tommy Bennett's 70-yard interception return for a touchdown, the Cardinals repeatedly were poised to take command of the contest, but continually misfired, going scoreless on five drives that reached the Eagles' 33- (third-down quarterback sack), 12- (fumble), 11- (fourth-down tackle for loss), 27- (third-down quarterback sack), and 17-yard lines (missed field goal), respectively. The Cards used a 43-carry, 204-yard rushing attack to keep their injury-depleted defense off the field. Running back Adrian Murrell led the ground assault with his Cardinal-high 174-yard effort on 32 carries. Quarterback Jake Plummer recorded his seventh career fourth-quarter/overtime comeback victory by completing eight of 10 passes for 119 yards and a touchdown after Philadelphia took its first and only lead at 17–10 early in the fourth quarter on a 26-yard touchdown pass. On the Cards' final three possessions, Plummer drove Arizona 66 yards in 10 plays to tie the score at 17–17 with a nine-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Rob Moore, positioned the Cardinals at Philadelphia's 17-yard line for a missed 34-yard field-goal attempt with 11 seconds remaining in regulation, and directed the Cards 58 yards to the Eagles' 14-yard line on the first nine plays of overtime to set the table for Jacke's 32-yard game-winning field goal. The final march principally was the work of two clutch completions to Moore, the first for 30 yards, the other for 16 yards in the face of a third-and-eight Philadelphia blitz. Moore gained 109 receiving yards on seven catches, his second 100-yard game of the season and the 21st of his career. Larry Centers' second reception raised his career total to 523, breaking Roy Green's franchise career receiving record of 522.

Steelers 26, Cardinals 20

November 30, 1997 ■ Sun Devil Stadium (64,322)

Like two boxers, the Steelers and Cardinals traded scores throughout an exciting turnover-free contest that was Arizona's fourth overtime outing of the season and Pittsburgh's first victory in four trips to Sun Devil Stadium. The tilt also was Arizona's sixth setback in eight games decided in the final minute or overtime. Pittsburgh's relentless running game that accumulated 177 rushing yards was fueled by battering ram Jerome Bettis, who rushed for Card opponent single-game and season bests of 142 yards on 36 carries and three touchdowns, including the overtime game-winner, a 10-yard rumble that climaxed the Steelers' only overtime possession, a five-play, 52-yard drive that took just 2:51. Pittsburgh's run game also led to a lopsided 39:22–26:12 time-of-possession advantage. The stout Steeler defense posted 10 quarterback sacks to set a Cardinal opponent record and equal Pittsburgh's mark, limited Arizona to 48 yards rushing, and stopped the Cardinals nine times in 11 third-down conversion attempts. Card rookie quarterback Jake Plummer's 12-for-17, 217-yard second-half passing performance rallied Arizona, first to a 20–20 deadlock with 4:20 to play on Joe Nedney's second field goal, a 19-yarder, then to an opportunity to win on the next possession, a 59-yard, eight-play drive to Pittsburgh's 28-yard line that ended when Nedney missed a 46-yard game-winning field-goal attempt with 11 seconds remaining. Wide receiver Rob Moore padded his NFL-leading receiving yardage total to 1,348 yards with eight receptions for 188 yards. The Cardinal offense recorded its first multiple-touchdown effort in four games, while the Arizona defense failed to record a turnover for the third consecutive week. Bettis notched his ninth 100-yard rushing effort of the season, while Cardinal rushers failed to reach 100 rushing yards for the 25th straight time, the NFL high.

Eagles 13, Cardinals 10

October 19, 1997 ■ Veterans Stadium (66,860)

Arizona's unimaginable run of close losses continued at Philadelphia where the Eagles handed the Cardinals a 13–10 overtime setback, the Cards' second loss in three overtime contests and their fifth defeat in the final minute or overtime. The Cardinals' offense, behind first-time starting quarterback Stoney Case, sputtered to a scoreless first half despite excellent field position. (Arizona began its first three possessions at its own 48 and 42-yard lines and the Eagles' 42 without scoring.) Four of the Cards' seven first-half possessions gained one yard or less; Arizona gained only 80 total net yards in the opening stanza. New kicker Joe Nedney cut the Eagles' advantage to 7–3 with a 23-yard field goal early in the third quarter. The tight-vested affair became a sparring match the rest of the way with neither side scoring in the game's ensuing five possessions. Rookie Jake Plummer replaced Case at 10:26 of the fourth quarter with the ball on the Cards' two-yard line. In his first NFL action, Plummer drove the Cardinals 98 yards in 14 plays, capping the drive with a 31-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Kevin Williams, giving Arizona a 10–7 lead with 3:07 to play. It was Williams' first touchdown reception as a Cardinal. A 38-yard Chris Boniol field goal with 26 seconds left sent the game into overtime. Plummer had the Cardinals on the march again with the opening possession of overtime, reaching Arizona's 42-yard line before an intentional grounding penalty led to a punt three plays later. Philadelphia then drove 73 yards in six plays to set the table for Boniol's 24-yard game-winning field goal. Arizona enjoyed a turnover advantage for only the second time in seven outings with two interceptions and two fumble recoveries against just one lost fumble. Wide receiver Rob Moore posted his fourth 100-yard receiving game (6–101), his career single-season high. Defensive end Simeon Rice recorded his first NFL interception.

Redskins 19, Cardinals 13

September 14, 1997 ■ Jack Kent Cooke Stadium (78,270)

A capacity crowd at the inaugural game at Jack Kent Cooke Stadium, the Redskins' new home, witnessed a defensive struggle the two old rivals took into overtime for the second consecutive time at Washington. Both offenses sputtered, combining to gain only 562 total net yards, committing three turnovers, converting just 11 of 37 third-down attempts, posting 18 possessions of four plays or less, and punting 17 times. The Cardinals took a 7–3 first-quarter lead when J.J. McCleskey blocked a Redskin punt and Tommy Bennett fell on the ball in the Redskin end zone. The play marked the Cards' first touchdown on a blocked punt in 25 years (Norm Thompson vs. Pittsburgh, Oct. 1, 1972). A five-yard touchdown reception by the Redskins' Michael Westbrook and a 32-yard Kevin Butler field goal deadlocked the game until late in the fourth quarter when the Redskins drove 75 yards in 15 plays to take a 13–10 lead with 1:13 to play on a 19-yard Scott Blanton field goal. The Cardinals then drove 37 yards in eight plays following Kevin Williams' 22-yard kickoff return to set the table for a 47-yard game-tying field goal with two seconds to play by Butler, who beat the Redskins twice in 1996 with last-play three-pointers. After winning the overtime coin toss, the Cardinals' Leeland McElroy fumbled on Arizona's second play from scrimmage. Two plays later, pressured Washington quarterback Gus Frerotte found a stumbling Westbrook with a 40-yard touchdown pass to end the game.

Cardinals 25, Cowboys 22

September 7, 1997 ■ Sun Devil Stadium (70,060)

One week after watching a 21–3 lead evaporate into a 24–21 defeat at Cincinnati, the Cardinals reversed roles to storm from behind and earn their first home-opening victory since arriving in Arizona in 1988, a triumph that also snapped the Cowboys' 13-game series winning streak. Trailing 22–3 in the third quarter after allowing one defensive touchdown by Dallas and five field goals by Cowboy kicker Richie Cunningham, Arizona quarterback Kent Graham led the furious rally with two touchdown passes—seven yards to wide receiver Frank Sanders and one yard to tight end Pat Carter. The latter pulled the Cards within two points with 1:06 to play. Wide receiver Rob Moore, whose 47-yard reception keyed the eight-play, 70-yard drive leading to Carter's touchdown, knotted the game with a two-point conversion reception from Graham. After trading overtime fumbles, the Cardinals needed only five plays—highlighted by completions of 19 and 29 yards to Moore and fullback Larry Centers, respectively—to position kicker Kevin Butler for his 20-yard field goal that glanced off the left upright. It was the 16th game-winning three-pointer of Butler's career. The victory was Arizona's fourth straight in overtime and the third under Head Coach Vince Tobin. It also was Arizona's best second-half comeback since overcoming Washington's 21–6 lead in the Cards' 27–24 success on Oct. 4, 1992, and marked the first time Arizona held Dallas without an offensive touchdown since the first 1990 meeting.

Cardinals 37, Redskins 34

November 10, 1996 ■ R.F.K. Stadium (51,929)

The Cardinals rode a record-setting passing effort by quarterback Boomer Esiason to shock NFC East Division-leading Washington in overtime. Esiason's personal best 522 passing yards were the third most prolific total in NFL history while also setting Cardinal and Redskin opponent single-game records. Arizona's defense came to the rescue, too, holding Washington pointless following all five Cardinal turnovers. New Cardinal kicker Kevin Butler, signed five days earlier, sealed the pulsating victory with his third field goal, a 32-yarder, after he and Redskin kicker Scott Blanton traded overtime misses. The Cards were sledding uphill throughout the second half after Washington snapped the 13–13 halftime tie with two third-quarter touchdowns. A one-yard Larry Centers touchdown plunge cut the deficit to 27–20, but the Redskins answered with Terry Allen's second one-yard touchdown run. Facing a 34–20 hole with 10:37 remaining, Esiason led a furious comeback. He drove the Cards 80 yards in eight plays, a drive culminated by rookie tight end Johnny McWilliams' first NFL touchdown, a 13-yard reception. Esiason had the Cards poised to strike again at the Redskin 25-yard line on the next Arizona possession but tossed his fourth interception. The Card defense held, and Esiason had the ball again at the Arizona 34-yard line with 1:24 to play following Washington's punt. Seven plays, 66 yards, and 1:04 later, the score was tied when Esiason found wide receiver Anthony Edwards with a 12-yard scoring pass. Arizona's 615 total yards were the first 600-yard outing in franchise history and the highest total in the NFL in six years (676, Washington vs. Detroit, Nov. 4, 1990).

Cardinals 31, Rams 28

September 29, 1996 ■ Sun Devil Stadium (33,116)

The Cardinals scored the game's final 17 points on their last three possessions to post a dramatic 31–28 comeback victory and register their first two-victory September since 1991. It also was the first time in 66 games the Cards overcame a fourth-quarter deficit of 14 points or greater. Although the St. Louis line of scrimmage never advanced farther than the Cards' 34-yard line, Arizona was victimized by four long Ram scoring plays—66-yard punt return and 34-, 46-, and 49-yard touchdown passes. The Cards methodically marched to two clock-eating fourth-quarter touchdown drives (93 yards on 19 plays in 10:22, and 62 yards on 12 plays in 3:38) that both culminated in five-yard touchdown passes from quarterback Kent Graham to fullback Larry Centers and wide receiver Frank Sanders, respectively. The latter tied the score with 11 seconds remaining. Two plays into overtime, running back LeShon Johnson raced 66 yards to set the table for kicker Greg Davis' 24-yard game-winning field goal two plays later. Graham established personal bests with 37-for-58 passing for 366 yards and four touchdowns and equalled two team single-game records—37 completions (Neil Lomax, 1984) and 16 consecutive completions (Steve Beuerlein, 1994). Graham also became the 11th Cardinal to throw four or more touchdown passes in a game. Johnson's pivotal overtime dash was the longest non-scoring run by a Cardinal since 1979 (Otis Anderson, 75 yards). Centers' 13 receptions were his single-game best. Arizona also set a franchise record with 23 first downs passing.

Cardinals 40, Falcons 37

November 26, 1995 ■ Sun Devil Stadium

The Cardinals mustered their first 500-yard game (513) and highest point total (40) since 1988 in Arizona's third consecutive home overtime contest, equalling Green Bay's 1987 NFL record. Special teams punctuated the contest. In the second quarter, Atlanta kicker Morten Andersen had a point-after-touchdown conversion attempt blocked, and a 46-yard field goal nullified by penalty. The Cards' game-tying touchdown, a two-yard pass from quarterback Dave Krieg to tight end Oscar McBride with 1:57 to play, followed a muffed Atlanta punt return. After an interception by Card linebacker Seth Joyner on Atlanta's ensuing possession, Card kicker Greg Davis missed a 45-yard field-goal attempt on the final play of regulation. Falcon punter Dan Stryzinski muffed an errant center snap on the first overtime possession, then fumbled the ball to the Cards' Eric England at Atlanta's 10-yard line. Davis ended the game with his fourth field goal on the next play. Krieg's 413 passing yards surpassed 400 yards for only the fifth time in team history.

Vikings 30, Cardinals 24

November 12, 1995 ■ Sun Devil Stadium

For the third time in five games, the Cardinals were extended into overtime. For the second time in '95, it meant sudden death for Arizona. Minnesota wide receiver Qadry Ismail abruptly ended the affair with a 50-yard touchdown pass reception from quarterback Warren Moon 2:16 into the extra stanza. It was Moon's fourth touchdown toss of the afternoon. An early Viking field goal and two second-quarter Moon touchdown passes of 32 and five yards to wide receivers Jake Reed and Cris Carter, respectively, gave Minnesota 17 halftime points. The Cards answered with a nine-yard Dave Krieg-to-Rob Moore touchdown pass and the first of three Greg Davis field goals. The Cardinals inched closer at 17–16 by scoring the only points of the third quarter on Davis' second and third field goals, both from 44 yards. The teams exchanged early fourth-quarter touchdowns—Minnesota on a two-yard Moon-to-Carter connection, Arizona on a two-yard Krieg-to-tight end Wendall Gaines toss. The Cardinals also successfully completed a two-point conversion pass from Krieg to Moore to knot the game at 24–24 with 8:36 to play. It took Minnesota only six plays from scrimmage following the overtime kickoff to end the contest. Leading to Ismail's heroics, the Vikings gained field position with a 29-yard completion to Carter.

Cardinals 20, Seahawks 14

October 29, 1995 ■ Sun Devil Stadium

Turnovers and an improbable late ebb and flow highlighted Arizona's second overtime game in three outings. The Cardinals grabbed a 14–0 halftime lead on two first-quarter touchdowns—an eight-yard pass from quarterback Dave Krieg to wide receiver Rob Moore, and a five-yard fumble recovery and return by defensive end Keith McCants on the tail end of defensive end Michael Bankston's 28-yard interception return and fumble. Seattle logged 333 of its 428 total yards in the second half and overtime and eventually knotted the score on two touchdown passes to fullback Mack Strong. The Seahawks flirted with late leads on two of their final three possessions, the first ending when running back Chris Warren fumbled inside the Cards' 10-yard line after rambling 52 yards. Card cornerback Aeneas Williams recovered in the end zone for a touchback. After Cardinal running back Larry Centers fumbled at the Arizona 23-yard line, a 43-yard Seattle field-goal attempt four plays later was blocked by defensive tackle Eric Swann. The Seahawks returned the favor on Arizona's overtime-opening possession when Greg Davis' 27-yard three-point attempt was blocked. Seattle then drove to Arizona's 33-yard line only to have Card safety Lorenzo Lynch dramatically end the contest with a 72-yard interception return for a touchdown, the longest overtime interception return for a score in NFL history. Seattle fumbled eight times, a Cardinal opponent record.

Giants 27, Cardinals 21

October 8, 1995 ■ Giants Stadium

Late turnovers and a missed field goal punctuated a see-saw overtime battle that ended abruptly when Giant linebacker Jessie Armstead returned an interception 58 yards for the game-winning touchdown. Neither team held more than a four-point lead until late in the third quarter when Cardinal quarterback Dave Krieg completed his second touchdown pass to rookie wide receiver Frank Sanders, a six-yard toss the pair followed with a two-point conversion pass, to take a 21–14 advantage. After the Giants knotted the struggle at 21–21, the pulsating ending began with New York poised to take the lead at the Cards' six-yard line with just over three minutes to play, but Arizona linebacker Eric Hill caused a fumble that safety Terry Hoage recovered. A 47-yard Krieg-Sanders completion put the Cards in position to win, but Greg Davis missed a 50-yard field-goal attempt with 23 seconds left. Overtime began with an exchange of fumbles. Armstead's heroics came three plays into the Cards' second overtime possession.

Bears 19, Cardinals 16

Nov. 27, 1994 ■ Sun Devil Stadium

The Cardinals' third overtime outing in a seven-game span turned into a 19–16 setback when Chicago's Kevin Butler kicked his fourth field goal with 6:49 remaining in the extra period the Cards forced with 10 game-tying fourth-quarter points. The Cardinals enjoyed the first overtime possession, but their drive stalled at the Chicago 38-yard line. The Bears followed with a 70-yard drive leading to Butler's game-winning field goal, a march highlighted by a 44-yard pass from quarterback Steve Walsh to wide receiver Jeff Graham.

Cardinals 20, Steelers 17

Oct. 30, 1994 ■ Sun Devil Stadium

The Cardinals' second consecutive home sellout crowd—a first since moving to Arizona in 1988—witnessed Arizona's second overtime victory in a three-week span. Card linebacker/long snapper Randy Kirk caused a fumble on the overtime kickoff that Arizona recovered, and four plays later, Greg Davis sent the game-winning field goal through the uprights from 51 yards away.

Cardinals 19, Redskins 16

Oct. 16, 1994 ■ R.F.K Stadium

Both teams missed long field-goal attempts, but newly-signed kicker Todd Peterson, appearing in his first NFL game as a substitute for the injured Greg Davis, redeemed himself with 4:56 remaining in overtime with a 29-yard game-winner on the Cards' first play from scrimmage following their fifth interception that safety Terry Hoage made and returned 23 yards. The Cards knotted the contest in regulation with 27 seconds remaining on a five-yard pass from quarterback Steve Beuerlein to wide receiver Ricky Proehl.

Cardinals 30, Seahawks 27

December 19, 1993 ■ Kingdome

The Cardinals scored the final five times they touched the football—four in regulation, one in overtime. Place kicker Greg Davis tied the game at 27–27 on the final play of regulation with a franchise-record and personal-best 55-yard field goal. After winning the overtime coin toss, the Cardinals started the game-winning drive at their 20-yard line. Thirteen plays later, including a crucial 12-yard third-and-nine midfield completion to wide receiver Anthony Edwards, Davis delivered again with a 41-yard game-winning field goal.

Cardinals 10, Eagles 10

December 7, 1986 ■ Veterans Stadium

One blocked field goal, two punts, and two missed field goals in overtime led to the 10–10 tie after the Cardinals erased a 10–3 deficit with only 2:39 left in regulation with a 48-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Neil Lomax to wide receiver Roy Green. Included in the Cards' season-high 461 yards total offense were 390 passing yards (30-of-48) by Lomax. Green (6 rec., 100 yards) and J.T. Smith (10 rec., 131 yards) enjoyed outstanding efforts. The Cardinals won the overtime coin toss and drove into field goal range, but Eagle Reggie White blocked Eric Schubert's 40-yard field-goal attempt. The teams traded punts before Philadelphia's Paul McFadden pushed a 43-yard field-goal try wide left. Schubert did the same from 37 yards away. On the final play of the extra period, Cardinal cornerback Carl Carter intercepted a pass by Eagle quarterback Matt Cavanaugh and returned it to midfield as time expired.

Cardinals 27, Browns 24

September 8, 1985 ■ Cleveland Stadium

Neil O'Donoghue kicked a 35-yard field goal with 5:27 gone in overtime to give the Cardinals a 27–24 win over the Browns. The Cards jumped to a 17–3 lead early in the fourth quarter on a 48-yard interception return for a touchdown by Lionel Washington. Cleveland stormed back in a torrential rain to score 21 points on its next three possessions to take a 24–17 advantage with just 38 seconds remaining. With the ball on the Cards' 37-yard line, quarterback Neil Lomax connected with Ottis Anderson on a middle screen for 41 yards, found Stump Mitchell for another 15 yards, then tossed a five-yard touchdown pass to Pat Tilley to tie the game at 24–24 with four seconds to play. The Cardinals won the coin toss and drove nine plays for O'Donoghue's game-winner.

Cardinals 20, Giants 20

October 24, 1983 ■ Busch Stadium

The Cardinals and Giants fought to a "Monday Night Football" draw in a game best remembered for three missed overtime field-goal attempts by Cardinal kicker Neil O'Donoghue (44, 19, 42 yards). The teams traded punts before O'Donoghue's first miss. The Cardinals drove 81 yards to New York's two-yard line yard prior to his second misfire, a 19-yard attempt. His third errant boot followed a 23-yard interception return by Lionel Washington to New York's 25-yard line. The game ended when Cardinal cornerback Wayne Smith intercepted Giant quarterback Jeff Rutledge at the St. Louis 33-yard line.

Falcons 33, Cardinals 27

November 9, 1980 ■ Busch Stadium

The Cardinals jumped to a 24–6 halftime lead. Atlanta roared back with 21 points after halftime to win 33–27. Quarterbacks Jim Hart of the Cardinals (344 yards passing) and the Falcons' Steve Bartkowski (378 yards) combined for 722 aerial yards as the teams compiled 978 yards total offense—Cardinals 415, Falcons 563. Hart connected on a pair of long touchdown tosses to Ray Combs (38 yards) and Pat Tilley (50 yards) in the first quarter, and Ottis Anderson scored on an eight-yard run in the second stanza before the Falcons' defense stiffened. Atlanta limited the Cards after halftime to minus five yards rushing, 109 yards total offense, and finished the day with five interceptions. Falcon running back Lynn Cain scored twice on runs of five and 10 yards, the latter forcing the overtime period. Atlanta won the coin toss and running back Ray Strong scored on a 21-yard run 4:42 into the extra period to decide the 33–27 verdict.

49ers 24, Cardinals 21

September 14, 1980 ■ Candlestick Park

The 49ers drove 80 yards in the final two minutes to tie the game at 21–21, then kicked a field goal on their first overtime possession to win. San Francisco opened the scoring when running back Paul Hofer scored on a 19-yard pass from quarterback Steve DeBerg in the second period. The Cards answered with touchdown passes from Jim Hart to running back Theotis Brown (13 yards) and tight end Doug Marsh (five yards) to take a 14–7 lead. After a 49er score tied the game, the Cards drove 75 yards in eight plays to lead 21–14, but allowed San Francisco to drive 80 yards in 53 seconds in the last two minutes, capped by Hofer's second touchdown run, a 26-yarder with 58 ticks left in regulation. The Cardinals won the overtime coin toss, but punted following their first possession. The 49ers took the ball 52 yards to the 16-yard line where Ray Wersching kicked a 33-yard field goal with 4:12 elapsed in overtime.

Cowboys 24, Cardinals 21

October 15, 1978 ■ Busch Stadium

Veteran Card kicker Jim Bakken saw a 33-yard game-winning field-goal attempt glance off the left upright with less than three minutes to play in regulation. Dallas won the overtime coin toss and the game 24–21 on a 47-yard field goal by Rafael Septien with 3:28 expired. The Cardinals took a 14–7 halftime lead on scoring runs of two and one yards by Jim Otis. Dallas quarterback Roger Staubach connected with wide receiver Tony Hill from 37 and six yards to give the Cowboys a 21–14 third-quarter lead. The Cards tied the game with a one-yard touchdown pass from Hart to running back Wayne Morris early in the fourth period. Hart suffered a separated left shoulder on a sack by Cowboy lineman Harvey Martin late in the game and the following week saw his streak of consecutive starts end at 64 games.

Cardinals 23, 49ers 20

October 31, 1976 ■ Busch Stadium

Despite a San Francisco ground attack that amassed 265 yards, Card kicker Jim Bakken atoned for a blocked point-after-touchdown attempt that sent the game into overtime with a field goal in the extra period for a 23–20 Cardinal victory. With the Cards nursing a 14–13 lead entering the fourth period due to a missed 49er extra point, San Francisco's Delvin Williams, who logged 194 yards rushing, scored the third of his three rushing touchdowns from one yard to give his club a 20–14 lead. Card quarterback Jim Hart connected with wide receiver Mel Gray on a 77-yard touchdown toss with eight minutes left in the game, but Bakken's conversion was blocked and the score remained tied at 20–20. The Cards won the coin toss and were forced to punt, but running back Steve Jones recovered a fumble on the return by 49er Tony Leonard at the 43-yard line. Card running back Jim Otis carried the ball six consecutive times for 39 yards, including a 23-yarder, to set up Bakken's 21-yard game-winner with 6:42 elapsed.

Cardinals 20, Redskins 17

November 16, 1975 ■ Busch Stadium

In one of the most memorable finishes in franchise history, the Cardinals overcame two fourth-quarter deficits to capture undisputed possession of the NFC East lead with a 7–2 record following a thrilling 20–17 win. Washington took a 14–3 lead into the fourth quarter and held a 17–10 advantage with 1:43 to play before the Cardinals took possession on their own 39-yard line. Quarterback Jim Hart connected with wide receiver Earl Thomas for 19 yards to give the Cards a first-and-goal situation at the Washington six-yard line with 50 seconds remaining. After three incompletions, Hart faced fourth-and-goal with 25 ticks left. Speedy wide receiver Mel Gray lined wide right against Redskin cornerback Pat Fischer and ran a quick slant. The two Pro Bowlers ran stride for stride. Hart delivered the ball to the end zone, and Gray emerged from a tangle of arms, legs, and elbows with the ball, then dropped it when Fischer stripped him. After one official ruled incomplete pass and another touchdown, a conference ensued. Referee Fred Silva emerged and signaled touchdown. Jim Bakken converted the extra point to send the game into overtime. The Cards won the coin toss and drove 55 yards to set up Bakken's game-winning 37-yard field goal with seven minutes elapsed.

Cowboys 37, Cardinals 31

September 28, 1975 ■ Texas Stadium

The Cardinals won the toss. Quarterback Jim Hart's pass was intercepted and returned by Dallas linebacker Lee Roy Jordan to the Cardinals' 37-yard line. Cowboy quarterback Roger Staubach passed to tight end Billy Joe DuPree for a three-yard touchdown at 7:53.

Last Meeting

December 26, 1999 ■ Georgia Dome ■ Atlanta 37, Cardinals 14

The Cardinals' third consecutive loss eliminated them from postseason contention. Atlanta's second-half ball control proved the difference in the Cards' final game of the millennium. After falling behind 7–0 in the first quarter, Arizona tallied two touchdowns, one-yard Mario Bates runs to cap 86- and 74-yard drives, in a 5:50 span of the second quarter to take a 14–7 lead. Atlanta responded with 30 unanswered points on five of its seven remaining possessions. After grabbing a 20–14 halftime lead, the Falcons dominated the second half with successful ball-control strategy. The defending National Football Conference champions rushed 25 times for 136 yards in the second stanza, leading to a one-sided 22:09–7:51 time-of-possession advantage following intermission. Arizona managed only four (scoreless) second-half possessions (punt, downs, downs, interception), partly due to Atlanta's time-eating (10:21) 15-play, 80-yard touchdown drive at the outset of the third quarter. Arizona, which entered the contest as the NFL's least-penalized team, was stymied by season highs of eight penalties for 57 yards. Bates, in his first start of the season and his second as a Cardinal, raised his team-leading touchdown total to eight, his career high. Wide receiver Frank Sanders posted his first 100-yard game of the season and the 10th of his career with 106 yards on just three catches that included a 63-yarder.

Series Notes

Arizona holds a 13–7 overall advantage ... the Cards were victims of Atlanta's first home victory as a new franchise, a 16–10 defeat on December 11, 1966 ... at one stretch in the series, the Cardinals won five consecutive games (1971–76) ... Arizona owns a 7–1 mark at home against Atlanta ... 2001 will mark the 12th time in the past 16 seasons the teams have met during the regular season.

Last Meeting

November 19, 1995 ■ Clemson Stadium ■ Carolina 27, Cardinals 7

The Cardinals' lowest offensive output in 40 years—96 total yards—led to Arizona's second one-sided loss in a span of three games as the expansion Carolina Panthers posted a 27–7 victory in the first meeting between the two teams. Offensive woes punctuated the Cards' afternoon. The Cardinal offense was held scoreless for the first time in 1995 and without a touchdown for the third time. It ran only 44 plays, the lowest total in 49 games (Nov. 22, 1992 vs. Dallas). Seven of Arizona's 11 possessions, including the first five, ended in three plays or less. Besides the lowest total-yardage output since 1955 (86 yards vs. Pittsburgh, Sept. 26), Arizona became only the fourth Cardinal team to log less than 100 total yards. It also marked the second time in club annals the Cardinals failed to post a first down rushing. Twelve rushing attempts equalled the team's second-lowest all-time total. Arizona's defense tallied the Cards' only points when linebacker Seth Joyner blocked a Carolina field-goal attempt on the last play of the first half. Cornerback Aeneas Williams scooped up the bouncing ball and raced 72 yards for a touchdown, cutting the Panthers' lead to 14–7. Carolina regained the game's momentum by posting two field goals and a 23-yard touchdown burst by running back Anthony Johnson on its first three second-half possessions.

Series Notes

This year marks the Cardinals' first appearance at Ericsson Stadium ... in the only prior encounter between the teams, Carolina prevailed in a 27–7 victory at Clemson Stadium in 1995.

October 11, 1998 ■ Sun Devil Stadium ■ Cardinals 20, Chicago 7

The Cardinals rode stellar collective (NFL season-high eight takeaways—four interceptions, four fumble recoveries) and individual (middle linebacker Ronald McKinnon—three interceptions, one forced fumble, five combined tackles) defensive performances to their third victory in four outings, a 20–7 triumph over the Chicago Bears in a battle of the NFL's two charter franchises that first met in 1920. Arizona tallied its 20 points off four of Chicago's eight turnovers—Joe Nedney's career-long 49-yard field goal (cornerback Aeneas Williams' first 1998 interception), a two-yard Mario Bates run (ex-Bear defensive end Carl Simpson forced fumble, defensive end Simeon Rice fumble recovery), another two-yard Bates run (Bates and safety Kwamie Lassiter kickoff return forced fumble, Lassiter fumble recovery), and a 40-yard Nedney field goal (McKinnon fumble caused, defensive end Andre Wadsworth fumble recovery). Bates tallied his touchdowns with his first three rushes as a Cardinal in a span of five second-quarter offensive plays. Bates' scores were the first multiple rushing touchdown effort by a Cardinal running back in 34 games (LeShon Johnson, 2 at New Orleans, Sept. 22, 1996). McKinnon, whose three interceptions set a Cardinal record for linebackers, also returned a blocked Arizona fourth-quarter punt 31 yards for a first down. Chicago logged only 12 first downs, 66 yards rushing, and ran just 52 plays. The Bears' lone score, a 79-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Erik Kramer to wide receiver Bobby Engram with 2:30 to play, spoiled the Cardinals' bid to post their first shutout over the Bears since 1927. Arizona also enjoyed a 12-minute time-of-possession advantage (36:00–24:00). Tackle Lomas Brown played his 200th NFL game.

Series Notes

The Cardinals and Bears boast the oldest regular-season rivalry in NFL history dating to the 1920s when the two shared the Windy City ... the Bears maintain a 54–26–6 advantage in the series, but the Cardinals have won three of the last five meetings ... the Cardinals set a then-franchise single-game record attendance mark of 71,233 in Sun Devil Stadium on October 28, 1990 against the Bears, also the largest crowd in the history of the series ... in preseason play, the Cards hold a 23–9 margin ... the 1997 preseason contest in Chicago, a 22–10 Bear victory, was originally scheduled for Saturday, Aug. 16 but postponed until the following evening due to a severe thunderstorm.

Last Meeting

October 22, 2000 ■ Texas Stadium ■ Dallas 46, Cardinals 7

The Cardinals endured one of the most one-sided losses in franchise history and the worst of their 77-game all-time series against the Dallas Cowboys, a 48–7 verdict, the Cards' 11th consecutive regular-season setback at Texas Stadium and Vince Tobin's final game as Arizona's head coach. The Pokes scored (six touchdowns, one field goal) on seven consecutive possessions, a run that began late in the first quarter and ended early in the fourth stanza. Dallas seized a 21–0 lead before its quarterback, Troy Aikman, completed his first pass. The Cowboys built that lead by capitalizing on the first of three interceptions of Card quarterback Jake Plummer with a brief 16-yard drive that running back Emmitt Smith completed with a one-yard touchdown run, a 59-yard punt return for a touchdown by Wane McGarity, and running back Chris Warren's 32-yard rumble to cap a 73-yard march. The two possessions consisted of 10 collective plays, all runs. The Dallas lead reached 48–0 before Arizona averted a shutout with a late one-yard leap by running back Michael Pittman with 5:29 to play. The Cards gained 177 of their 276 total yards in the fourth quarter. The injury-depleted Arizona defense failed to force an opponent turnover for the third consecutive outing while allowing 200 yards rushing for the second time in 2000. Plummer's 20 completions were caught by nine different receivers, led by Pittman's seven catches. Arizona, the least penalized team in the NFL entering the contest, was called for a season-high 11 penalties (–59 yards).

Series Notes

Dallas holds a 51–26–1 series lead, including victories in 17 of the past 21 regular-season meetings ... Arizona atoned for such futility, however, with a 20–7 upset win at Texas Stadium three seasons ago in first-round playoff action and have defeated the Cowboys once in each of the past four seasons ... the Cardinals' thrilling 25–22 Sun Devil Stadium overtime win in 1997 broke a series streak of 13 consecutive Dallas victories and six consecutive season sweeps ... Dallas provided the opposition for the Cards' first regular-season home game in Arizona in 1988 ... the Cowboys prevailed 17–14 ... the Cowboys drew the largest home crown in Arizona franchise history when 73,025 packed Sun Devil Stadium to witness a 17–10 Cardinal defeat on September 19, 1993 ... at one stretch from 1967–86, Dallas won 27 of 36 games and enjoyed one home stretch of 13–2 against the Cardinals ... the Cards are 9–28 all-time at Dallas and have won only five of the last 33 regular-season meetings in Texas ... eight of the last nine Sun Devil Stadium meetings have been decided by seven points or less.

November 5, 1995 ■ Mile High Stadium ■ Denver 38, Cardinals 6

The Broncos scored the first five times they had the ball—four touchdowns, one field goal—to take an insurmountable 31–6 lead en route to a 38–6 victory, equalling the most points allowed by the Cardinals under Head Coach Buddy Ryan. The Broncos pounced quickly, scoring two touchdowns in the game's first 6:04 to take a 14–0 lead. In becoming the fourth Cardinal opponent to reach 400 total yards, the Broncos accumulated 188 of their 406 total yards on six big plays over 20 yards, including two touchdown passes of 47 and 23 yards. Denver quarterback John Elway stole the spotlight with 16-of-21 accuracy for 256 yards and three touchdowns with one interception to become the seventh NFL quarterback to surpass 40,000 career passing yards. Arizona's rushing defense succumbed to a 148-yard effort by the Broncos, principally authored by rookie running back Terrell Davis, who became the fifth Card opponent of the season to crack 100 yards rushing (135 yards).

Series Notes

The clubs have played just five times during the regular season with the Cardinal still searching for their first victory ... the first contest ended in a 17–17 tie in 1973, the second a 7–0 Bronco win in 1977, the third a 37–0 shutout by Denver at Sun Devil Stadium in 1989, the fourth a 24–10 come-from-behind Broncos' win in 1991, and most recently a 38–6 Denver shellacking of the Cards in 1995 ... in preseason play, the teams faced each other five consecutive seasons (1990–94) and 13 times overall ... the Cards are 4–9 against Denver in preseason play.

Last Meeting

November 14, 1999 ■ Sun Devil Stadium ■ Cardinals 23, Detroit 19

An awakened Arizona rushing attack, led by running back Michael Pittman, who amassed 133 yards on 23 carries in his first NFL start, a turnover-free passing game, and an opportunistic defense snapped the Cards' three-game losing streak. After spotting Detroit a 7–0 lead, Arizona tallied 23 unanswered points on three field goals and two rushing touchdowns, then clung to its lead through a harrowing ending. After the first of three Chris Jacke field goals cut the Cards' deficit to 7–3, Pittman led to the Cards' first touchdown by galloping 46 yards to Detroit's three-yard line with a screen pass. Two plays later, running back Mario Bates skirted the right side for a three-yard touchdown. Jacke closed first-half action with his second and third three-pointers, the latter a booming 49-yarder as time expired. On Arizona's first second-half play from scrimmage, Pittman rambled 58 yards for a touchdown, the Cards' longest rush in 52 games (LeShon Johnson, 66 yards vs. St. Louis, Sept. 27, 1996) and longest touchdown run in 53 contests (Johnson, 70 yards at New Orleans, Sept. 22, 1996). Detroit closed the gap with a 77-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Gus Frerotte to wide receiver Germaine Crowell. Arizona's advantage became precarious when a fourth-quarter Pittman fumble was scooped and returned 35 yards for a touchdown by Lion cornerback Terry Fair. Detroit's two-point conversion attempt failed, leaving it in need of a touchdown on its final possession that ended at Arizona's 10-yard line on three consecutive incompletions. The Cards' defense posted five sacks and limited Detroit's rushing attack to 42 yards, the Cards' best rush defense in 60 outings (34 yards vs. Atlanta, Nov. 26, 1995, OT). Three Cards—Pittman (48 yards), David Boston (40 yards), and Frank Sanders (33 yards)—caught passes of at least 30 yards for the first time in 99 games (Anthony Edwards 49, Ricky Proehl 42, Randal Hill 38 vs. Washington, Oct. 17, 1994).

Series Notes

Two of the NFL's oldest rivals, the teams first met in 1934 when Detroit prevailed 6–0 ... Detroit leads the series 26–17–3, but prior to two 1993 encounters, the clubs had met just three times since 1980 ... in the most recent meetings, the Cards won a 17–15 thriller as Joe Nedney kicked a career-long 53-yard field goal with under three minutes remaining in 1998, while Arizona held on for a 23–19 decision in 1999 ... the series has been marked by streaks, primarily while the teams were members of the NFL's Western Division ... the Lions defeated the Cardinals nine consecutive times from 1935–39 and six straight times from 1942–45 ... the Cardinals produced a six-game winning streak from 1946–48 and won four of five meetings prior to the Lion' two-game sweep in 1993 ... the Cards have won the last three meetings (1995, '98, '99) by margins of three, two, and four points.

Last Meeting

November 29, 1998 ■ Arrowhead Stadium ■ K.C. 34, Cardinals 24

Kansas City ended its six-game losing streak by winning the battle for field position on an unseasonably-warm 73-degree Thanksgiving weekend afternoon. The Chiefs' 42-yard line was the average starting point of their 13 possessions, a statistic aided principally by a 21-yard first-quarter James Hasty interception return to the Cardinals' four-yard line. Two plays later, K.C. running back Bam Morris rammed into the end zone from the two-yard line, giving the Chiefs a lead they would not relinquish. Arizona, on the other hand, faced long fields all day, beginning six of their 12 possessions at or inside their own 20-yard line, including the first three (19-, 5-, 14-yard lines, respectively). After the Chiefs padded their lead to 24–10 with a second half-opening 80-yard, six-play drive, capped by a 30-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Rich Gannon to wide receiver Derrick Alexander, the Cardinals never were able to cut the deficit to seven points or less and regain possession of the ball. Gannon guided the balanced Chiefs' offense with 21-for-38 passing accuracy for 231 yards and three touchdowns with just one interception, a diving pickoff at the Arizona four-yard line by rookie cornerback Corey Chavous, the first interception by a starting Cardinal cornerback other than Aeneas Williams in 39 games (Ronnie Bradford at New Orleans, Sept. 22, 1996). Wide receiver Frank Sanders collected 100 receiving yards on six caches, his third 100-yard game of the season. Running back Adrian Murrell's 31-yard third-quarter dash was the Cardinals' longest run in 36 games (LeShon Johnson, 31 vs. N.Y. Jets, Oct. 27, 1996).

Series Notes

The Chiefs hold a 5–1–1 advantage in the series ... after the two teams played to a 6–6 tie in 1970 in the first meeting, Kansas City won the next three contests by scores of 17–13 in 1974 and 21–13 in 1980 in St. Louis, and 38–14 in Arrowhead Stadium in 1983 ... the Cardinals gained their first victory in the series in 1986 with a 23–14 decision at Busch Stadium ... in the most recent meetings, the Chiefs rolled to a 24–3 win at Sun Devil Stadium in 1995 and 34–24 victory in Arrowhead in 1998 ... though the teams have met only seven times in regular-season play, the two former neighbors in Missouri staged a regular preseason series while the Cardinals were located in St. Louis from 1960–87 ... the teams met annually in the "Governor's Cup" game from 1968–88 ... the Chiefs held a 13–7–1 advantage in those encounters.

Scoring Last Meeting

November 26, 2000 ■ Sun Devil Stadium ■ N.Y. Giants 31, Cardinals 7

The Cardinals suffered a one-sided loss for the third consecutive week, a methodical 31–7 setback to the Super Bowl-bound N.Y. Giants. While New York built a comfortable 21–0 lead by tallying one touchdown in each of the first three quarters, the Giants' defense limited Arizona to just 141 total yards (98 passing/43 rushing) during the same span. The Cardinal offense, behind quarterback Dave Brown, making his first 2000 start for injured regular Jake Plummer, sputtered in the face of New York's withering defensive pressure that produced 6 sacks (–32 yards), 3 fumble recoveries, and 1 interception. The Cards' first seven possessions ended with five punts, a lost fumble, and on downs. Arizona also was penalized a season-high 12 times for 99 yards. Running back Michael Pittman was a bright spot for the Cards, posting 173 total yards via 13 rushes for 77 yards and 10 career-high receptions for 96 yards. His 10 catches were the most by a Card running back since Larry Centers made 10 grabs at Minnesota on December 1, 1996, a span of 64 games. Pittman also authored Arizona's only touchdown, a spirited 36-yard swing pass reception and run. MarTay Jenkins increased his NFL-leading kickoff-return yardage to 1,674 yards with six returns for 158 yards, including a long of 47 yards. Brown, who injured his left shoulder in the contest, completed 18 of 36 passes for 192 yards with one touchdown and one interception before giving way to back-up Chris Greisen, making his first 2000 appearance, on Arizona's final possession.

Series Notes

One of the NFL's ancient rivalries and the lengthiest for the Cardinals ... the Giants hold a 28–12–1 advantage in the series since 1979 and 76–39–2 overall dating to 1926 ... prior to 1999, the Giants had won seven of eight contests, including sweeps in 1997–98 ... 1999 marked the Cards' first two-game sweep of the Giants since 1979 ... the Cardinals snapped a 10-game losing streak at Giants Stadium with a dramatic 10–9 victory at the Meadowlands in 1994 ... a 19–0 shutout at Sun Devil Stadium in 1992 broke the Giants' eight-game series winning streak ... the Giants provided the opposition for the final game of the 1974 season when the Cardinals roared back from a 14–0 halftime deficit for a 26–14 win and their first division crown since 1948 ... the Giants also were the Cardinals' foe in the club's final game in St. Louis, a 27–24 Cardinal victory on December 13, 1987.

Last Meeting

October 4, 1998 ■ Sun Devil Stadium ■ Oakland 23, Cardinals 20

The Raiders prevailed in a battle of dueling defenses. Three crucial Oakland pass interceptions of Cardinal quarterback Jake Plummer turned the tide. The first two, pilfered within the span of four second-quarter Arizona offensive plays, produced two quick Raider touchdowns, turning a 14–9 Cardinal lead into a 23–14 Oakland advantage. The first was a 46-yard touchdown return by Raider cornerback Charles Woodson, the 1998 Heisman Trophy winner. The second, a 28-yard return to the Arizona four-yard line by defensive back Marquis Walker, set the table for relief quarterback Donald Hollas' one-yard touchdown plunge three plays later. Hollas entered the game in the first quarter after starter Jeff George left with a groin injury. Arizona's third-quarter bid to regain the game's momentum was thwarted by Oakland's third interception. One play after recovering a Hollas fumble at the Raiders' 16-yard line, Plummer threw into the Oakland end zone toward fullback Larry Centers. The pass was intercepted by Eric Allen, the other Raider starting cornerback. The Arizona defense was spectacular, holding Oakland scoreless in the second half by forcing four punts and two fumbles. Overall, the Cardinal defenders held the Raiders to just 222 total yards (112 rushing, 110 passing), recovered two fumbles, intercepted one pass, and posted three sacks. First-round draft choice Andre Wadsworth collected two of the three sacks and forced one of the two fumbles, the latter a key play that gave the ball to Arizona at its 31-yard line with 1:52 to play. The Raider defense limited Arizona to 236 total yards (187 passing, 49 rushing) and two-of-13 (15 percent) third-down conversion success. Eric Metcalf cracked the 15,000-yard career total yardage mark with his 13th career 200-yard combined yardage day (194 kickoff-return yards, 57 punt-return yards, 2 yards receiving). Wide receiver Frank Sanders equalled his career high with 10 receptions for 118 yards, his fifth career 100-yard game.

Series Notes

The teams have met just four times in regular-season play with Oakland holding a 3–1 advantage ... the Cards' lone triumph was a 34–24 win at the L.A. Coliseum in 1983 ... the Raiders won 17–10 at Busch Stadium in St. Louis in 1973, 16–14 at the Coliseum in 1989, and 23–20 in Sun Devil Stadium in 1998 ... in preseason play, the Raiders were victors in 1976 (20–9) ,1996 (26–3), and 1999 (43–7), while Arizona won the 1998 preseason encounter 21–14 ... the 1976 contest, played before a crowd of 33,216 at Sun Devil Stadium, marked the first professional football game played in the stadium that would become the Cardinals' home 12 years later.

November 19, 2000 ■ Veterans Stadium ■ Phila. 34, Cardinals 9

The Eagles swept the two-game season series for the first time since 1995 by scoring three touchdowns and a field goal on their final five possessions. The victory propelled Philadelphia into first place in the NFC East Division. A scrappy Arizona defense kept the Cardinals close throughout the early going, forcing two punts and logging two takeaways (outside linebacker Rob Fredrickson interception, middle linebacker Ronald McKinnon end-zone fumble recovery) on four of the Eagles' first five possessions to maintain a 3–3 deadlock. Arizona's offensive struggles continued, failing to crack 100 yards in total offense until midway through the fourth quarter. The Cards' lone touchdown was the work of a 44-yard touchdown pass from reserve quarterback Dave Brown, making his first 2000 appearance in relief of battered (left thumb, ribs) starter Jake Plummer, to wide receiver David Boston with only 4:43 to play. Defensive end Simeon Rice shined defensively, recording three career-high quarterback sacks (–13 yards), a Cardinal best since outside linebacker Ken Harvey also registered three sacks at Washington on Sept. 12, 1993. Starting outside linebacker Zack Walz was lost for the remainder of the season with a fractured lower left leg. Arizona also suffered nine penalties for 114 yards.

Series Notes

The 106-game series between the teams that dates to 1935 is dead-even at 52–52–2 ... prior to 1999, the teams had split six of the previous nine years (1990–91, '93–'94, '96–'97) ... Philadelphia swept both contests in 1992, '95, and '00 while the Cardinals took both contests in '98 and '99, including three encounters by margins of 3, 4, and 1 points ... the teams figured in consecutive NFL championship games in the 1940s ... the 1997 season marked the 50th anniversary of the 1947 Chicago Cardinals' championship campaign ... they edged the Eagles 28–21 at frozen Comiskey Park on December 28, 1947 for the NFL title ... the Eagles avenged that loss with a 7–0 victory at Shibe Park in Philadelphia on December 16 to earn the 1948 crown.

December 27, 1998 ■ Sun Devil Stadium ■ Cardinals 16, San Diego 13

Chris Jacke's game-ending, contest-winning field goal for the third consecutive week capped quarterback Jake Plummer's ninth fourth-quarter comeback in his 26th NFL game to propel the Cardinals into postseason play for the first time since 1982 (1975 in a non-strike season) with their first winning season in 14 years (9–7 in 1984). The postseason berth also ended the NFL's longest playoff drought at 15 years. Cardinal free safety Kwamie Lassiter starred in the defensive struggle with four interceptions, equalling the NFL single-game record shared with many others, including Cardinals Jerry Norton (twice, 1960, '61) and Bob Nussbaumer (1949). Lassiter finished the season with an NFC-leading eight pickoffs. San Diego's staunch league-leading defense limited the Cards to just two field goals off the five turnovers while frustrating Arizona into a season-low 25 rushing yards. The Chargers' misfiring offense produced a late 10-play, 68-yard drive, culminating with a 30-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Craig Whelihan to wide receiver Ryan Thelwell on fourth-and-20 with the Cardinals just one defensive stop away from their playoff berth, to tie the game with 16 seconds remaining. Kick returner Eric Metcalf, a former Charger, gave Plummer and Jacke their window of opportunity by returning San Diego's ensuing kickoff 46 yards to the Chargers' 44-yard line with eight seconds remaining. Plummer hit wide receiver Frank Sanders with a quick 10-yard completion to the Chargers' 34-yard line. Timeout was called with three seconds to play. Jacke drilled his third field goal of the game, a 52-yarder and his 14th career game-winner. The victory was the Cardinals' seventh by three points or less, an NFL single-season record. Sanders' eight receptions for 106 yards, his fifth 100-yard game of the season, raised his season total to an NFC-best 89 catches. Arizona was penalized just twice for only nine yards, the lowest totals in 31 (2 at Cincinnati, Aug. 31, 1997) and 54 (nine yards at Minnesota, Nov. 12, 1995) games, respectively.

Series Notes

The Cards and Chargers have met eight times during regular-season play dating to 1971 with San Diego holding a 6–2 advantage ... the Chargers won the first two meetings at Jack Murphy Stadium by scores of 20–17 in 1971 and 43–24 in 1976 ... after the Cards posted a 44–14 triumph in St. Louis in 1983, San Diego swept the next four encounters with a 28–24 home-field victory in 1987, victories of 24–13 in 1989 and 27–21 in 1992 at Sun Devil Stadium, and a 28–25 win at San Diego in 1995 ... in the most recent meeting, the Cardinals' 16–13 triumph in the 1998 season finale propelled them into postseason play for the first time since 1982 (1975 in a non-strike season) with their first winning season in 14 years (9–7 in 1984).

September 13, 1998 ■ Kingdome ■ Seattle 33, Cardinals 14

Interception returns for touchdowns by both Seattle cornerbacks—Willie Williams (28 yards) and Shawn Springs (56 yards)—and a 72-yard pass interference-aided touchdown drive propelled the Seahawks to a 33–14 victory. Cardinal statistical advantages in total yards (274–244), first downs (17–16), passing yards (163–121), and third-down efficiency (33–27 percent) belied the final score. The verdict was never in doubt when Seattle raced to a 20–0 halftime lead on a first-possession field goal by former Cardinal Todd Peterson, Williams' pickoff and return on the Cards' next possession, the 72-yard drive that included a 41-yard pass interference flag at the Cards' four-yard line on Pro Bowl cornerback Aeneas Williams that led to the first of two Seahawk offensive touchdowns two plays later, and another Peterson field goal on the first half's final play. Seattle's defense successfully pressured Cardinal quarterback Jake Plummer throughout the game, forcing three interceptions and seven sacks. Running back Adrian Murrell tallied his first Cardinal touchdown, and the first of the season against the Seahawks at 9:37 of the third quarter, a four-yard end run to cap a nine-play, 62-yard drive. The Cards also dented the scoreboard when tight end Chris Gedney grabbed Plummer's first touchdown pass of the season, a 23-yarder, with 4:07 to play. Fullback Larry Centers caught seven passes, his highest total in 13 games. Defensive tackle Eric Swann, cornerback Tom Knight, and outside linebacker Jamir Miller each posted a sack, the Cardinals' first of the season.

Series Notes

The Cardinals have been defeated just once in six outings against Seattle, a 33–14 loss to the Seahawks in the Kingdome in 1998 ... Card victories have come by scores of 30–24 in 1976, 33–28 in 1983, 34–24 in 1989, and overtime triumphs of 30–27 in 1993 and 20–14 in 1995 ... in preseason play, the Seahawks hold an 9–4 advantage ... the most recent meeting resulted in a 21–3 Cardinal victory in Sun Devil Stadium last August.

December 24, 2000 ■ FedEx Field ■ Washington 20, Cardinals 3

Five Cardinal turnovers (three interceptions, two lost fumbles) spoiled the beginning of the Dave McGinnis era and sentenced the new Cardinal head coach's team to its seventh consecutive loss, a 3–13 (.188) season, its longest losing streak since 1991, and its lowest victory total and winning percentage since 1959 (2–10, .167). Despite holding Washington scoreless with only four first downs and 65 total yards (47 rushing/18 passing) in the second half, the Cards could not overcome repeated offensive misfirings, including three pivotal miscues—running back Michael Pittman's opening-drive fumble at Arizona's 33-yard line that seven plays later Washington turned into its second touchdown and a 14–0 lead 6:39 into the first quarter, and two interceptions of quarterback Jake Plummer inside the Redskins' 10-yard line. Cornerback Aeneas Williams kept the Cardinals alive with two interceptions and returns of 48 and eight yards. It was the fifth two-interception outing of Williams' career, equalling his single-game best. The pickoffs also lifted Williams' career total to 46, inching him closer to Cardinal all-time leader and Hall of Famer Larry Wilson's 52 interceptions. Pittman rushed 16 times for 72 yards and caught three passes for 13 yards, boosting his season totals to 719 rushing yards and 73 receptions to become the first Cardinal running back in 25 years to lead the team in rushing yardage and receptions (Terry Metcalf, 1974, 718 rushing yards, 50 receptions). Wide receiver Frank Sanders caught four passes that raised his career total to 418 receptions, tying him with Bobby Joe Conrad (1958–68) for fifth place in Cardinal history. MarTay Jenkins, already the NFL's first 2,000-yard single-season kickoff returner, improved his record-setting season totals to 82 returns for 2,186 yards. Arizona finished the season –24 in giveaway (44)-takeaway (20), their poorest total since 1959 (–25, 30 takeaways/55 giveaways).

Series Notes

Before Washington's 1999 sweep, the Cardinals had won nine of the prior 10 meetings, including sweeps in 1993, '94, '96, and '98 ... Washington still has won 34 of the past 50 games dating to 1937 in the all-time series it leads 64–42–1 ... prior to the '93 sweep, the last time the Cardinals defeated the Redskins twice in the same season was 1974 ... the Cards' victory in the first 1993 meeting, a 17–10 triumph, was their first success at RFK Stadium since 1978 following 14 consecutive losses ... the Cardinals' first contest against Washington in 1988, a 30–21 win September 25, was their first home-field success in Arizona and snapped a seven-game Redskins' series winning streak ... Washington won eight of the next nine encounters ... last year's 16–15 victory over the Redskins at Sun Devil Stadium came just two days before Maricopa County voters approved a new multipurpose stadium for the Cardinals and Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

Sun Devil Stadium

Sun Devil Stadium, home to Arizona State University football since 1958 and the Fiesta Bowl since 1971, added the National Football League in 1988 when the Cardinals also took residence "between the buttes." It will continue as the Cards' home through the 2003 season.

Super Bowl XXX was played at Sun Devil Stadium on January 28, 1996!

Literally carved from the desert, Sun Devil Stadium sits in a unique setting between two mountain buttes in Tempe, Arizona southeast of Phoenix.

The Cardinals will continue to call Sun Devil Stadium home through the 2003 season prior to moving into their new stadium in 2004.

Originally erected in 1958, Sun Devil Stadium has been expanded four times (1976, '77, '88, and '89). Capacity for NFL football in 2001 again will be 73,014. Improvements costing over $23 million have been made since the Cardinals arrived in 1988.

A $1.67 million field renovation (lowering and widening), completed in June of 1992, was the most recent major upgrade. Besides providing significantly more sideline space, the project also changed the look of the stadium by removing the characteristic moats in favor of field-level walkways. Ninety thousand square feet of Tifway 419 sod, the same grass that adorns the Cardinals' training facility, covers a unique layering support system that includes hot-water tubes designed to fool Mother Nature (delay dormancy) and promote growth during cooler months. Although approximately 1,300 seats were lost during the renovation, the project eliminated sight-line problems that had caused obstructed views from lower-row seats.

The bowl (south) end was connected seven years ago by Arizona State's six-story Intercollegiate Athletic Complex building and an extension of loge-level seats. A state-of-the-art video replay scoreboard and locker rooms in the north end also were added. The color video replay system, situated in the southwest corner, offers fans instant replays of game action. A complementary matrix board for messages and statistical information sits in the southeast corner.

In 1989, $11.5 million was spent to construct a three-story, 60,000 square-foot building atop the upper deck on the west side containing two 30-suite levels and topped by a modern press box and eight additional private suites. Served by four industrial-sized elevators—one for the media and three for the public—the addition offers working space for 200 sportswriters, broadcast booths, booth space for statistical crews, coaches, public address personnel, security, scoreboard operations, and a rooftop camera deck in addition to suite seating for over 900 fans.

The playing field was named Frank Kush Field in 1996 to honor the legendary former Arizona State University head coach who also served as head coach of the NFL Indianapolis Colts from 1982–84.

Super Bowl XXX required a number of improvements, including a new sound system, four new light poles at each corner of the stadium, new light fixtures to existing light standards on the east and west sides, and a resodded playing field.

Sun Devil Stadium proved a most hospitable host to the Cardinals in the team's inaugural season in Arizona in 1988 when seven of the Cards' eight regular-season home games broke the club's previous single-game attendance record. The season total of 472,937 fans also easily eclipsed the Cardinal franchise's single-season home attendance mark.

In 1994, the Cards again broke their single-season attendance mark when 497,330 fans, or an average of 62,166 patrons per game, spun the Sun Devil Stadium turnstiles.

The largest crowd in Cardinal history—73,025—witnessed the Cards' September 19, 1993 battle against the eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys at Sun Devil Stadium.

The 10 largest crowds to watch Cardinal home games all have been played at Sun Devil Stadium since the team's 1988 arrival in Arizona.■

Training Facility

Rising from a former cotton field in south Tempe is the Cardinals' training facility and corporate headquarters.

Covering 14.7 acres of land, the Cardinals' home since September of 1990 is a 94,000 square-foot state-of-the-art facility sporting desert building materials, and three and one-half acres of Southwestern (Sonoran) desert landscaping that leaves no doubt where the team proudly calls home.

Possessing many characteristics that distinguish it as both a football facility and an Arizona landmark, the showcase complex has won numerous architectural and landscape awards. In the spring of 1996, it also served as a location for the filming of the movie "Jerry Maguire" starring Tom Cruise.

The facility incorporates local materials such as copper, desert brick, and clay tile, complemented by desert landscaping which integrate into the natural surroundings.

Environmentally sensitive, it utilizes passive solar energy to light offices and corridors while employing masonry and shadow to eliminate heat.

The interior joins many important concepts. Specificity of design is reflected in the workout areas on the first level where a number of planned activities can occur simultaneously. Facilities are situated along a logical traffic pattern to accommodate a progressive flow of activities.

The first floor consists of player facilities that include the training area, an auditorium, locker room, hydrotherapy (15-player in-floor jacuzzi and cold plunge) and spa rooms, indoor/outdoor weight-training room, offensive and defensive meeting rooms, and film/videotape rooms. They open to three playing fields (one lighted) on nearly five acres of land.

The second and third floors comprise the administration and operations areas that include the coaching staff's offices. On the second and third floors, natural lighting and breezeways combine with advanced communications technology to create the most flexible office space possible. The integration of current electronic and construction technologies also makes the facility more economical to operate and easier to maintain.

The main building is flanked by a two-story attached building that includes a public area, the ticket office, and the public relations department that houses a media center featuring custom-designed work carrels, private interview rooms, televisions, and a reference library. Another two-story building housing two handball courts completes the complex.

Tifway 419 sod, the same hybrid used for golf course putting greens and the Sun Devil Stadium playing surface, covers seven and one-half acres on the east side of the building and includes three laser-leveled side-by-side practice fields. Underneath lies a complex lateral piping, sub-drainage system constructed with drainage tiles that accommodate as much as three inches of rain water that can be drained from all three fields, making them playable within three hours.

Furthermore, many details are invisible to the naked eye. For example, the fields and team building are set at the same angle as Sun Devil Stadium, the Cards' home field at Arizona State University, allowing simulation of the position of the sun under game conditions.■

The Cardinals' training facility in south Tempe has housed the franchise's day-to-day operations since 1990.

Training Camp

The Cardinals annually trek 150 miles north of Phoenix to the cool climate of Flagstaff, Arizona, northern Arizona's largest city located at one of America's highest city elevations, and the excellent facilities of Northern Arizona University (N.A.U.) for the team's preseason training camp.

While Phoenix temperatures range somewhere between hot and hotter in late July and August, the Cardinals benefit from Flagstaff's 7,200-foot altitude that consistently produces daytime temperatures in the upper 70s and low 80s. (On average, summer temperatures in Flagstaff reach 90 degrees only three days per year.)

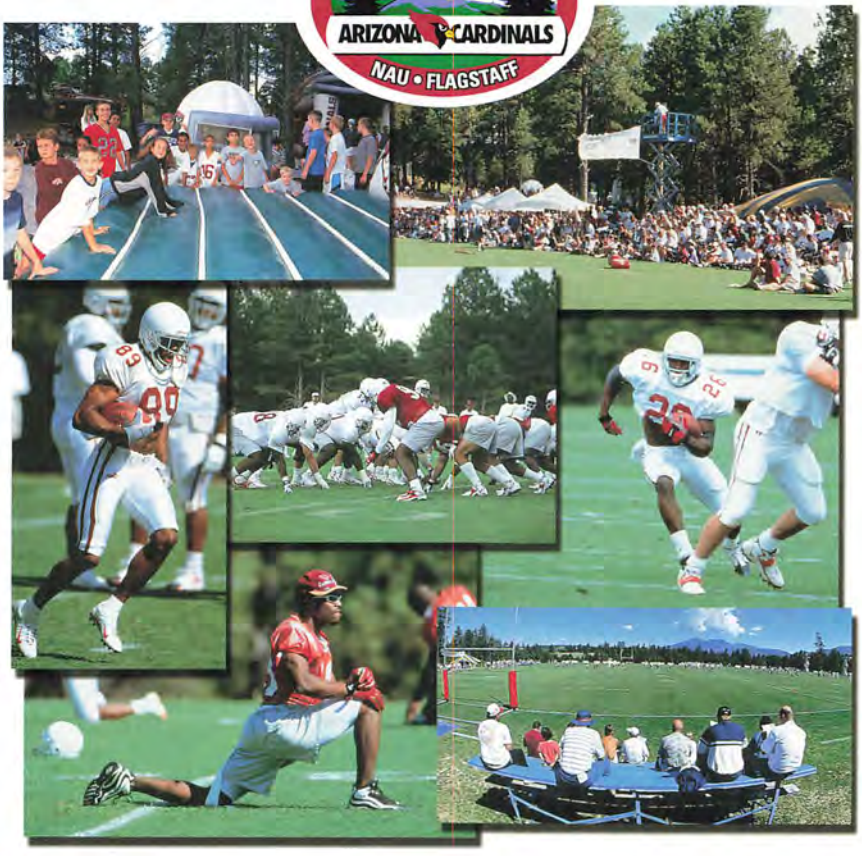
Flagstaff is situated in the Coconino National Forest, the largest continuous stand of ponderosa pines in the United States. It also serves as the county seat for Coconino County, the second largest county in the nation with 12 million acres.

Flagstaff's name is derived from a tall pine tree made into a flagpole in 1876 to celebrate the Declaration of Independence Centennial.

The picturesque N.A.U. campus arguably provides the National Football League's most scenic training-camp venue. The Cardinals' three practice fields literally were carved from pine trees with the San Francisco Peaks, the highest points in Arizona at 12,633 feet, serving as a unrivaled backdrop and a photographer's delight.

N.A.U.'s 14,000-seat Walkup Skydome also offers the Cardinals flexibility if the occasional summertime afternoon showers interfere with practice schedules.

The Cardinals situate at the south end of the N.A.U. campus, utilizing the school's dormitories, dining halls, and classroom buildings for their daily regimen.■



Cardinals Charities

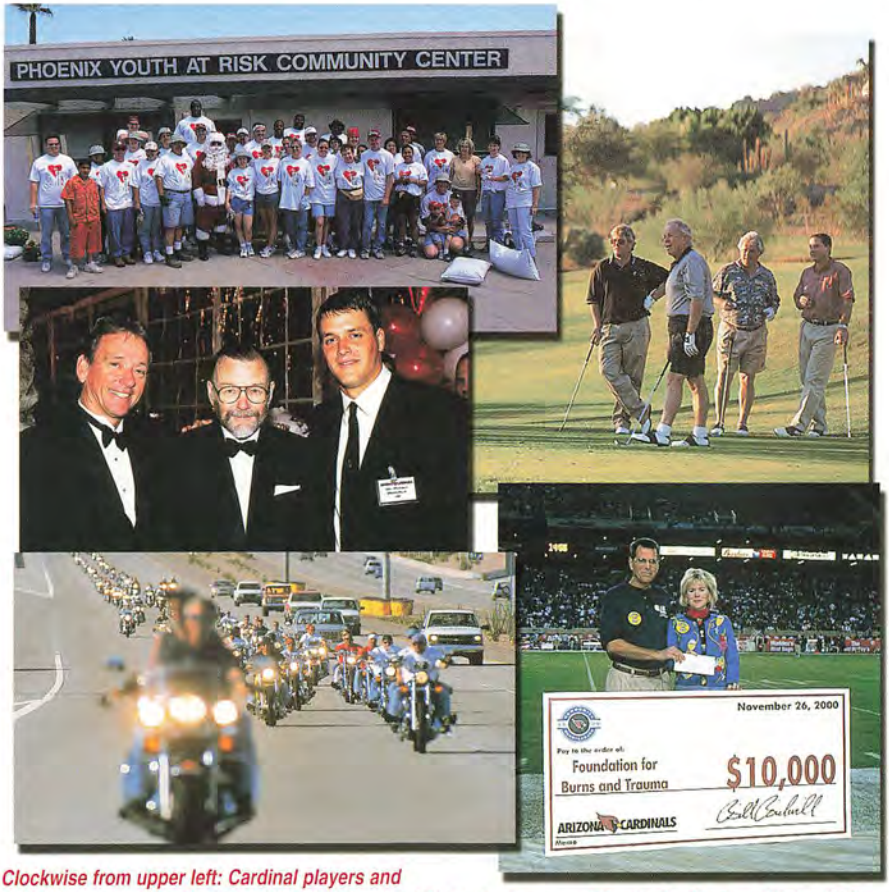
Founded in 1990, Cardinals Charities supports programs designed to improve the quality of life and enhance opportunities for children, women, and minorities in the state of Arizona.

Cardinals Charities' grants are awarded on an annual basis in response to applications from various qualified non-profit organizations whose goals and programs meet the mission statement.

CARDINALS CHARITIES

Every effort is made to direct contributions where they can have the greatest impact while addressing the most critical needs.

Since its inception, Cardinals Charities has distributed nearly one and one-half million dollars to over 100 worthy Arizona charitable organizations on behalf of the Arizona Cardinals and the National Football League.■



Clockwise from upper left: Cardinal players and employees support "Christmas In April" in central Phoenix; the annual Cardinals Charities Winter Golf Classic; grant presentation prior to kickoff; the annual "Rock 'n' Roll Ride To Flagstaff;" and, Head Coach Dave McGinnis, President Bill Bidwill, and quarterback Jake Plummer attend the 2000 Cardinals Charities Teddy Bear Ball.

Cards In The Community

The Arizona Cardinals are committed to being good neighbors!

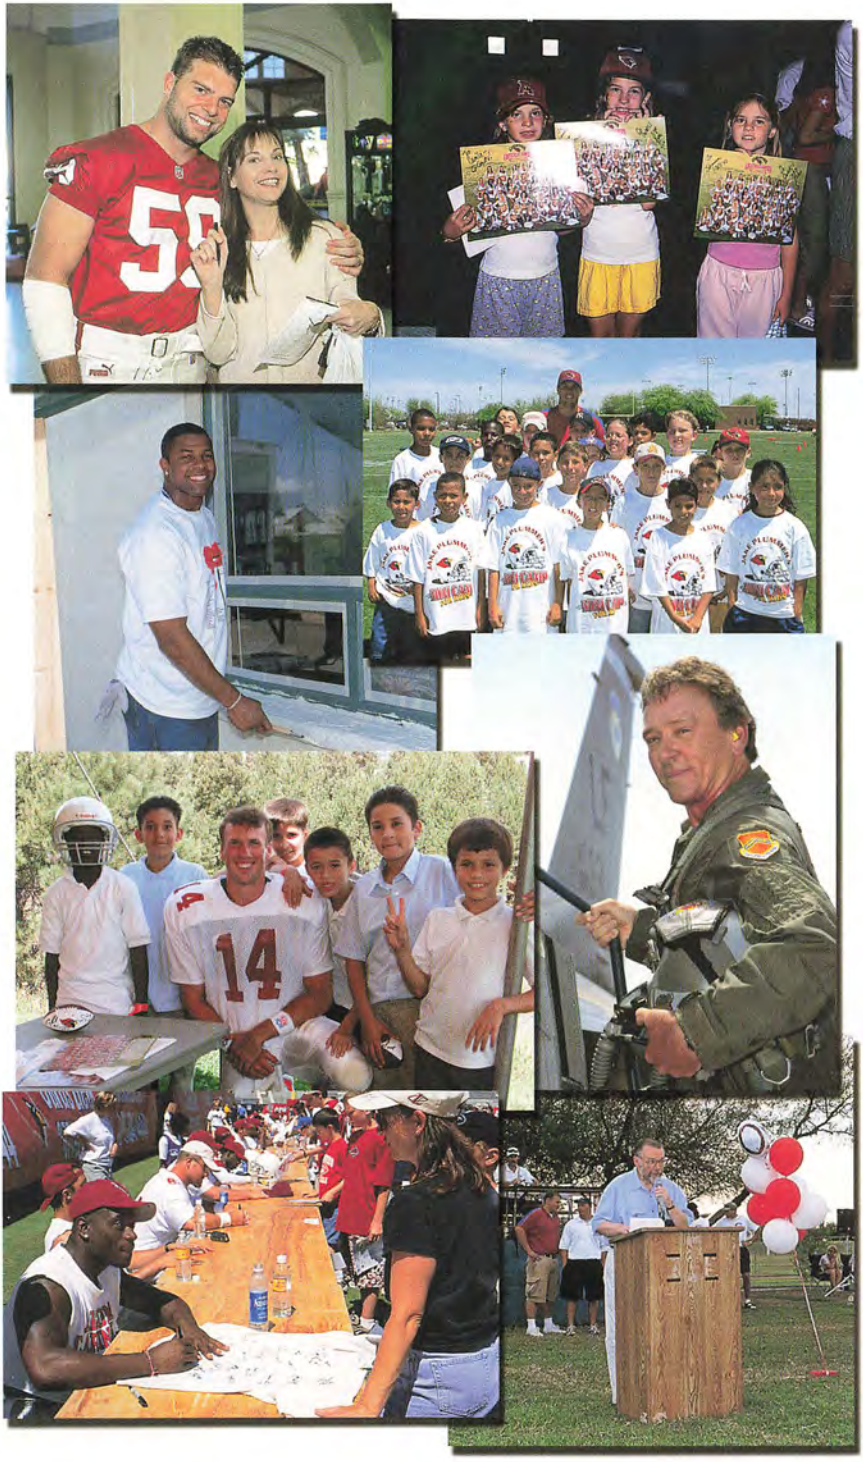
Now under the leadership of first-year director of community relations Luis Zendejas, the former NFL (Dallas and Philadelphia) and Arizona State kicker, the Cards' community efforts span the state.

Performance-based programs raise funds for worthy organizations. Education programs, such as "Read Across America" and "Hometown Huddle" reach Arizona's students through state schools. School appearances remain a staple. Many players participate in youth camps throughout the off-season. Their wives hold food drives. Players serve as spokesmen for a variety of undertakings, such as Frank Sanders for Operation Intercept, the largest educational campaign against telemarketing fraud in Arizona history.

The Cardinals Cheerleaders also make numerous community appearances throughout the year.

Players invest time and effort into the community of their own volition, too. For example, Head Coach Dave McGinnis is enrolled in the honorary squadron commander program at Luke A.F.B. Safety Kwamie Lassiter established "Lassiters' T.A.C.K.L.E. Foundation"—Teaching All Children to Kickoff Leadership Through Education—to help supply necessary resources to motivate children to excel in school. The Jake Plummer Foundation raises money for Phoenix Children's Hospital, the Alzheimer's Association, and Homeward Bound, an organization that provides transitional housing for families with children in distress. A primary source for funding is the quarterback's annual Bowl-o-Rama. Chris Greisen donates time regularly to Homeward Bound, mentoring the at-risk youngsters. Rob Fredrickson hosts youth camps on the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community.

The Cardinals make their community a year-round priority.■



Cardinal Broadcasting

Cardinal broadcasting adds 75 hours of team programming in 2001 to complement its strong returning lineup that again will include KDUS (1060 AM)/KSLX (100.7 FM) Radio, Spanish-language KPHX (1480 AM) Radio, FOX 10 (KSAZ-TV, channel 10, Phoenix), and FOX Sports Net Arizona as media outlets.

Cardinal Radio

KDUS (1060 AM), a.k.a. "The Deuce," and KSLX (100.7 FM) will broadcast all Cardinal games, home and away, for the fourth consecutive season.

Play-by-play voice Tom Dillon, a 17-time Arizona sportscaster-of-the-year, will be describing Cardinal action for the 12th season.

Color analyst John Mistler, a former NFL (N.Y. Giants) and college (Arizona State) wide receiver, begins his ninth year in the booth.

Pre-game coverage expands to two hours with the interactive "Cardinals Pre-Game Huddle." Hosted by KNXV-TV personality Craig Fouhy, the revamped show features live fan interaction via phone calls, FAXes, and e-mails and intensive breakdown and game analysis by former NFL quarterback Dan Manucci, ex-Chicago Bear safety Doug Plank, and former Cardinal middle linebacker Eric Hill. "The Huddle" also features "NFL Flash," a live check-in of other NFL games and "Live Legends," a live interview with former Cardinal and NFL greats.

Halftime programming and "Cardinals Talk," a 75-minute call-in show immediately following each game, will be hosted by Fouhy and Manucci. The duo will analyze first-half action at intermission. Fouhy will be offering his insight from the stadium home and road. Manucci will bounce between the stadium and studio for home games and man the studio for road contests.

Two additional weekly programs will air exclusively on KDUS.

The 30-minute "Friday Mac Attack," featuring Arizona Head Coach Dave McGinnis, will be heard on Friday mornings at 7 a.m., giving fans the opportunity to interact with the first-year Cardinal head man via e-mail and phone calls.

The 60-minute "Big Red Rage," airing Fridays at 6 p.m., will feature live interaction between fans and players via phone calls and e-mails. Plank co-hosts the program with Cardinal players.

FOX 10

In addition to preseason (live or tape delay) game telecasts, FOX 10 again will air "Maximum Cardinals by Alltel" Saturdays at noon.

FOX 10 also will offer a Cardinal segment in its "Sunday Sports Night" program during the season and will have a Cardinal presence each Friday on "Arizona Morning" for 10 weeks during the fall.

"Maximum Cardinals By Alltel"

A year ago in its first season, "Maximum Cardinals by Alltel" provided Cardinal fans with a unique 30-minute barrage of insider video that led to an Emmy Award nomination.

The 2001 version, hosted by Fox Sports Net's Jody Jackson, will reach deeper into the makeup of the Cardinals' franchise via personal player profiles, microphoned coaches and players, and a film breakdown segment with Plank.

The popular "Meet Your Cheerleader" segment returns as well.

FOX Sports Net

FOX Sports Net (FSN) offers a weekly news show, timely news updates every night during the season, and rebroadcasts of team-controlled preseason games.

The cable network will dedicate its Tuesday night "Regional Sports Report" to the Cardinals, subtitling the program "Cardinals Insider."

FSN also will air delayed telecasts of the team's four preseason games and "Maximum Cardinals by Alltel."

Spanish Radio

KPHX Radio (1480 AM) again describes all Cardinal games in Spanish.

The Cards became the first professional team in Arizona to offer all games—preseason and regular season, home and road—in Spanish in 2000.

Gabriel Trujillo describes the action. Former Arizona State and NFL kicker Luis Zendejas, who also serves as the Cardinals' director of community relations, offers color commentary.

Preseason Television

The Cards' 2001 preseason games will be described by veteran sportscaster Barry Tompkins (play-by-play) and Plank (color analyst) for the second season.

Tompkins, a nationally-renowned broadcaster, previously described San Diego Chargers and Oakland Raiders preseason telecasts. He also has announced two Super Bowls, hundreds of championship boxing matches, and Pac-10 Conference football and basketball games.

Plank, a Valley resident, also serves as the television color analyst for the Arena Football League's Arizona Rattlers.

Plank is featured segments of "Maximum Cardinals by Alltel" and on Arizona's game-day radio broadcasts.

Jackson will be joined on the sidelines by FOX 10 sports personalities Jude LaCava and Kevin McCabe.

Kwamie on KDKB

Cardinal strong safety Kwamie Lassiter will join the popular "Tim and Mark Morning Show" on KDKB (93.3 FM) Radio, a sister station of KDUS/KSLX, every Monday at 7 a.m. throughout the season.

"Tim and Mark" have pledged $15 for every tackle, $100 for every pass interception, and $500 for every touchdown the Cardinal safety makes in 2001.

Proceeds will benefit "Lassiters' TACKLE Foundation"—Teaching All Children to Kickoff Leadership Through Education. The foundation helps supply necessary resources to motivate children to excel in school.■

Cardinals Care

Offense. Defense. Special teams.

Professional football demands total commitment. But the Arizona Cardinals' commitment doesn't end when they leave the football field.

From Cardinals Charities, which supports programs to improve the quality of life and enhance opportunities for children, women and minorities, to individual player foundations and simply taking the time to toss a football with young fans, the entire Cardinals organization is dedicated to serving the Arizona community.

After all, this is our community – and we take care of our own.
